IMPORTANT THINGS

"The things that count are never weighed on scales, nor measured by the dollars gone-gone face. They are the friends smiles that never fade, the handclasp that no bribery can replace. These are the things that have the deepest worth. These are the most important things on Earth."
—Mary O'Conner.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Happy birthday greetings are in order for Mrs. Magdalene Brown, of 114 Gregg St., who will celebrate her birthday on Sunday, Oct. 30th. We say to you as we have said to others, we wish you many, many more birthdays to come provided they are all happy ones.

PATIENT AT WAKE MEMORIAL

Rev. L. W. Ellis, the husband of Mrs. Frances Long Ellis, of Pittsboro is a patient at Wake Memorial Hospital. He is the father of Mrs. Henry Richardson, of Pittsboro and Mrs. Jesse Degraffenreid, of this city. Your many friends are praying for your speedy recovery, and remember that God is still on the throne and never forgets His own.

Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

"Our heavenly Father, we thank Thee for every blessing. By the prayers of faithful watchmen, never a silent day or night. By the cross of Jesus brightly saying to men and healing light. Make us true christians unite us with our fellow christians in the love of honor truth and Thee. Pardon the unkind words, the important gesture, the hard and selfish deed, the failure to show sympathy and kindness. Help where we had the opportunity, but missed it. Enable us to live that we may daily do something to lessen the tide of human sorrow and add to the sum of human happiness and may our hearts be cleansed by faith in the son of God, who died for us and rose again we pray A men."

Pete's Pickin's

BY W. A. "PETE" WILDER - Well, folks, I'm back in print! Certainly was nice to hear that some of my readers missed me, but let's get on with the chatter.

The Swan's Art Social Club was recently entertained by MRS. FANNE HECK, President, at her home on E. Davis St. Since she last met the club, she had experienced the celebration of her son, Rev. William "Bro Billy" Melker, as minister in a progressive Illinois city. She had the experience of coming back to Raleigh by jet plane. You bet the club had a feast, as they completed plans for the Sadie Hawkins Dance at the Elks Home Nov. 11. Be there!

I had a chance to visit South Carolina last weekend on business. Accompanying me on the trip were MR. AND MRS. ROGER A. WILDER and MRS. PAULINE T. WILLIAMS. What a trip! MR. AND MRS. DANIEL HARVIN and little daughter, WINNIE RUTH, of Wilmington were the guests of MRS. CALLE BERRY, 105 Bart St. Mrs. Harvin is the former Miss Ruth Berry, of this city.

Riding down to South Carolina last week, I remembered that a former Shaw University baseball star lived in Dillon, S.

C. He had played third base in the days of JIM LYTTLE as player. His name is "HERB" CRAWFORD. I called but he was not at home.

The Exquisites Social Club will meet with MRS. PECOLIA JONES, South State St., Saturday Eve. Knowing MR. AND MRS. WINSLOW JONES as I do, let me say "watch out folks!" My personal friend, DR. FRANK B. WEAVER, supervisor in the field of Public Instruction, will be guest speaker at St. Matthew AME Church, 805 E. Davis St. The event the ninety-eighth anniversary of the church. Rev. J. F. Epps is the minister.

MR. STANFORD "DIE CAKE" JONES and his beautiful wife made two stops in the city recently, one on the way to Charlotte, his wife's home and two - back here enroute to New York City. He is the brother of MISS IDA JONES, 425 Ailston St.

REV. ROBERT LASANE, 816 Cotton Place, journeyed to Laurinburg to render service at his church. Things are looking up for the conference which meets at St. Paul AME Church here Nov. 16.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES WHITLEY, 616 E. Cabarrus St., and Mrs. Gladys Williams, spent a fortnight out of town. We have a sneaking suspicion that they visited Portsmouth and Virginia Beach, Va. A host of relatives live there. Keep on eloping, folks!
