BRICKLAYING CHAMP - James H. Davis, of Macon, Rt. 2, (right) is congratulated by State Labor Commissioner Frank Crane after winning the title "North Carolina's Champion Apprentice Bricklayer of 1967" at the State Fair last week. Davis took top honors and a $200 bond prize in the 14th annual N. C. Apprentice Bricklaying Contest on October 9. A total of 44 apprentice contestants from all over the State took part in the competition. Davis is employed by Joseph Richardson, Warrenton masonry contractor, and is receiving his apprenticeship training with Richardson under the state-sponsored program. In addition to the $200 bond prize donated by Brick and Tile Service, Inc., both Davis and Richardson will receive engraved trophies given by the Carolinas Branch, Associated General Contractors of America. Washington Moving Into Washington

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Walter Washington, who was named by Lyndon B. Johnson to guide the government of the nation's capital, is really moving in. Upon his suggestion, and with his recommendation, Johnson named a white businessman, Hechinger, chairman of the newly formed city council.

On the council are some quite influential people. Attorney Margaret Haywood has made an enviable record not only as a well-informed citizen, but as an outstanding lawyer. She got her Washington background information in one of the best law firms in the city - Cobb, Howard & Hayes, and knows as much about Washington as anybody. William (Turkey) Thompson, North Carolina born and a graduate of St. Augustine's (Raleigh) College, another lawyer, has been around since the days of Hoover and knows what is going on.

The Rev. Walter A. Fauntroy has been in the thick of the fight for a number of years and can be of invaluable service to the council and to the committee. Washington wants to get moving, but cannot until at least six of the nine members, proposed by Johnson, have been confirmed by the Senate. In the meantime Mayor Washington and his assistant, Thomas Fletcher, are working with the lame duck commissioners and getting set for the take-over. Washington is getting his accolades and laurels. He was feted in New York Thursday night by some 600 members of the New York Housing Authority's 1100-man police force. At a testimonial dinner in the Astoria Manor, Walter Washington accepted an award from the Housing Patrolmen's Benevolent Association in appreciation of his work with them as the city's housing commissioner.

In accepting the award, Washington paid tribute to the Association, whose members, he said, performed with dedication last summer in averting trouble in some 20 tension points under their jurisdiction.

New York's Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson said of Washington's departure, "We're sorry to lose him, but we recognize that his talents are needed elsewhere."

A "Musical Salute" congratulating Mayor Walter E. Washington and Deputy Mayor Thomas W. Fletcher on their new posts and benefiting the Alley Library for children has been set for Sunday, Oct. 22. Beginning at 8 p. m. in the Lisner Auditorium, the program will feature entertainment by Pearl Bailey, Cab Calloway, Charlie Byrd, Joe Glazer, Barbara McNair and Mark Russell, officials said yesterday.

POET'S CORNER

"UP UPON A ROCK I STAND"
Up upon a rock, I stand
Asking God to take my hand,
Lead and guide me left and right
Through the day, and through the night.

Watching o're the dusty grounds
Admiring Nature all around,
The misty air, and deep gray clouds,
The thunder and lightning, roaring loud.

Up upon a rock, I stand
Acknowledging things, that were made by man,
Such as our instruments and songs we sing,
Now just what do you think, that tomorrow will bring?

Action Against South Started Legal Dept.

WASHINGTON - Responding to the U. S. Supreme Court's action last week - allowing accelerated southern school integration - the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. announced a step-up of litigation in nearly 200 cases.

The ruling, in effect, calls for top to bottom school integration in six deep southern states.

The high court refused to review the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals ruling affecting nine crucial school integration cases.

Under the Appeals Court decision in the Cadjo Parish group of cases, "a desegregation plan must work, must abolish the dual school system and the identifiable Negro school," said LDF Director - Counsel Jack Greenberg.

This is "the most influential school desegregation opinion since the Supreme Court's 1954 school ruling," Mr. Greenberg added.

The nine cases - of which six were brought by LDF attorneys - contained the underlying issue of the pace and extent of school integration across the south, and acceptance of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare guidelines.

States affected include Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas.

An array of LDF attorneys led by Associate - Counsel James Nabrit III, argued the cases on the Appeals Court level.
