

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

AUTO STOLEN FROM DRIVEWAY

John Douglas Lennon, of 113 Lincoln Court, called "the law" at 7:50 a. m. Friday, and reported to Officer Charlie W. Twitty, that sometime after 12:30 a. m., but before 6 a. m. that date, a 1961 light green 4-door Buick, license number WD-8664, was taken from the driveway at the above address.

The sedan, with a dent in the left front fender, belongs to Mrs. T. Lorraine Cumbo Lennon, same address.

Value of the automobile was set at $1100.

ROBBED IN LOVE'S LANE

Thomas Lee Lyons, 18, of 1340 Holman Street, told Officers R. Clayborne and C. R. Aycock at 5:41 p. m. Friday, that while he was giving directions to two Negro men at 300 Love's Lane, one of them grabbed him by the arms and held him while the other "went into my pocket and got my billfold."

Young Lyons, who declared his wallet contained $58.00, gave the cops complete descriptions of the strangers.

DISLOCATES WOMAN'S ARM

Mrs. Rosa Lee Thomas, 37, of 1120 S. East Street, informed Officers Otis Leroy Hinton and Eckerd Curtis Winston at 10:25 p. m. Friday, that Johnnie Ruth Thomas (colored male) pulled her arm around the post on her back porch, causing it to become dislocated.

The woman was treated by Dr. William Clark, and later signed an assault and battery warrant against Mr. Thomas, who lives on Raleigh, Route 6, the Creedmoor Highway. The warrant is on file for his arrest.

Mrs. Thomas' arm was dislocated at the elbow.

HUBBY CUTS MATE ON HEAD

Mrs. Callie Lee Bridges, 34, of 411 S. Swain Street, told Officers B. W. Peoples and C. R. Stinson at 3:35 p. m. Saturday, that during an argument, her husband, Matthew Bridges, Jr., 38, cut her on the forehead with a pocket knife at their home. Mrs. Bridges said she would sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against her spouse as soon as "I get her cut sewed up."

BROOMSTICK USED ON HEAD

Miss Ruby Mae O'Neal, of 309 S. Swain Street, reported to two cops at 8 p. m. Saturday, that Jimmy McClyde, 30, of Peebles Hotel, 122 E. Hargett Street, hit her several times on the top of her head, and the left side of it with a broomstick.

The woman requested that her home be checked at periodic intervals.

Miss O'Neal, who suffered a black eye in the melee, did not sign a warrant against McClyde. This incident occurred at her home.

"FINGERS" HUBBY IN FIGHT

Mrs. Helen Boney Harris, 35, of 215 Spence Street, told "the law" at 3:19 p. m. Sunday, that during a quarrel at home, she was assaulted by her husband, Joe James Harris, same address.

Mrs. Harris, who had a cut on her mouth, declared she would sign an assault and battery warrant against Mr. Harris later.

BREAK-IN TRY FAILS

Mrs. Thomasine Hunter Shepard, of 224 Fowle Street, reported to Officer C. W. Jones at 7:20 p. m. Monday, "while I was gone Sunday," someone attempted to break into her house. This was reported to the police station at the time.

She also said the window, which had been nailed down, could not be raised all the way since the earlier break-in. The scene was ripped from a window on the east side of the structure.

The cop's report concluded: "The window was very dirty and prints could not be lifted."

SAYS TWO BEAT HIM

Walter Hill, Jr., 51, of 916 E. Edenton Street, informed Officer C. C. Heath at 11:52 a. m. Sunday, that Harold and Leroy Boykin, both of E. Lenoir Street, "jumped on me and beat me without provocation about 9:20 Saturday night at the corner of E. Martin and Spence Streets."

Mr. Hill displayed a laceration of the lower lip, contusions of the right eye and suffered four fractured ribs.

He was treated and released at Wake Memorial Hospital, then signed assault and battery warrants against the two suspects.

Leroy Boykin, 23, was arrested, according to police files.

TWO FIGHT OVER ONE'S WIFE

Officer Norman Artis reported at 2:30 a. m. Sunday, "Two subjects, Freddie Lee Bratcher, 27, of 514 E. Hargett St., and Willie Reynolds, 38, of 609 S. McDowell St., were arrested and charged with engaging in an affray."

Freddie declared Willie "grabbed my wife in the 400 block of E. Davie Street and we started fighting."

No injuries were sustained in the melee.

THIEF LOOTS CAR

Clarence Sauter, of 828 Cotton Place, told Officers James E. (Bobby) Daye and C. G. Norris at 11:02 p. m. Saturday, he parked his 1963 Ford Falcon in front of 145 S. Swain Street about 9:15 p. m., and when he returned around 10:45 p. m., discovered someone had entered the car and removed two bags of groceries and a ladies' handbag.

The complainant stated the right rear door of the auto was not locked and no damage was done to the car.

The handbag contained $15 in cash and personal papers. The total loss was placed at $32.

STRUCK WITH FLASHLIGHT

Curtis McCullers, of 1107 Holman Street, informed Officers W. L. Hilliard and B. C. Nipper at 9:48 p. m. Saturday, he stopped at Murray's Gulf Service Station, corner Fayetteville and E. Cabarrus Sts., and a white man, who works there, but who was not working at the time, struck him "two or three times over the head with a flashlight."

McCullers declared the man was known to him only as "Red." He said "Red" came over to his car to talk with him, and after a few words, "conked" him on the head with the deadly weapon. The victim said he didn't know the "real name of Red."

He suffered two cuts on the head. No further information was listed on the report.

Dr. Jenkins Tapped By US Educators

GREENSBORO -- The Doctoral Association of Educators recently invited Dr. Clara Barnes Jenkins into membership in that organization. Membership in the organization is by invitation only and Dr. Jenkins received her invitation to become affiliated with that group of outstanding educators from Dr. Mary K. Marshall, secretary of the organization and supervising Principal of the Fulton School, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The organization became interested in Dr. Jenkins as a prospective member as a result of her recent research articles, book reviews, and publications in education.

The purposes of the Doctoral Association of Educators are: (1) to foster interest in public education; (2) to stimulate interest in research; (3) to provide a medium of cooperation and participation for its membership; (4) to afford opportunities for exchange of ideas in scholarly research among its members; and (5) to work in behalf of education in general. Membership in the organization include the leading American and foreign colleges and universities.

A member of the department of education at Saint Paul's College, Lawrenceville, Va., and a former recipient of a fellowship from the Faculty Fellowship Committee of the United Negro College Fund, Dr. Jenkins maintains membership in
