

GABBING About Town

BY MRS. A. H. THORPE

DO NOT JUDGE TOO HARD
Pray don't find fault with the man who limps, or stumbles along the road,
Unless you have worn the shoes he wears or struggled beneath his load,
There may be tacks in his shoes that hurt, though hidden away from view,
Or the burdens he bears placed on your back, might cause you to stumble too,
Don't be harsh with the man who sins, or pelt him with words or stones,
Unless you are sure, yes, doubly sure,
That you have not sins of your own,
For you know perhaps if tempter's voice should whisper as soft to you,
As it did to him when he went astray,
It would cause you to falter too.

Club News

NINE AND FIVE CLUB
Signs of the season, attractively displayed, were in evidence last Saturday evening when the Nine and Five Club met with Mrs. Cornelia Cobb of 810 Cape Ave.

Prior to the regular activities of the club, the members enjoyed a mirth-provoking game planned by the hostess. Then followed a repast of very palatable food. Assisting Mrs. Cobb in her culinary duties was her niece, Miss Cornelia Gaddy, a senior student at North Carolina College, Durham.

This meeting was "Happy Birthday" time for Mrs. Bessie Wesley. The honoree received gifts and lovely cards from all of the members with an additional gift being presented to her by the hostess.

As we were about to adjourn, after playing two games of pokeno, the hostess prizes were presented to Mrs. M. J. Marable for high score, Mrs. Ruth Bethea for low score and Mrs. Anne Webb for being the first arrival. Mrs. Bethea expressed thanks for an enjoyable time.

We certainly missed our members who couldn't be with us and look forward to their early return. Others present were Sara Sharper, Geneva Brown, Alma Harrison, Emma Jones, and Lovie Ellis.

EMERGENCY CLUB OF ST. PAUL AME CHURCH

Mrs. Effie Young's living room on S. Person Street was the setting of the Emergency Club's meeting. Mrs. Hattie B. Edmondson, the president, presided.

During the business part of the meeting, the minutes were read and the members recognized sick and shut in members of the church. They also discussed the two members whose turn it is to freshen the curtains in the Sunday School room. The revival was also discussed which was held at the church during the week. Quite a few members exchanged ideas. The parade of the 100th Fair was

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Should every woman be a blonde?

Blonde hair is beautiful for those women whose natural coloring flatters. But not everyone should be a blonde.

Expert beauticians know that complexion and hair color must complement each other to glamorize and bring out all the natural beauty that was meant to be. They also know that very coarse and dark hair often is resistant to drastic color changes. However, there's no doubt about slightly lighter hair adding excitement to a woman's appearance. And hairdressers know there is no better product to add a whole new appeal to every woman's look than Miss Clairol's haircoloring—extra rich Creme Formula or new extra easy Shampoo Formula.

Both Miss Clairol products lighten and color at once, combining vibrant new color with the natural pigment of the hair. So even those shades that look blonde on white hair (as shown on most color selection charts) give a variety of flattering red-to-golden brown shades on women whose hair was black to begin with.

Beauty salons are equipped to answer questions and help with hair color selection. Depend on your hairdresser to have the professional skills and the total family of fine Clairol products to make every woman's experience with haircoloring completely personal and glamorous. Should you be a blonde? If you don't really know, ask your expert hairdresser.

Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

Dear Father, we come to thank Thee for everything. We are so thankful that by Thy touch, a thing of beauty has eternal value. How grateful we are to our heavenly Father, that Thou dost love all humanity regardless of race and color. We are thankful of the power of the gospel and its redeeming effect in our hearts and on our behavior. Unworthy as we are, we pray for Thy mercy. Forgive us all our sins. Help us to tell others of Thy love. Help us to be Thy faithful disciples. Strengthen our faith and help us to follow Thee in full consecration. Loose our tongues and lighten our feet that we may be witnesses for our living Lord, in whose name we pray, Amen.

AUTUMN LEAVES

When Autumn leaves fall from the trees,
We know there is a loss of butterflies and bees,
The sun frequently hide behind the clouds,
Boys and girls rush home from school screaming loud,
The streets and field are covered so with leaves that once
hanged very low,
The rain that fall so slow and pale,
Will wash the dust from leaves along the trail,
We know when all the leaves are gone,
The chill of winter will soon come alone,
and chill you through to the bone,
We complain about the autumn leaves, but which is worse, the leaves or winter freeze?
