MY PRAYER
"God, be in my head and in my understanding, God be in my eyes and in my looking, God be in my mouth and in my speaking; God be in my heart and in my thinking; God be at my end, and at my departing."
—Seruman Primes

HOME FROM HOSPITAL
Mrs. Rosa Lee Sawyer, of 731 S. Quarry Rd., is out of the hospital and back at home. It was indeed a delight to see and greet her at church last Sunday. Keep smiling, Rosa Lee. Everything will work out OK.

NEWS FROM BROOKLYN, N. Y.
We received news last week that Mr. Bernard Slocum, III, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who was involved in an auto accident is out of the hospital and is at home with his wife and 2 sons at 81-04 Rockwood Beach, Blvd. in Rockaway Long Island, N. Y. I am sure all the friends of Mr. Slocum are delighted to know that he is on the road to complete recovery. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Slocum formerly of this city.

ANNUAL HARVEST CHARITY BALL HELD
The Ladies Society Club, of Garner, recently sponsored a Charity Ball at the Garner Consolidated School gymnasium. Their theme was, "Let's Clinch Every Mountain." A fashion show was also held in connection with the ball sponsored by Mrs. Emma Jane Muse of the Emma Jane Muse Dress Shop of this city. This had to do with the introduction of nine young ladies to society.

Members of the Ladies Society are: Ladies Nellie Avery, Pauline C. Burton, Emma J. Davis, Janet S. Dunn, Rae Leach, Alice Williams, Johnnie Woods. The ball was indeed a great success for which the ladies are grateful to all who helped in any way.

HALLOWEEN PARTY HELD
On Friday afternoon at 3 p. m., a Halloween Party was held at the Teddy Bear Nursery School located at 207 S. Haywood St. A picture was made of the kindergarten group in costumes. The adults shown in the picture were Mrs. Martha Sanders, diethian and Mrs. Anne H. Thorpe, teacher of the kindergarten group.

All students are under the supervision of Mrs. Claude Rogers and Mrs. Daisy Carr, who is the nursery school operator. The children were served Halloween candies, peanuts, bubble gum, apples, punch, and cake. A delightful time was had by all of them.

NOTE: Thanks once again for your calls and mail. You don't know how good it makes me feel when we pick up the receiver and its your voice that we hear. Keep calling as well as writing.

AN APPRECIATION HOUR
An appreciation hour was held at the Rush Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church on Monday night honoring the pastor Rev. T. H. Harris for his wonderful service for 6 years. Our annual conference will convene at Franklin Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church, Laurinburg, Nov. 2nd through 6th. It is hoped that Rev. Harris will be returned to this parish.

Club News

THE LEISURETTES MEET
The Leisurettes met with Mrs. Mattie Kelly on Oberlin Rd., Thursday, Oct. 27 at 11 a. m. Although they are called the Leisurettes, they hardly fit up to that name because all of them are busy.

The president of the club is the chairman for the 1966 United Fund Residential Division for the city of Raleigh. All of the members addressed envelopes, 250-500, for the March of Dimes, some give an entire day helping at the hospital, one is a member of the League of Women Voters. For their Christmas project they decided to give a large fruit basket to the Atwater Rest Home in Apex.

The above discussions and explanations followed the opening devotions which consisted of a song, scripture and prayer.

Mrs. Kelly's home was beautifully decorated with Halloween motifs of a large Jack-O-Lantern lighted up, with a hay stack on either side, and a scare crow standing near by. Of course it took us back to their teaching days.

Mrs. Kelly, assisted by Mrs. Grace Williams served a delicious luncheon to the group which they enjoyed very much.

They adjourned to meet the third Thursday in Nov, with Mrs. Clintie Ligon on Lenoir Street.

IDLE-A-WHILE SOCIAL CLUB
On Thursday evening, Oct. 20, the Idle-A-While Social Club met at the home of Mrs. Alex King, 816 E. State St., with the president presiding.

During the business discussion the program committees' report on giving Thanksgiving Cheer baskets to needed families was approved. Certain families were named. Food for these baskets will be donated by the club members.

Birthdays settings were extended to Mrs. W. L. Graham and Mrs. Louise Walker. Birthday gifts were presented to them by Mrs. Alex King and Mrs. Dorothy Jeffers, respectively.

The beautiful Buffet Supper served by the hostess included barbequed chicken, sweet potato peeps, tossed salad, spiced apple rings, pickles, hot rolls, coffee and coconut cake.

Two tables of pinocle was played with Mrs. W. L. Graham receiving the high score and Mrs. Hallie Randlow score. Mrs. King's guest, Mrs. Bennie Mack received a beautiful gift from her.

Members present; Mesdames Lonnie Holden, Larenza Baldwin, Robert Powell, C. A. Haywood, Jr., Hallie Rand, Charles Nunn, Dorothy Jeffers, Hazel

Williams, Esther Haywood, Louise Walker, Alex King, Mofly Charles, W. L. Graham, Mrs. Chester Pridgen and Mrs. Willie Chapp missed this meeting.

LINKS MEET
The Raleigh Chapter of Links met at the home of Link Chloe Laws.

Business consisted of correspondence from National Officers, and reports of committee chairmen, namely: Inter-cultural, Jimmie Middleton; Civic, Nora Lockhart; Amelities, Thelma Clark; Social Mildred Taylor.

Following the business of the club, several friends were invited to eat a most delicious turkey and deviled crab dinner. Those who were able after eating dinner enjoyed a few rounds of bridge. Out of town guests; Miss F. Owens, Mesdames Jethro Turner, and Ada Johnson of Warrenton; Mrs. Lenell Jackson of Winston-Salem, Other guest; Mesdames E. Ball, A. Byers, L. Flagg, A. Levinston, and C. Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

"Dear God, in whose power Thy son Jesus Christ overcame death, and became the life and light of our undying souls. Mercifully grant that we may seek ever to do Thy holy will. Help us to rise above the earthly to the heavenly, with Christ dying into sin, and living only unto Thee. Make us strong and great in the fear of God, and in the love of righteousness so that being blessed of Thee we may become a blessing to others, to the praise of the glory of Thy grace through Jesus Christ we pray, Amen."

COLLEGE INN PASSES
Well I passed the old College Inn on N. Tarboro Road last week and I saw a demolition squad. It was a sad situation for me. Well do I remember the days when Willie Beech Morgan, Dave Weaver, Sadie Morgan its held forth. How the plunking piano and stomping feet and rhythmic physics echoed a new day for the young people that era.

Then came the flu epidemic and the big house experienced its moments of sadness. Finally only "Big Joe R" was the last of the "old guard." Later under the late Mrs. Sadie Blackwell, College Inn assumed a new meaning. The capital city aces featuring the "Raleigh Chick" Edwards and Fab Tucker on the trumpets, John Davis on the drums Leon Morrison singing and with the banjo E. Hunter, popularly known as "Dr. Dush" leading a terrific reid section, pulled people in almost by their bootstraps. And now The Inn has departed, but the memory lingers on. AU REVOIR-"SIMP" JONES-

Friends of this area will be saddened by the news of the passing of Mr. Sherwood, "Simp" Jones in Long Island, N. Y. Sherwood was a member of the Little Blues which had Shep Faulk at the controls with Turk Wright, Doc Jones at the terminals and Big Bob Hinton pionship softball team of 1940.
