ROCK THROWING ROBBER
Ruby Mae Giles, 117 N. Carter St., reported to police that she had reason to believe that one Wm. Edward Harrington, used a rock to break her window, Nov. 23, and even though there was nothing reported missing, she estimated the damage at $10.00.

UNIDENTIFIED KNIFE WEILDER

Raymond Nathaniel Leach and Alton Stroub, were objects of a knife blade, or some sharp instrument, at 320 W. South St., Nov. 23, and as a result were nursing wounds as they related the incident. The disturbance is said to have occurred about 10:36 p. m. Stroub was suffering from a 2 inch laceration on his left arm, while Leach's chest had been carved about a 3 inch depth. They were not able to name the knife wielder.

ANOTHER ASSAILANT UNKNOWN

James Artis, 32, 104 Lee St., reported that he was the target of a knife on the night before Thanksgiving and was not in the mood to give the police enough thanks to name his attacker. The cutting is alleged to have followed an argument. The report did not state as to when, nor who caused the argument. The 1 and 1/2 inch cut on Artis' left arm and the 2 inch cut on his thumb did not indicate that he won the argument. He was taken to Wake Memorial, where he was treated by Dr. Debnam.

DAMAGED PROPERTY

Marie Gandy, 335 W. South St., was not too thankful to the person, or persons whom she says pushed about 25 bricks out from under her front porch Thanksgiving.

DOG BITES MAN

David Melvin McDae did not turn back on a dog when he was bitten last week and avoided the old adage, "If a man bites a dog that is news". He chose to take his scratched left leg to the Wake Memorial Hospital and have it treated. He reported that the unknd dog belonged to Mrs. Doris Burnett.

$450 AND WATCH REPORTED STOLEN

YOUNG SHOPLIFTER CAUGHT IN THE ACT

David James Morgan, who lives at 1212 Pender St., is alleged to have "lifted" a bottle of shaving lotion from the counter of McLellan's Store. The watchful eye of the manager was focused on him and soon the police were on the scene. Morgan was led away and his guardian was told to see that he reported to Juvenile Court.

BEATEN WITH BOARD; BIT IN THE MOUTH

Maudie Mae Spivey reported an unusual attack when she told police that she was assaulted with board and bitten on the top lip. She did not say whether her attacker attempted to fondle her, after the beating or bit her before the beating. The incident occurred Nov. 25 and was supposed to have followed an argument, without the attacker being named.

LARCENY FROM A FAIRLANE

Johnny Joe Dunn, 500 Rock Quarry Rd., reported to police that someone relieved his 1964 Fairlane of 4 hubcaps, valued at $45.00.

WITNESS DID NOT SEE ENOUGH

James L. Jones, 533 Dorothy Dr., told police that he saw a colored man break in Shorty's Shell Service, 805 S. Saunders St., Nov. 27, by throwing a brick through a window, on the south side of the building. It was reported that some gum and cigarettes were taken. The witness did not identify the alleged robber.

$450 AND WATCH REPORTED STOLEN

YOUNG SHOPLIFTER CAUGHT IN THE ACT

David James Morgan, who lives at 1212 P. M. Nov. 27 and ransacked it and took a billfold containing $450 from a night stand in a bedroom, and a watch from a jewelry box. The complaining witness says that the entry was made by taking the screen from a back bedroom and raising the window.

JOHNSON-LAMBE "DUPED"

According to information furnished by Phil B. Johnson, representing Johnson-Lambe Company, 322 S. Salisbury St., that firm was also the victim of a check forger, on or about Nov. 14. The police report shows that a colored male is alleged to have entered the store and to have purchased a pair of converse shoes for $9.60 and presented a check for $25, payable to Robert Lee Kittrell, bearing the signature of James A. Shepard.

Johnson is said to have called the Mechanics & Farmers Bank and upon finding that there was enough money on the account, proceeded to take the cost of the shoes, giving the projector the balance. Like Banquo's Ghost, in a few days, the check is alleged to have come back and haunted Johnson-Lambe, with the notation, "signature unauthorized."

ANOTHER CHECK FORGED

Terry Furniture Company, 214 E. Martin St., fell prey to a check forger, according to police, on Nov. 15, and reported same on Nov. 23, when Edward McKinley Terry reported that a colored male, about 24 years old, about 6 ft. tall, weighing about 160 lbs., dark complexion, came into the store, on Nov. 15 and attempted to pay $7.00 on the account of Mozele Clack whose address was believed to be 1141 Walnut St., with a check. The check was made payable to John Knott and believed to have been signed by James A. Shepard and endorsed by John Knott. The check is said to have been drawn for $30.50. Terry is reported to have told the projector of the check that he did not have that much money, due to the fact that he had made a deposit. He is also said that he only had $15.00 in the cash register. The alleged projector is then said to have offered to pay $15.50 on the account. Terry is said to have then agreed to take the check and to apply $15.50 to the account and to have given the projector $15.00. The check is said to have been returned with "signature unsatisfactory."

Young's Chapel CME Observes Anniversary

The members and friends of Young's Chapel CME Church observed the third anniversary of the ministry of Rev. William Stanley Sunday afternoon, at three p. m.

Rev. John E. Robinson, evangelist, and Rev. E. A. Ford, associate pastor of the Church of God, made the call to worship. The prayer was offered by Dr. J. H. Clanton, Rev. G. R. Perry made the offertory prayer. Rev. C. W. Ward, pastor, First Baptist Church, delivered the sermon, using as a subject, "Did not our hearts burn?" He delighted the audience.

C. A. Haywood, local mortician and long-time prominent in state and National Elks, made a summation in which he recounted the role of Elks in state and National Charity, Education, Economics and Citizenship. He emphasized that Raleigh Elks had been in the vanguard of this role and paid high tributes to former leaders among whom were Ernest Davis, who conceived the idea of providing for the elderly and unfortunate on Thanksgiving.

L. S. Wilcox, who inspired the educational concept, that brought Raleigh Lodge more activity in the Scholarship Contest and the national Civil Rights programs, and Alphonso Vance, whose economic foresight hastened the acquisition of a complete comfortable home for Raleigh Elks, also spoke.
