HIS WILL - MY WAY
To build a life that's clean upright, secure, God's temple that will through the years endure, To walk courageously steadfastly and sure; This is my prayer.

To dedicate my life, my all to Christ and then in answer to His call, Be faithful to each task - the large, the small; This is my prayer.

Club News

THE NINE AND FIVE CLUB
Mrs. Nan Robinson on Heck St. was the hostess to the Nine and Five Club recently.

The business part of the meeting consisted of making plans for the Christmas club party, which will be a Dutch Party, and exchanging gifts. Because it was also Nan's birthday, she was presented gifts by each member.

We then played two games of Pokena. Mary Marable received high score prize. The members were saddened by the passing of Mrs. Ruth Bethea's husband.

Mrs. Robinson had as her guest Mrs. Laura Walker of Elizabeth City. Nan served a delicious repast.

Members present were: Mesdames Anne Webb, Sara Sharp, Mary Marable, Alma Harris, Addie Harris, Helen Mitchell, Geneva P. Brown and Nan Robinson.

THE W. W. C. CLUB
The W. W. C. Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Mary Ida Harris, 701 Royal St., Method.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Dora Brodie. The devotional service was led by Mrs. Harris in the absence of the chaplain Mrs. E. McDonald. As the members entered the home, they were presented flowers depicting the club colors by the hostess.

A short business meeting was held. The club presented a Thanksgiving basket to a local family.

Two new members, Mrs. Corrina Edwards and Mrs. Emma Fellers, were welcomed to the club by the vice-president, Mrs. Rosa Delaine.

A delicious Thanksgiving dinner was served by the hostess, Mrs. Harris. Mrs. Burgess thanked the hostess on the behalf of the club.

The next meeting will be held Sunday, Dec. 18 at 5 p. m. at the home of Mrs. C. L. Burgess, 406 E. South St.

Members present were: Mesdames Addie Brown, Dora Brodie, C. L. Burgess, Edna Chalmers, Rosa Delaine, Corrina Edwards, Louise Evans, Emma Fellers, Mary L. Harris, Jessie B. Hunter, Sude Jones, Rosa Massie, Eva McDonald, Essie Pugh, Mildred Rogers, Pearl Patterson, and Lucille Willis.

Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for this universe, and our great home. We thank Thee for its vastness and its riches, for the manifoldness of the life which is upon it and of which we are a part. We thank Thee for our senses by which we can see the splendor of the morning and hear the jubilant songs of love, and smell the breath of springtime. Grant us, we pray to Thee, to have a heart wide open to all this beauty, and save our souls from being steeped in care and so darkened by passion that we pass heedless and unseen, when even the thorn bush by the wayside is a flame with the glory of God. Give us more love for Thee, we pray. Amen.

BART STREET BAPTIST--Sunday School opened at 9:30 a.m., with the Superintendent, Mr. Charles McAllister, presiding. Morning worship began at 11 a.m., with congregational singing. The scripture was read by Rev. Harris. Prayer was led by Mr. McAllister. Rev. W.M. Harris, the pastor, delivered the morning message. His subject was, "Wait On God." It was enjoyed by all.

UNION BAPTIST--Church School began at 9:30 a.m., with the Superintendent, Mr. James Campbell in charge. Morning worship began at 11 a.m., with the junior choir in charge of music, under the direction of Mrs. Rachel Sanders, with Miss Virgie Beckwith. Prayer was led by Deacon Hill. The scripture was read by the pastor, Rev. E. Mason. His text was from Saint Mark 5:1-9 verses. Everyone enjoyed it.

OBERLIN BAPTIST--Sunday School opened at 9:30 a.m., with the Superintendent, Mr. Walter Curtis, presiding. Morning worship began at 11 a.m., with the junior choir in charge of music, under the direction of Mrs. Lucille Campbell, pianist. Prayer was led by Deacon Willie Blount. The scripture was read by the pastor, Rev. J.P. Dempsey. He brought the message, "The Church That Was Praised."

WILSON TEMPLE--Church School opened at 9:30 a.m., with the Superintendent, Miss Nannie Morgan, in charge. Morning worship began at 11 a.m., with the men's chorus in charge of music, under the direction of Miss Darlene Andrews. The scripture and prayer were led by the pastor, Rev. Kenneth McNeil, who also brought a wonderful sermon enjoyed by all.

ST. MATTHEW A. M. E.--Sunday School opened at 9:30 a.m., with the superintendent, Mr. Robert LeSane, Jr., in charge. Morning worship began at 11 a.m., with the junior choir in charge of music with Mrs. Joanne Alston and Mrs. Rosemary Walton at the organ. Her tour of Europe last summer, which was quite interesting. An enjoyable repast was served.

For the November project, the members of the club prepared six boxes of food for the sick and shut-in.

These boxes were presented to Mrs. Hattie Stokes, Mrs. Janie Williams, Mrs. Minnie Jones, Mrs. Tiny Rand, Mrs. Clara Hilliard and Mrs. Carry Jackson.

Each recipient expressed delight at receiving the beautiful boxes.

Our final meeting of the year is on Dec. 7.

The members of the club are Mesdames Hazel Buchanan, Arnetta Brown, Eva Debnam, Mary Dening, Lillie Finch, Beulah Hinton, Margaret Hinton, Edith Johnson, Eugenia Jones, Martha Hudson, Adarine Kurtz, Pearl McDonald, Margaret Vines, Hattie Carrington, Doshia Watkins, Nell Wilder, Grace Wood, Mabel Upperman and Misses Susie Smith and Mary Ransome.

The scripture and prayer were led by the pastor, Rev. J.F. Epps. His theme was, "What Kind of A Church Do You Want?" Everyone enjoyed the sermon.

CONGREGATIONAL UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST--Church School opened at 9:30 a.m., with the Superintendent, Mr. Lawrence Wilder, in charge. Morning worship began at 11 a.m., with the senior choir in charge of music, under the direction of Mr. Massenburt. Prayer and scripture were led by the pastor, Rev. Howard Cunningham. The subject of the message delivered by the pastor was, "The Light Of Advent." It was an inspiring message.

MANLY STREET UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST--Sunday School opened at 9:30 a.m., with the Superintendent, Mr. Walter Jones, presiding. A gift was presented to Mrs. Pearl McDonald, the former and retiring superintendent. Morning worship began at 11 a.m., with the gospel choir in charge of music under the direction of Mr. O.L. Taylor. The scripture was read by the pastor. The prayer, "Mountain of Faith," was the subject of the sermon, delivered by Rev. Hamans. It was enjoyed by all.

RAND STREET UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST--Morning worship began at 11:15 a.m., with the 4th Sunday pastor, Rev. Sister Cella Hayes, in charge. We had congregational singing. The prayer and scripture were led by the pastor. She read from II Kings 5:1-11 verses. Music was rendered by the Sunshine Band of the Providence Holy Church. We had a spiritual testimony meeting. The theme of the sermon was, "Wash and Be Made Clean." It was a dynamic message which everyone enjoyed. Some of the road blocks to recovery are: (1.) A good understanding, (2.) Pride, (3.) A thought and (4.) Self. The offertory prayer was given by Miss Mayo. Rev. James M. Harris is the pastor. Miss Bertha Mayo is the reporter.

RUSH METROPOLITAN AME ZION - Church School began at 9:45 a. m. with the Supt., Mr. Leslie Campbell in charge. The Junior church services were conducted by the leader and teachers of the Primary Dept. The regular morning 11 a. m. services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Harris. The music was rendered by the senior choir. Rev. Harris brought a soul-stirring and forceful message. His text was taken from the 2nd chapter of St. John Gospel and the 3rd verse. Subject: "Jesus Saw Their Crisis." He touched briefly on the following: I. Family Crisis, II. Job Crisis. Mrs. Annie H. Thorpe is church reporter.
