

THE QUEEN - "Miss Tan America 1967-68" - Claudia Reynolds takes the throne after being crowned by Dolores Evans, Miss Tan America 1966-67. The 3rd annual Miss Tan America Pageant was held Sept. 1st in Dallas, Tex.

Arizona Beauty New "Miss Tan America"

DALLAS, Tex. - The week long activities of the third annual Miss Tan America Pageant were completed with the selection of 20 - year - old Claudia Reynolds, of Mamou, La., as "Miss Tan America 1967-68," on Friday night, Sept. 1st, at the Dallas Memorial Auditorium, in Dallas Tex.

The new winner was crowned by Dolores Evans, of Tucson, Arizona, Miss Tan America - 1966-67.

Miss Reynolds is a senior Math major at Grambling College, in Monroe, La., where she is a member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Beta Kappa Chi Honor Society, Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society; she is on the Student Union Board, and has been elected to "Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities."

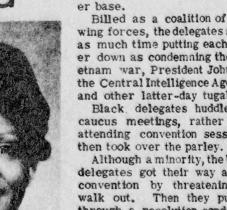

Claudia won the title of "Miss Tan Monroe" at the Monroe, La. pageant on Aug. 2nd, and the right to compete in the national finals.

The raven haired beauty stands 5'6", has black eyes, measures 36-24 1/2 - 36, and

MRS. DOROTHY S. CURTIS Accepts

osition

And thus, the "Black Caucus" succeeded at the New Politics in doing what it had been unable to do at the Newark Black Power conference that preceded it.

RALEIGH. N. C., SEPTEMBER 16, 1967 VOL 26, NO. 42 PRICE 15 CENTS New Political Party Faced With Racism

FOR THE

Room 727 (Black Folks HC

Livingstone President Stricken

HE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

다다다다

"Black Caucus"

Takes Over CHICAGO (NPI) - Racial antagonisms among white and Negro delegates at the recent National Conference on New Politics convention prevented the establishment of a new pow-

Billed as a coalition of leftwing forces, the delegates spent as much time putting each other down as condemning the Vietnam war, President Johnson, the Central Intelligence Agency, and other latter-day tugaboos. Black delegates huddled in caucus meetings, rather than attending convention sessions, Although a minority, the black delegates got their way at the convention by threatening to walk out. Then they pushed through a resolution condemning the "imperalistic Zionist war" -- a slap in the face at the large number of Jewish delegates at the convention.

According to an observer at the Black Power conference, a "small group" of militant delegates at the conference had sought to issue a strongly worded condemnation of Israel, but there was sufficient opposition to such a move to have it voted

After Jury Hearing Powell Locale ACK PEORLE'S Unknown

中华中华

The non-flam boyant Adam Clayton Powell left Washington as less informed about his leaving town as he had been able to do about his coming in, after he spent 65 minutes with a federal grand jury Monday, believed to be interested in his finances.

The dapper disbarred - congressman declined to talk about why he was in Washington or where he was going when he left. His lawyers for the occasion were Edward Bennett Williams who helped the Congressman defeat a Federal tax indictment seven years ago; Thomas A. Wadden Jr., a Williams partner, and Jean Camper Cahn, member of a legal team that is trying to win a court order to give Powell his old House seat.

Powell, who sped off in a light blue sedan without saying where he was going, was denied his elected seat on March 1 in a resolution accusing him of payroll irregularities and bringing the House into public contempt by disregarding court orders. His suit for reinstatement day.

IT'S OFFICIAL NOW - Washington: President Johnson Sept. 6 announced the selection of Walter E. Washington, left, to head the new District of Columbia government. He will be the first Negro Chief Executive of a major U. S. city. Washington, 51, a native of Dawson, Ga., is leaving his post as chair-man of the New York City Housing Authority to accept the appointment. The President also announced that Thomas W. Fletcher, deputy asst. secy. in the Department of Housing and Urban Development, right, will be nominated shortly as Vice Commissioner of the D. C. government. Fletcher, 43, is former City Manager of San Diego, Calif., and is a native of Portland, Ore. Both are shown as they met newsmen outside the White House following the announcement. (UPI PHOTO),

ONE SURVIVOR IN WAKE ACCIDENT FUQUAY - The father of Wal-This farming section was all perturbed Wednesday as it pre-

ter Thomas Street, 15, told the CAROLINIAN Tuesday that he begged his son to not go on the night ride that resulted in his being sent to a at First Baptist Church, 2:30 watery grave about 11 o'clock p.m. with Rev. H. A. Trice

pared to bury the four boys

(See ACCIDENT. P. 2)

A double funeral was held

who took the fatal ride.

STREET HARRIS BURTON THOMAS

Bones Of Missing

weighs 130 lbs. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Reynolds, 1104 4th St., Mamou, La.

studies, Claudia's goal is to work in industry or with the government in the space program.

During the Semi-Finals competitions, Miss Reynolds made an excellent showing, finishing Ist in the swin suit competition, tying for 1st in the evening gown competition, and placing 3rd in talent. She played a flute solo in the talent competition

In a telephone interview following the pageant, the President, R. W. E. Jones of Grambling College, advised pageant officials that Grambling is extending a full scholarship to Miss Reynolds for the remainder of her education at the college.

Tan America" to attend Gramb-

Claudia is the second "Miss (See MEAUTY, P. 2)

In Mass. Mrs. Dorothy S. Curtis, school teacher, has been recently appointed to the staff of the Education Development Center and the Elementary Science Study in Newton, Mass. Her new position will include developing and revising science curriculum materials to be taught in elementary and junior high schools; conducting curriculum workshops with educational leaders in all states; organizing science programs in foreign countries; and observing the teaching of science units currently being developed. Public Schools, Mrs. Curtis served as a test center teacher for the Earth Science Curriculum Project of Boulder, Colorado. During the past summer she worked as an instidown. But oddly enough the insidious attack on the "imperalis-

After completing graduate former Raleigh junior high

As a teacher in the Raleigh tute instructor for a teacher (See ACCEPTS, P. 2 tic Zion War" carried overwhelmingly at the internacial and interreligious New Politics convention. Answering the anti-Zionist charge made at the convention, the American Jewish Congress noted that Israel had long been supported by such African leaders as Jomo Kenyatta of Kenya, Felix Houphouet-Boigny of the Ivory Coast; Leopold Sedar Senghor of Senegal; Haile Selassie: Prime Minister Leonard Mulamba of the Congo-Brazza; A. Milton Obote of Uganda, and Philibert Tsiranana of Malaga-

On the other hand, AJC noted, the Arabnations have a longstanding reputation in African countries as slave traders.

The attack on Israel wasn't the only ethnically hostile action taken at the New Politics convention.

(See BLACK. P. 2)

being held to seek information of a third party to oppose President Johnson in the 1968 election. (UPI PHOTO).

GOING TO REGISTER - Chicago: Unidentified man is on his way to room 727 of hotel here Sept. 1 to register for "Black People's Caucus" during "New Politics" convention, Black

Nationals holed up a Black Caucus and are keeping the meet-ing of liberals and radicals in an uproar. Signs similar to one shown are posted near the convention site. Convention is

Becomes Ill At 8th Annual Retreat

BLACK MOUNTAIN - Dr. S. E. Duncan, president, Livingstone College, was stricken Thursday, about 7 p. m. as he was about to open the first session of 8th annual retreat of the faculty of the college.

He was rushed to Mission Memorial Hospital, Asheville, where it was found that he was suffering from exhaustion. It was also found that he would have to remain there for sometime. He was reported as improving nicely Monday.

President Duncan has worked zealously since taking over and Saturday.

Anson-Franklin School Issue Still Haunts N. C. Boards

The County Boards of Education in Franklin and Anson Counties are still battling with school issues that involve race. The Franklin Board had to do battle with a group of Negroes who wanted their children sent back to their original schools and the Anson Board had to battle Negro parents who said that the school to which their children had been assigned were not equal.

The Franklin County Board of Education denied the request of 32 Negro students that they be reassigned to schools of their original choice, Tuesday.

From Raleigh's Official Police Files THE CRIME BEAT

Cover Pulled

Marguerite Warren Barner, 331 Dorothea Dr., reported to police that while she was asleep in her bed Saturday morning, about 2:30, she was awakened by the cover being pulled off of her. A man, whom she describ-ed as being 71" tall and weighing about 160 lbs was at her bedside. She is said to have thought he was a man who was spending the night. His failure to speak raised her curiosity and she struck him on the side of the head. She alleges that after she gave him the blow he departed, by the way of the window. She then bogan an investigation that revealed that her window fan had been taken out and the screen removed and was

The request was made in a letter sent to the board by Henderson's attorney, Lynwood T. Peoples. It did not specify the reason the Negroes wanted to change. Local citizens have speculated the Negroes feel "out of place" in white the reins at the college and is now in the last phase of a

$10,000,000 expansion program

that has projected the church-

related college into the front ranks of the small colleges, in

He was accompanied by four bishops, W. J. Walls, S. G.

Spottswood, W. A. Hilliard and

R. L. Jones, to the hospital.

His wife, Mrs. Ida H. Duncan and his son, arrived from

Salisbury, and were with him

during Thursday night, Friday

the nation.

(See HAUNTS, P. 2)

Temperatures during the pe-riod Thursday through Mon-day will average below nor-mal. Daytime highs will aver-age around 76 to 50. Night-time lows will average around 54 to 58. Normal highs and lows are 52 and 60. Precipita-tion will total about 1 inch or more, occurring as rain about

on the ground, Hacket Woman

Bennie Lee McLean, 204 Selwyn Alley, found out that a hatchet, in the hands of a woman was more damaging than a man who is called a "Hatchet Man." He alleges that his girl friend, Florida Lee Batchelor, who lives at 204 1/2 Selwyn Ave., can wield a wicked hatchet. He reported to police that she attacked him with a hatchet Saturday and he received lacerations on the side of his head, It is said that he might have received a skull fracture. The attack is said to have been the result of an argument that he had with Florida Lee. (See CRIME BEAT. P. 3)

Man Unearthed has been dismissed, but the United States Court of Ap-DURHAM - The mystery that the fact there were only the peals is scheduled to hear arsurrounded the disappearance bones and an examination showguments in his appeal on Friof Preston Snipes, 46, 718 Kent ed that there were no holes in St., was partially solved last his skull. He was identified Powell won a special elecweek when workmen, who were tion to fill the vacancy creaclearing away for the East-West ted by his ouster, but hepress-Expressway, found bones that ed his lawsuit rather than again were identified as those of the ask the House to seat him. missing man, on Cora St.

The House already has turn-There was still the confusion ed over to the grand jury fiof how he died, where and when. This was not determined, due to through his social security card and driver's license. Snipes was reported as having not been seen since the night of August 6, when he left the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company, where he worked. It

Sweepstakes This Week Worth $75

There was only one winner ing to win. Check the numbers, 518 E. Martin Street and get last week in Sweepstakes. Mrs. listed as winners, and go to your money. Elcina Johnson won $25.00.

your store, or stores, make This means that the remain- your purchases, or pay your bill der of last week's money has and get your ticket. Compare been added to this weeks, mak- it with the winning numbers, if ing available $75,00.

The tickets for this week are pink and are dated September 9. Number 990 is worth $25; 6911 is good for $30 and 1250

Certainly this is worth try- any one compares, bring it to will get you $20.

STREET SCENE - New York: A policeman brandishes a club at man arrested for flavowing bottles during demonstration on Brooklyn St. Sept. 4th following the fatal shooting by police of a 14year-old Negro boy, who along with five other Negro youths, was seen beating up an old man according to police. (UPI PHOTO).

STUDENTS CHEER "RAP" - New York: Black Power advocate H. Rap Brown is cheered by children of controversial Intermediate School 201 in Harlem Sept. 12. Brown entered the school saying he was going to teach as a volunteer. The school and all the others in the city have been hit by a teacher walkout since start of the new term Sept 11. (UPI PHOTO).

RAP BROWN Takes Over Strike Bound Class

settlement of the three day * teachers' walkout that has crippled the nation's largest public school system. Officials hoped the minor clash Tuesday between Negro parents and picketing teachers, in Harlem, would not erupt anew,

The city goes to court Thursday to seek contempt citations dim Wednesday for an early day fine on the United Federation of Teachers and jail leaders of the teachers' work stoppage. New York, under the Taylor law that became effective Sept. l, which prohibits strikes by public employees, will attempt to jail and fine Albert Shanker. UFT president; David Wittes,

NEW YORK - Hopes were that could impose a $10,000 a the union's treasurer; and George Altomare, a UFT vice president Meanwhile, the city's more than 1 million public school pupils were in a state of limbo. Nearly 500,000 stayed home Tuesday, 125,000 more than missed the first day of classes Monday. The union said 95 per cent of the city's 59,482 (See BROWN, P. 2) more, occurring as rain about Saturday and Sunday.

WEATHER