THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

ATTACKED BY 'SILENT' STRANGERS

Eddie Gill, Jr., 31, of 330 Dorothea (Cannon St.) Drive, told Officer Willard Meachum Parker, Jr., at 2:37 a. m. Saturday, he was "jumped" by two colored males on W. South St. at the railroad bridge. Mr. Gill declared, "The two men began cutting me for no reason and neither spoke a word."

The complainant was unable to give the cop a description of his assailants.

Gill was treated at Rex Hospital for a two and one-half inch laceration on the left side of his face, a laceration of the left thumb and a puncture wound in the stomach.

The attackers were allegedly intending to rob Gill.

JAIL TWO AS 'BLADES' FLASH

Marvin Edward Hunter, of 822 E. Lenoir St., reported to Officers C. R. Aycock and R. Clayborne at 7:17 p. m. Saturday, that while he was at the home of Douglas Hunter, 22, of 111 Heck St., he was involved in an affray with Douglas.

During the altercation, Timothy Hunter was cut on the head by Marvin Hunter, who was himself treated later at Wake Memorial Hospital for a four-inch gash on his forehead.

Timothy suffered a one-inch wound of the head, while Douglas Hunter "sporting" a two-inch laceration in the back. Warrants were signed charging Marvin and Douglas Hunter with engaging in an affray where deadly weapons were used. Both were arrested and placed under separate bonds of $350.

Marvin Hunter faces the additional charge of assault with a deadly weapon upon Timothy Hunter.

SHOT IN 'THE BOTTOM'

Jewell Rowe, 27, of 1137 Walnut St., informed "the law" at 3:57 p. m. Sunday he was shot by Mrs. Snow Dean Evans, while he was at her residence, 721 E. Davis St., popularly called "The Bottom." A warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon, was signed, and Mrs. Evans was cited to appear in City Court.

It was not listed on the report just what injury Mr. Rowe sustained after being shot with the .22 calibre pistol, following an argument.

BEATING

Mrs. Mary Means, of 639 Merrywood Dr., told Officers Norman Artis and James E. (Bobby) Daye at 1:55 a. m. Monday, that her husband, Dempsey Means, 39, beat her "because she came home after 1 a. m. Sunday." Mrs. Means, who exhibited wounds on both legs, signed an assault and battery warrant against her mate and he was arrested.

'GRAES' $360 AS MAN SLEEPS

Emmerson Waddel Sarton, of 504 S. Blount St., reported to Officer J. E. Pierce at 6:38 p. m. Saturday, that his wallet was taken from his pocket between 5:30 and 6:30 p. m. that date while he was asleep at 416 1/2 S. Swain St., "then it was put back before I woke up."

Mr. Sarton declared his bill-fold contained 18 twenty dollar bills. He also gave the cop a name of a suspect. No other action was listed on the file.

ROBBED IN 'STRANGE' MANNER

Miss Norine Smith, of K-16 Washington Terrace, informed Officers Artis and Daye at 9:23 p. m. Saturday, that she was in a car with Miss Mary Ockle-tree, of J-3 Washington Terrace, and Tollie Giles, of B-33 Washington Terrace, when they stopped at the Gulf Service Station at the corner of New Bern Avenue and Lincoln Court, to get some gas.

Miss Smith stated, "I was going to pay half of the gas bill." She said she gave Miss Ockle-tree a $20 bill and Tollie took the money and refused to return it.

The complainant told "the law" that she would sign a larceny warrant against Giles, who is also known as "Zollie."

AUTO'S INTERIOR RUINED

Mrs. Annie Ruth Massenburg, of 2003 Waters Drive, informed Officers J. S. Carroll and Lindsay Godwin at 9:41 Saturday, she left her 1963 Oldsmobile parked at the northwest corner of Raleigh Memorial Auditorium at 7 p. m., and when she returned to it at 9:30 p. m., she discovered the front and rear seats had been cut. The right front door panel was also "sliced" and the vent window on the left side of the front was broken.

No damage estimate was given.

CAN'T EXPLAIN MISSING CASH

Mrs. Bessie Hicks Chavis, of 429 Alston St., told a cop at 1:10 p. m. Monday, that on Oct. 31, she discovered $45 missing from her pocketbook, and on Monday of this week she found that $8.40 had been removed from her insurance book.

Mrs. Chavis said she could not see any signs of forcible entry and was unable to explain this larceny.

STEALS CAR HEAD RESTS

Ralph Guys, of 1315 S. Person St., related to Officers Otis Leroy Hinton, Jr., and Eckerd Curtis Winston at 9:20 p. m. Monday, that two head rests were stolen from the front seats of his 1958 Chevrolet, while it was parked at Chavis Recreation Center.

The black leather head rests were valued at $6 each.

PROMOTED TO DEPARTMENTAL HEAD - John Thompson Moore, Jr., a native of Raleigh, was recently appointed chairman of the Department of History and Social Science at Edward Waters College in Jacksonville, Fla. He is a 1948 graduate of St. Augustine's College, and completed his professional training at Howard University. A veteran of World War II, serving 30 months in the European-North African-Middle-Eastern Theater of operations, Mr. Moore is now active in the Florida State Teachers Association, the American Association of the University of College Professors and the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.

95 Members At NCC's '56 Reunion

DURHAM - Some 95 members of the North Carolina College Class of 1956 heard NCC President Emeritus Alfonso Elder speak at the class reunion during NCC's recent homecoming. The class presented $250 to the school's scholarship fund during the reunion. Former Head Football Coach Herman Riddick accepted the money, to be matched by a donation from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, for the college.

Dr. Elder's address stressed the need for visits by and fund from alumni. He described changes in the college since 1956 and urged the visiting alumni to continue close relations with the college.

The class banquet at the downtown Holiday Inn was attended by a total of 125 members and guests. Charles H. Strayhorn of Washington, D. C. served as chairman of the class reunion committee.

Capital City Teen-Dems Hold Meeting In City

The Capital City Teen-Dem Club was called to action on Saturday for the first time in several months. President Claudia Reid, vice president Perry Crutchfield and Fourth Congress District Chairman, Sandra Gill, called upon all Teen-Dems in the area and Advisor Frank L. Turner to assist in the two-day rally in Madonna Acres, Blithmore Hills, Rochester Heights and Battery Heights to appeal to the citizens to give active support of the Democratic candidates.

The Capital City Teen-Dems know what effective leadership means. It was their leadership and belief in good government that resulted in the Capital city Teen-Dem Club having been elected in 1966 as the Outstanding Young Teen Democrats Club in the State of North Carolina. "We have got to win this election in the Congress" 4th District," said Miss Sandra Gill, Club reporter, Miss Augusta B. Turner asked "Why?" Perry Crutchfield said, "Augusta, you may be the club reporter for the Capital City Teen-Dem Club but, Sandra is 4th District Chairman and Claudia is 4th District reporter. The election must be a Democratic victory." Several Teen Dems chimed in and said "Let's get going if we are to win this election for all our Democratic candidates." The Teen Dems passed out "Know Your Candidates" leaflets and rang door bells and urged the citizens to get out and vote. Future meetings will be held to plan future activities of the club. Augusta B. Turner is reporter.

Kindness and courtesy would be seen oftener if some people didn't mistake the former for weakness and the latter for cowardice.

To Pretend that you don't care is fallacious if you are less than a hundred years old and of the female sex.
