"IT IS HE"
The Lord he it is who does go before us, He will be with us, protect and restore us, in sorrow and illness in darkness and gale, He'll never forsake us, and never will fail, so why be discouraged. The Lord walks beside us with comfort and aid.
--Esther A. Steen.

MRS. NUNN HOSTESS FOR IDLE-A-WHILE CLUB
Mrs. Charles Nunn, of 1006 S. Person St., entertained members of the Idle-A-While Social Club at her home on Thursday, Nov. 3rd.

The group, in a most lively mood and assisted by the president, centered its business around: Final plans for the Thanksgiving activities and tentative plans for a buffet luncheon for senior citizens during the Christmas holidays.

The hostess assisted, by her two daughters, Almena and Eleanor, served an appetizing dinner to the members, which included, fried chicken, potato salad on lettuce, spiced apples, hot rolls, coffee and lemon pie.

Mrs. Lonnie Holder and Mrs. Louise Walker took home the high and low prizes, respectively after several rounds of cards.

Members who enjoyed the evening: Mesdames Chupp, E. Haywood, Baldwin, King, Williams, Powell, Holden, Walker, P. Haywood, Graham, and Rand.

COMMUNITY SEWING CLUB
The Community Sewing Club met at the home of Miss Odell Woods, Hargett St., recently, Mrs. Betty Ridley served as acting president.

After a most impressive devotional period, which included a special song for Miss Woods' mother, the business part of the meeting was discussed. The members discussed the possibility of a series of lessons on major areas of homemaking. This will be based on the interest of the members. Members present hope this will be part of their 1967 Educational Program.

During the next meeting, which will meet Nov. 9, the quilt raffling will be held. All members are to have their ticket stubs in by this time.

President of the club is Mrs. Fannie Youngblood and Mrs. Elizabeth Davis is secretary.

Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

"O God our help in ages past, Our hope today and forever. Have mercy upon our humanity, in its blindness, its bitterness, and its confusion. Thou who hast granted to our age, to discover such wonders of Thy mind, and such mysteries of Thy handiwork, as to give man such vast power for good or evil. Let us not see Thy beautiful power for cruelty and unworthy ends. Steady our hearts, and teach us to use Thy power to serve Thy will on earth. Deliver our world and us O Lord, from lust or power, from envy, apathy, and ill will. Fill our minds with wisdom from above, which is pure, peaceable, and full of mercy in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.
