

EVENTS AT FAYETTEVILLE STATE'S 1966 HOME COMING

Alumni Ass'n
(Continued from page 18)

ing, "I have had only one other greater thrill and that was when I came to this campus and saw what a great opportunity Negro children of the state had to get an education."

She is a retired government worker, having served as civilian worker in the United States Navy, during World War I and with D. C. General Hospital for a number of years. She is married to John H. Fowler, formerly of Princeton. She is a grand mother and aids her daughter, Mrs. Marion Jackson, her two sons and their father, in conducting a business at 8th & C Sts., N. W.

Mrs. Fowler is an ardent member of the First Baptist Church of Deanwood and was the guiding spirit in the presenting of the College Choir there last year. She is also connected with many civic and cultural clubs in Washington.

FRANK B. WEAVER
Frank B. Weaver was born in Tarboro, in 1927. He received his high school diploma at W. A. Patillo High School, Tarboro. Bachelor of Science degree - Fayetteville State Teachers College, Fayetteville; Masters of Arts degree - Teachers College, Columbia University, N. Y.; Graduate study in United States History - North Carolina College at Durham, Durham, North Carolina. Doctor of Education Degree - Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pa.

Upon receipt of his doctorate he was invited to become a faculty member at the Pennsylvania State University.

His experience was as follows: Sixth grade teacher and Head of Elementary Department - John R. Hawkins High School, Warrenton, 1948-50.

Teacher - Principal - Providence School, Edgecombe County, North Carolina, 1950-51.

Organized and served as principal of Roberson Elementary School, Edgecombe County, North Carolina, 1951-56.

Summers of 1963 and 1964 - Guest Graduate Professor at AAT College, Greensboro. He has been invited to serve as visiting professor at North Carolina College at Durham. He taught in the Graduate School at Florida A&M University, Tallahassee, Fla., during the 1966 summer session.

He is widely in demand as a guest speaker. Aside from the numerous speaking engagements in which he serves as consultant to professional and community groups, he speaks for numerous high school and college commencement exercises.

He was selected by the North Carolina Fund to serve on a State Department Panel to advise city and county officials in their efforts to develop educational project proposals to submit to the Office of Economic Opportunity.

He married Queen Esther Lewis of Mt. Giload, and they have one son, Frank Cornell. They now reside in Madonna Acres, Raleigh.

Mrs. Emice McLean Waller, New London, Conn., was a honor graduate, in the "Class of 42." She earned her Master's degree from the University of Pennsylvania. She has done further study at North Carolina College, Wayne State University and D. C. Teachers College. She was a National Science fellow in the study of Modern Mathematics, for elementary teachers, at the University of Vermont, in 1963, Burlington, Vt.

Mrs. Waller is a native of Lillington and began her teaching career in the Shawtown High School. She taught at Newbold Training School for sometime and thence to Columbia, S. C. She was also a member of the school system of the District of Columbia.

She is in a unique position in her present post. Currently she is conducting in-service courses for Waterford Teachers and essentials of Modern Methods for Parents. She teaches Modern Mathematics in the school system and has the distinction of being the first Negro to serve as president of the Waterford Education Association.

SCENES AT FSC HOMECOMING 1966 - On the left Dr. Rudolph Jones, president of Fayetteville State College, is shown as he does the honors of crowning Mrs. Donna Newman, Clinton, as "Miss Homecoming" at one of the events that marked homecoming activities, in 1966. In the center, Mrs. Roxie Fowler, Washington, D. C., is flanked by her attendants, as she reigned as "Miss Alumni." Miss Lorraine Moore is shown to Mrs. Fowler's right and Miss Velma Langley is on the left. The picture on the right shows Booker T. Keyes, back left, and Miss Aileen Davis, who was "Miss Fayetteville State College." In the center Ed McDonald and Miss Newman and Dr. and Mrs. Jones are shown on the right.

Mr. Lonnie J. Lockamy, Jr., is a symbol of the virtues that are instilled into one who attends Fayetteville State Teachers College.

He received his B. S. degree from Fayetteville and furthered his education by getting his M. A. from NYU and a certificate of Advanced Study in Supervision and Administration, School of Education, also from NYU.

He has served as principal at the following schools: Broadway Elementary School, Broadway, Fayetteville; J. W. Seabrook Elementary School, Cumberland County, Fayetteville. Under his principalship this school was the first Negro elementary school in Cumberland County to be accredited by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction.

He also was Supervising Principal of Student Teaching

In Cooperation with Fayetteville State College at the J. W. Seabrook Elementary School from 1950-1964.

Presently, he is Supervisor of Elementary Education with the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction. He has held this position since August, 1964.

He is married to Margaret Humphrey of Roxboro, and they have one son, Maurice Anthony. They reside at 1612 East Davis St., Raleigh.

Alexander Barnes, who boasts of the fact that he was a member of the first accredited class that came from the school, is another active alumni who has been connected with the school since 1917.

His work with the Alumni covers serving as the chairman of the executive committee, during which time he brought the famed Wings Over Jordan Choir to the campus and out of the funds received, began the Nannie L. Smith Scholarship Fund, from which many students have benefitted.

The national work of the association took on new status after he appeared on the nationwide program of Wings Over Jordan.

After leaving Fayetteville he furthered his education at Livingstone College. He says he made two mistakes when he got out of school -- got married and bought a Negro newspaper. However, he is still charmed by both. He is married to the former Dorothy Green, of Durham, and they maintain a residence at 1123 Eastern Avenue, N. E., Washington, D. C.

He left the paper he helped to buy and has worked in every phase of newspaper life since. He is currently with the CAROLINIAN.

He is a life-long member of the AME Zion Church and is a general officer in same, having charge of public relations and social welfare. He is also public relations director for the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, and promotion director for the Shrine Bowl game.

Dr. Minnie Tuten Forte, 1612 Merrick St., Durham, has had a meteoric rise in the field of education. Below is shown the work she has done in preparation for same. Elementary and High School - Durham City Schools; Normal College - Fayetteville State Teachers College - B. S. degree; Graduate study - North Carolina College at Durham - M. A. degree; Graduate Study - North Carolina College at Durham, Ph. D. degree; Graduate major - Elementary Education; Graduate Minor - History and Sociology.

Her teaching experience is as follows: Orange County Schools - Grades 1-7, 9 years; Durham City Schools - Grades 1, 6, 7, for 10 years; North Carolina College at Durham, Summer, 1957 - Demonstration Teacher; Master of Education program; State Teachers College, Fayetteville, 2 years; Shaw University, 3 years. Graduate School - Florida A&M University, Summer 1966; Director, Day Care Center, Operation, Breakthrough, Durham; St. Augustine's College - Raleigh, Associate Professor, 1966.

She has three children and is a member of White Rock Baptist Church, Durham.

Religious and civic affiliations: Past, Dea mother, Cub Pack 137, M. G. Pearson School, Sunday School Teacher, White Rock Baptist Church, Durham, Assistant Secretary - Group 15, White Rock Baptist Church, Vice-President - New Hope Baptist Sunday School and BTU Convention.

Another summary in the firmament of Fayetteville State

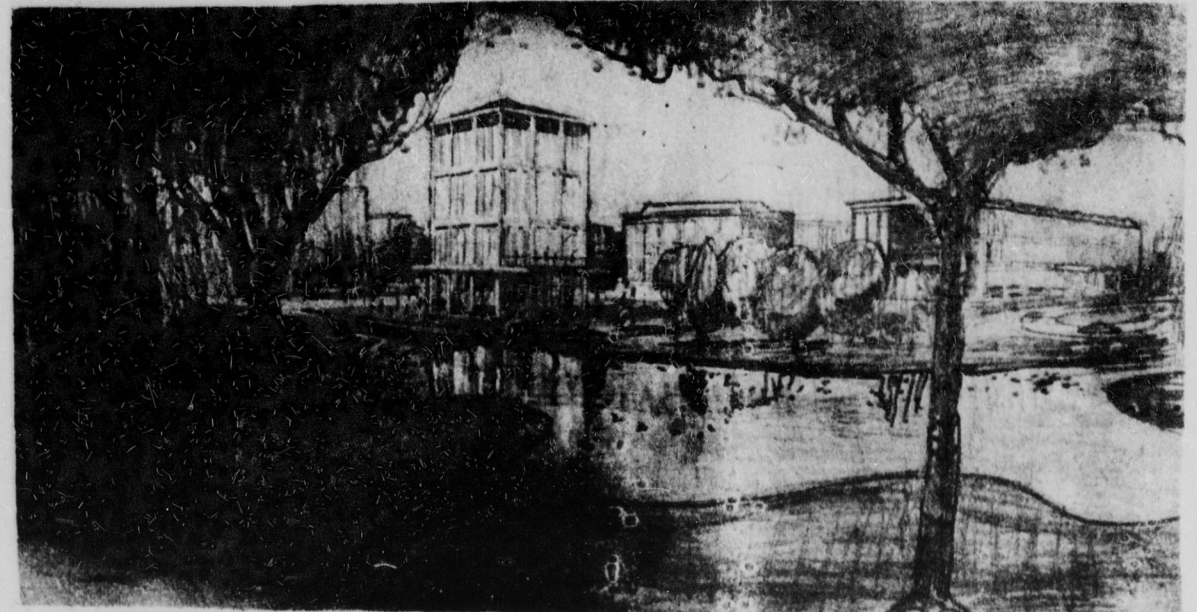

(Continued on page 20)

FAYETTEVILLE STATE COLLEGE

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

A GOOD PLACE TO CONTINUE YOUR EDUCATION

- Fully Accredited
- Faculty of Scholars
- Atmosphere Conducive to Study
- Reasonable Rates
- Scholarships, Loans, Work-Aid
- Excellent Physical Facilities
- Wholesome Extra-Class Activities

ARCHITECT'S CONCEPT OF FUTURE CAMPUS

DEGREES OFFERED IN

BIOLOGY
BUSINESS EDUCATION
ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
ENGLISH

HISTORY
MATHEMATICS
PHYSICAL EDUCATION
SOCIOLOGY

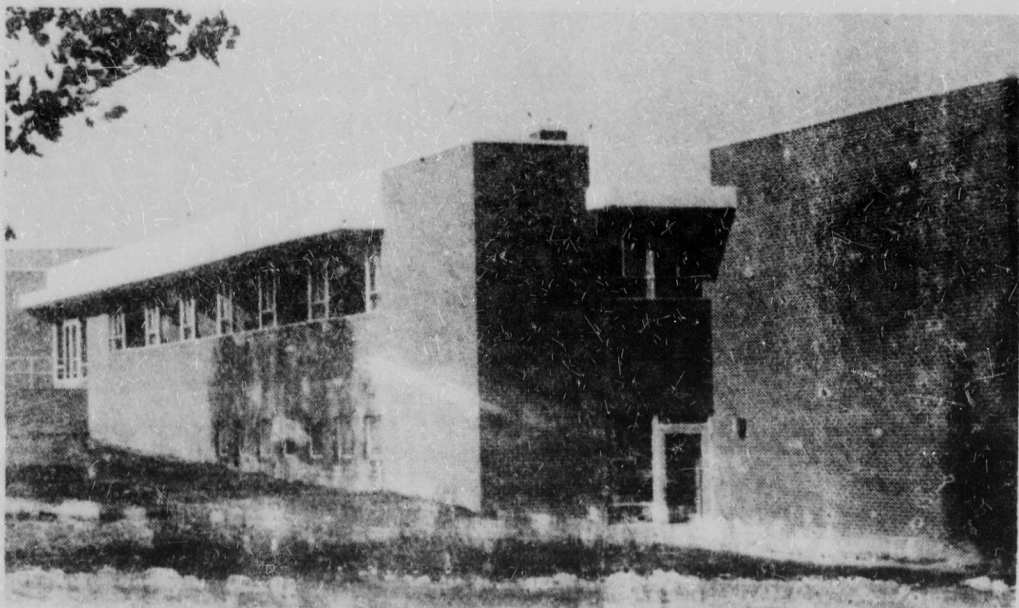

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION WRITE

DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS

FAYETTEVILLE STATE COLLEGE

Fayetteville, N. C.

We Are Happy To Be A Part Of This Outstanding Achievement By Having Built This Building

MUSIC ART BUILDING

PLAYER COMPANY

Fayetteville, N. C.

We Salute The Servants Of N.C. Education