THE CAROLINIAN

Mrs. Cerrin Woodard is home

now, after spending some time in the Cape Fear Hospital, in Fayetteville. Home to visit her are her sons, Mr. Douglas and West Woodard, of New Haven, returned home after spending two weeks in Baltimore, Maryland, with her daughter.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Mrs. Mary Lee Peterson has

Belated birthday greetings to

Mrs. Lonnie T. Boykin, of Garland, whose big day was, February 4th. Miss Lula Mae Boykin had a birthday on February

Conn

RALEIGH, N. C., SATUREAY, FEBRUARY 18 1967

PERSUNALS

We hope all of you had a happy birthday.

3

THE SMITH'S HAVE GUESTS Mrs. Sterling Smith and son of Goldsboro were, Mr. and Mrs. Felton Boykin, parents, of Gar; land. Other guests of the Smith's were, Mrs. Iola B. Owens and children of Clinton. * * *

The number of veterans hospitalized for emphysema and chronic bronchitis, lung diseases common to the aging, has more than doubled in eight years, the Veterans Administration reports.

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES THE CRIME BEAT

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

WOMAN ATTACKS MAN

IN LOVERS LANE Ransom Hinton, 314 Lovers Lane, is not too sure the narrow passage is characteristics of its name. He alleges that on Sunday about 12:;5 p. m. Evelyn Louise King hit him in the forehead with a blunt instrument, that penetrated about 1/4 of an inch and inflicting a wound about the size of a quarter. Police arrested both of them for engagin in an affray at 314 and 316 Lovers Lane.

* * * WASHINGTON SCHOOL ENTERED FRIDAY NIGHT

George High, Raleigh, Rt. 7, told police that someone entered Washington Junior High School, sometime during the night Friday, and broke open 2 class room doors. The report disclosed that there was nothing missing.

Investigating officers had only foot prints, in the snow to go upon. However, they did follow the prints down Fayetteville St. and over to Branch St., where they became mixed with others. The prints gave the officers reason to believe that the person was wearing a boot about size 10.

ARRESTED FOR SHOPLIFTING

Lillie Mae Hinton, 314 Lovers Lane, found herself in the toils of the law, Feb. II, af-ter she is alleged to have vi-sited K-Mart, 400 E. Six Forks Rd., about 4:35 p.m. and taken onto herself a dress, without the knowledge of it having been paid for.

She is alleged to have concealed the dress about her person and was charged with GLIDER REMOVED Even though Saturday was not much of a day to enjoy the comforts of a glider, Margaret Leach Smith, 606 Coleman St., says that a metal glider, swing type, was rewas that he took his seat on moved from her front porch, without her consent. It was the porth. valued at $35.00.

LEATHER COAT STOLEN FROM SPAULDING GYM Valiant Winford Pangburn, 107 N. Hall, Shaw Univ., reported as stolen from Spaulding Gymnasium, one 3/4 length leather coat. He alleges that the coat was stolen from the bleachers. He valued the coat

at $75.00. * * * ANOTHER COAT STOLEN

Shaw University's Spaulding Gymnasium is reported as being the scene of another stolen coat, as reported by James William Reaves, 208 Tupper House, on Friday. He reported that a black leather coat was taken from the bleachers, valued at $90.00. * * *

DEW DROPS HANDS AND STICK ON DEW According to report made a stick on the left side of her * * *

INTOXICATED

Lane gave the police a lot of work during the weekend Ransom Hinton could give very he was beat up, when he was beat up and who beat him up Sunday. All he knew was that day, at 7 a.m., in the Washinghis head was hurt. He reportton Terrace Shopping Center. ed that he decided to sit on The store is owned by Marion the porch after he ate his Goodson, Jr., who brings to dinner and all remembered the business a full experience of buying, selling and service to the public. ty and educatdd at the James E. Shepard High School and Nettie Bell Savage, 508 1/2 E. Hargett St., says that she got the worst of an argument Sunday, with Herman Alston, 25, 508 E. Hargett St., when he attacked her and damaged her glasses to the extent of $40.00. She also says he beat her with his hands and fists. * * *

GLASSES DAMAGED

IN ARGUMENT

STEALS PROTECTION FOR RAINY WEATHER Celestine Stanfield, 801 Massey Ave., Durham, decided to visit K-Mart Sunday. While there she is reported as having concealed a plastic rain protector, used to keep the hair dry, in her pocket book. She was booked for larceny.

* * *

St., says he was the victim of a pistol bullet, while he walked along the street, about 8:45 p. m. Friday. He reported that he did not see anyone, but felt something hit him in the back. It was found that he had been shot in the

Lee Evans, 23, 6'2" tall, weighing 215 lbs, reported by

Mark Tilman Staton as having forced the door of the money compartment on a Juke

Box, in Staton's Restaurant,

319 S. East St., Saturday, about 3 p. m., and to have

Larry Oakley, 16, 311 Maple

St., is reported as having seen Evans take the money. Evans is reported as having given Oakley $3.80 of the money. Oakley took the money and called the police. This part of the money is said to have been returned to Staton. The police reported having seen Evans, but when they sought him, he eluded them.

David O. Rochelle reported that his car was srolen off of the Needham Broughton Parking lot, Saturday, after

CAR STOLEN WHEN

KEYS ARE LEFT

left side of his back.

FORCES JUKE BOX

FLEES FROM COP

SPLITS MONEY

taken the money.

SHOT IN BACK Aubrey Walters, 1112 Pender

to police, two Dews, Bobby Rayford and Annie Ruth, both of 206 Selvin Ave., engaged in an argument on Sunday. Annie Ruth alleges that Bobby Rayford dropped his hands and face with no temerity at all. She did not like it and reported him.

BEAT UP WHILE

The people at 314 Lovers

MARION GOODSON, JR.

Shaw University. He is married to the former Mildred Hobbs, also from Wake Coun-They have three sons. ty. They have they The store is well equipped with the latest of modern fixtures that will assure the customers of the best of care and handling. He will feature the best in meats and prepardness. There will be a full line of vegetables and produce, along with household furnishings and supplies. The prices will compare favorably with any to be found in the city and service will be prompt and courteous. There will be a self-service system and quick and courteous treatment will attend checking out. Service carts are available. There will be no parking problems. The store will be open from 7 a, m. to 10 p. m. daily. BRIDGE TOURNEY

TO BE HELD AUG. 11-20 The American Bridge Association will convene in the city of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, August 11th-20th, at the Penn

LAST RITES HELD --E.R.

Merrick, retired North Caro-

ham last Saturday. See story,

Tells Of Race

Hate Behind

Iron Curtain

page 16.

captors.

Washington Terrace Super Market To Open Friday

complete Super Market, Fri- Bridge players will have the opportunity to compete for trophy's and national points, plus an all around program of entertainment for members, children, wives, husbands, and friends. A visit, to the Renaissance He was born in Wake Coun- City of America, will be educational and exciting. Pittsburgh has extended its resources in business, industry, science, education and recreation. Horace Belmear, the general planning chairman and committees strongly recommend early reservations be made, because of the large attendance expected, at the 34th Annual National Tournament. The group is headed by our

Chairman, Mobile, Alabama; CAMERON VILLAGE osepha

AFTER-INVENTORY CLEARANCE everything on sale

manufacturer's cost or below!

REDUCTIONS NOW AT LEAST

PRICE

Sheraton Hotel. Contract Alfred Bishop, National Tournament Chrm., Pittsburgh, Penna., Mr. Kenneth F. Cox, NYC; National Tournament Dir.; Mrs. Ruth H. Mosley, Treasurer, Macon, Georgia, and Victor Daly, president-Emeritus, Washington, D.C.

In the early days of contract bridge Negroes were excluded from major tournaments thus ABA was founded. The founders of our organization were Dr. M.E. DuBissette, and L. C. Collins, with John W. Cromwell Jr., of Washington, D.C. There followed a period of steady expansion under the presidency of Dr. E.T. Belsaw. Now there are five sections:

Eastern, Great Lakes, Midwest, Southern and Western.

Maurice Robinson, New York TEETHING PAIN City; vice-president, Mrs. Pauline Taylor, Detroit, Michi-gan, Mrs. Christine Jones, exe-cutive secretary, Washington, D.C., Dr. P.W. Goode, Board ora-jei

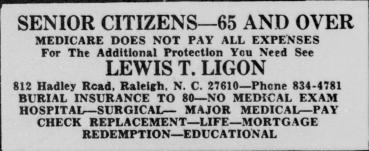

×

1

NO MORE DIAPERS TO BUY... WASH OR FRET ABOUT! A boon to mothers and a benefit to bables, too. We launder them perfectly, return them clean and fresh. DELIVERED TO YOU TWICE WEEKLY FOR QUICK SERVICE DIAL 833-1215 DED BABY FERSERVICE 407 E. DAVIE ST-PHONE 833-1215

FUNERAL

INSURANCE

For Every Member Of Your Family

Call Us For Details

ne leit the keys in it. * * * WOMAN USES JAR ON MAN Rosa Lee Bryant, 1107 Smithfield St., is reported as having hit Joe Henry Bryant, same address, on the left side the neck with a jar, after they engaged in an argument. STRUCK WITH UNKNOWN OBJECT Joseph Smith, 821 Manly St. could give very little informa-mation as to why he was hit by an unknown object, as he walked along, on the west side of the 300 block of South St., Saturday.

He alleges that he was hit in the head by some object that seemed to have come out of nowhere. He reported that he was "knocked out." * * *

HIT WITH HATCHET Arrie Lee Currie, 917 E. Lane St., says that Herman Currie, 50, address unknown, hit her in the head with a hatchet, Sunday, causing a 2" laceration.

Churches To Present Play

DURHAM - The congregation of St. Mark AME Zion Church and Kyles Temple AME Zion Church are combining in efforts, to present the Broadway Theatrical Extravaganza of 19-67, at Hillside High School Auditorium, 8 p. m. March 8.

fugees escape to the West. Herrit said the people in West Berlin had "been very nice to me" after his release.

> The two were in a group of four Americans released from an East German prison before serving their full sentence.

The cultural presentation, directed by Clyde Turner, brings the best of Broadway to the Bull City. It will feature brand new faces that will give the audience portrayals, of such plays as "The Kind and I," "Annie Get Your Gun," The best of Rogers and Hammerstein, and "Golden Boy."

The presentation is the first, in a series of cultural programs that the two churches will present to the city, on their agenda of entertainment, for music lovers, with special emphasis on wholesome diversion for the youth of the city.

The pastors, Revs. L. A. Miller, and D. L. Blakey have organized their youth departments to give them a total program, with a cultural background.

Lightner Funeral Home Where Service Excels

We Offer Low Cost

312 Smithfield St., Raleigh, N. C.

Telephone 833-1676