Five Named To Look All American Team

NEW YORK - Five Negro college football stars were named to the 22-man Look Magazine All America team selected by the Football Writers Association of America.

Those chosen were: Charles "Bubba" Smith and George Webster, Michigan State; Alan Page, Notre Dame; Mel Farr, UCLA and Ray Pryor, Ohio State.

The All America squad is announced in the current issue of Look. For the first time in two decades, separate offensive and defensive units were chosen.

Smith, a 6-foot, 7-inch, 285-pound defensive end, is one of the biggest and fastest linemen in Spartan history. Webster is the rover back or "Ookie Monster" in the MSU secondary.

Page, who was named to the other defensive end post on the honor team, anchored the powerful fighting Irish line.

Running back Farr was cited for his breakaway ability, savage blocking and game-making pass reception talent. Pryor, a pre-med student who centered for the Buckeyes on offense and filled in as middle guard on defense, was acclaimed for his versatility.

Lloyd (cq) Phillips, Arkansas' 241-pound defensive tackle, was named by the FWAA to receive the Outland Trophy as the best interior lineman in the country.

Florida quarterback Steve Spurrier is the only holdover from the 1965 Look All America team. To win the honor, Spurrier had to beat out marksmen like Gary Beban of UCLA and Bob Griese of Purdue.

ark, N. J., and Melvin Mayo of Washington, D. C.

David L. Johnson, a sophomore, who played his scholastic football at Winston-Salem's Atkins, was named the outstanding player of the game. For this, he was awarded the Sol Steinberg trophy. Mr. Ray Burgess, a representative of Mr. Steinberg, presented the trophy.

MVP Award Goes To David Johnson

WINSTON - SALEM - David Johnson, a sophomore end and converted halfback, was awarded the Sol Steinberg Trophy as the Most Valuable Player in the homecoming game between the Winston-Salem Rams and the Fayetteville Broncos.

Johnson stopped two Fayetteville drives by intercepting key Bronco passes and he figured in on a number of tackles as linebacker.

Mr. Ray Burgess, Mr. Steinberg's representative, presented the trophy to Mr. Johnson. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson, Sr., David played his high school football at Atkins High School.

FSC Broncos Spoil Homecoming For Winston-Salem Rams, 22-18

WINSTON - SALEM - The Fayetteville Broncos spoiled homecoming for 8,000 Winston-Salem State College fans at Bowman Gray Stadium last Saturday by defeating the favored Rams 22-18.

Thus the Rams finished a long, sad season with a 2-6 overall record and 2-3 in the CIAA.

The Broncos received the opening kick but were unable to move the ball. The Rams took over on their own 30 and scored on a pass from Talley to Cramwell before the game was six minutes old.

Fayetteville turned a fumble by Willis and a blocked Talley punt into touchdown and added two points on a pass to Abrams to take a 6-14 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Broncos were unable to move the ball following the Rams' first touchdown. Willis took the punt but fumbled it on his 34. The Broncos recovered and at the 6:45 mark Foster tied the score 6-6. The pass failed.

The Rams received but were forced to punt. Talley's kick was blocked by Lane on the Rams' 10. Jones then scored a few plays later to put the Broncos ahead 6-12. Abrams was hit in the end-zone for two and the Broncos led 6-14.

After a second quarter see-saw battle, Johnson intercepted a pass on the Rams' 19. A pass to Cromwell and the running of Smitherman and Whitmore moved the ball to the 1. Smitherman then scored for the Rams with less than three minutes remaining but the Broncos had a halftime lead of 14-12.

Mid-way of the third quarter, a Fayetteville player fumbled a Talley punt and the Rams recovered on their own 43. A gain Smitherman and Whitmore took charge and at the 8:50 mark Smitherman scored on a 1 yard run and the Rams led 18-14.

The fourth quarter saw Hodges of the Rams recover a Bronco fumble on Fayetteville's 11 yard line. The Rams moved the ball to the four but could not score.

After an exchange of punts and with two minutes remaining in the game, Allen scored on a five-yard run and Abrams added two to put Fayetteville ahead 18-22. Time ran out with the Rams making a desperate effort to put together the winning touchdown.

Five Rams ended their playing careers with this game. They are Donald Thompson of Winston-Salem, Douglas Williams of Wilkesboro, David Haynes of Newport News, Va., McKinley Brown of New-
