

Mighty Hillside High Toppled By Winston-Salem's Anderson

IF I GET MY HANDS ON YOU - Maryland State guard Jim Chase pursues A&T halfback Willie Pearson in recent CIAA game between the two colleges. The Hawks beat the Aggies, 25-14.

Blunt's Boys Taste Defeat By Anderson

WINSTON-SALEM - Russell Blunt brought his stinging Hornets from Durham's Hillside Friday night and they got stung by undefeated Anderson. The Hornets were sporting a 5-0 season record and was atop the heap in the Eastern Conference. Since this was a non-conference game, the Hornets are still the leaders in their conference.

Hillside drew first blood and led at the close of the first quarter by the score of 12-7. Anderson caught fire in the second period and scored two touchdowns in the second period, while holding Hillside scoreless.

Each team scored in the two final quarters, Anderson icing its eighth straight victory with its final touchdown 11 seconds from the game's end.

Hillside outrushed Anderson

263 yards to 129, but the locals took to the air and led in this department, 121 to 44 yards.

Harrison Davis, threw scoring passes of 14 and 10 yards to Morrison and Sterling McKokin, respectively, in the second quarter, and upped Anderson's intermission lead to 20-12 as Robert Ingram and Tony Brown accounted for two extra points.

Brewer tallied two more Hillside touchdowns in the second half, one in the third quarter on a 20-yard sprint and the last one in the fourth period on a 25-yard gallop. Ken Wall ran over a point after the last one.

In the Anderson third quarter McKokin caught another 10-yard scoring aerial from Davis and Brown scored on an 11-yard romp with 11 seconds left in the game.

ENTERING THE FIGHT GAME - New Orleans, La.: Boxing trainer Vince Arnone, (left) wraps the hands of his giant (7-foot, 4-inches tall) entry in the boxing world. The 26-year-old John Rankin wants to leave his current hotel doorman's job for the big money and glory of heavyweight prize fighting. Rankin's 295 pounds qualifies him as a heavyweight. (UPI PHOTO).

Elizabeth City Wins Fish Bowl Classic

BY P. BERNARD YOUNG JR.
PORTSMOUTH, Va. - Powerful Elizabeth City State, after a dog-fight first half, wore down the stubborn defenses of injury-weakened St. Paul's College here Saturday night in the twentieth renewal of the Shrine-sponsored Fish Bowl and, with a 22-point second half burst, won going away before six thousand cheering spectators.

The victory gave the Carolinians a 5-1-0 overall record and a 4-1-0 showing in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) competition. For the home-team Tigers, playing on a neutral site, the loss puts their record at 0-3-1, all in conference tilts.

The Tar Heel unit went into the game here with the No. 2 ranking in the CIAA, while St. Paul's stood 16th among the conference's 17 rated teams.

Three things spelled pigskin doom for the undermanned but game lads from Lawrenceville, Va.; a blocked punt that was carried over by the Vikings for a score, the scouting reports that led to the almost total containment of the Tiger's freshman fullback, James Harrell (in two earlier games he totaled 220 yards rushing), and the second period injury of ace lineman, Acle Sabb. Until his retirement and a trip to the hospital, Sabb had almost single-handedly throttled the eventual winner's ground attack.

Although on the losing side again, Co-Captain Isaac Watson of St. Paul's provided the most outstanding single run, as he had in two previous contests, with a fine full-stride grab in the second quarter for the Tiger's lone six-pointer. Martin Arthur of SPC booted a field goal in the first quarter from the 21 yard line to bring the score to 8 to 3.

The winners' vaunted passing attack was blunted by the injury-caused absence of star quarterback Johnnie Walton, a home-town junior.

Prior to the game a police-estimated throng of 25,000 on-lookers viewed the Fish Bowl parade along 17 blocks of downtown High Street. There were 180 parade units, including school, college, military, and Shriner bands. The visiting fraternal units came from as far west as Detroit and as far north as Boston. Proceeds went to the TB and Cancer Fund of the "nobles" whose membership spreads thru North and South America. Every major officer of the order was on hand here.

Uniforms Didn't Change The Game

DURHAM - North Carolina College coach James Stevens gave the Hawks a 12-0 lead. Duncan passed to Frankie Sumpter for a 17-yard scoring play in the third quarter, and Henry Shropshire came in at quarterback to run a 63-yard drive to the goal. Scoring on a 23-yard passing was Raymond Banks.

The Eagles play host to Shaw University in their homecoming game Saturday, Oct. 28, in Durham.

Herman Matthews, NCC's

quarterback, scooted around right end for NCC's only touchdown, early in the fourth quarter. Another drive into Maryland State territory ended with a pass interception by the Hawks' Sumpter.

The Eagles play host to Shaw University in their homecoming game Saturday, Oct. 28, in Durham.

GIBSON GETS WORLD SERIES PLAYER AWARD-New York: St. Louis Cardinals' pitcher Bob Gibson, whose three wins against the Boston Red Sox brought the World's Championship of baseball to St. Louis, looks over the motor of his 1968 Corvette convertible after the car was presented to him in a ceremony here October 16th. The car was Bob's prize for being named winner of the 13th annual "Sport Magazine World Series Award" as outstanding player of the 1967 World Series. (UPI)

FSC Broncos Shut Out Morris' Hornets

FAYETTEVILLE - Fayetteville State College's Broncos rode the passing era of quarterback Sam Jones to a 14-0 men-conference win over the Morris College Hornets in a game played here recently.

Fayetteville scored the first time it got the ball going 61 yards for the score. Halfback Macon MaHomes took the Hornet kick-off on the Bronco 10 yard line and returned it to the 59 where the home-standing Broncos put the ball in play. James hit MaHomes with a 20-yard pass to the visitor's 41. Carl Smith took in a Jones' pass on the Hornet 35 and ran to the 20. Jones found Smith again and moved into the end zone for the initial score. A pass from Jones to Danny Williams was good for two points.

The Broncos knocked on the Morris cover several times in the opening quarter but couldn't ram the score in. Fayetteville had drives stall at the 21 and 26.

Fayetteville got its second score at the outset of the third quarter. The Broncos put together a drive of 70-yards for the score. Utilizing the running of MaHomes and Eugene Green the Broncos drove to the visitor's 34. A Jones' pass to Smith moved the ball to the Hornet 15. Jones used a screen pass to halfback Robert Allen and the Raleigh speedster sailed in for the second score. A penalty nullified the extra point try.

In garnering the win, the Broncos amassed 246 yards total offense. Jones hit on nine of 24 passes for 93 yards. The Bronco defense was grudging with the visitors, allowing only 79 yards on the ground and 83 via the airplanes.

The best Morris offensive effort came in the third period when quarterback Clifford Crawford hit Leon Toney with a 30-yard pass to the Broncos 29. Fayetteville's defense rose to the occasion and took over on a recovered fumble.

The win gave the Broncos a 2-2-1 record and the Hornets are 0-3.

Despite the victory, Coach Hubir Doub was not too happy. "This was one of our worst performances," he said. "We would have scored more and we missed too many opportunities," he continued.

"If we are to play .500 ball we will definitely have to improve." "We are using a large number of first year men and the inexperience shows up in tight situations," Doub said.

The Broncos journey to Elizabeth City next Saturday, where they play arch-foe Elizabeth City State College.

Henderson Institute. The game is slated for County Stadium and is expected to be packed with spills and thrills.

by Charles J. Livingston

By Negro Press International
CHALLENGING IN '68
PHILADELPHIA - Hard-hitting Joe Frazier, the former 1964 Olympic champion who is unbeaten as a pro, plans to challenge for the world heavyweight title in 1967, it was learned last week. The announcement came before Frazier stopped Tony Doyle of Salt Lake City, Utah, in the second round of a scheduled 10-round bout to rack up his 18th straight victory, 16 by knockouts. PAYS $115,000

CINCINNATI - The Cincinnati Royals of the National Basketball Association last week foiled any likely attempt of the rival American Basketball association to lure away their big star Oscar Robertson, for at least three years. The Royals signed the famed "Big O" to a three-year contract calling for $115,000 a year. Robertson was second in scoring and assists in the NBA last season.

HECKLING COSTLY
NEW YORK - The New York State Athletic commission last week slapped a $500 fine and reprimand against Gil Clancey, manager of recently reformed middleweight champion Emile Griffith. The charge was conduct detrimental to boxing for allegedly boisterously shouting instructions to Griffith and harassing Referee Tom Walsh during Emile's Sept. 29 conquest of Italy's Nino Benvenuti. In the bout, Griffith regained the middleweight title he had lost a few months earlier to Bonvenuti. WOES INCREASE

HOUSTON - The out-of-the-ring difficulties of heavyweight boxing champion Muhammad Ali (Clay) increased last week when his former lawyer slapped him with a $284,615 suit for legal fees he says the champion owes him. Ali is also under a five-year and $10,000 sentence, which he is appealing, for refusing induction into the Army, and is trying to end alimony payment to his ex-wife, Sonja. MEATY SUIT
ST. LOUIS - Slugging first baseman Orlando (Baby Bull) Cepeda of the world champions St. Louis Cardinals baseball team last week filed a $55,000 suit against the Independent Packing company for technically making him a meat salesman without his authorization. Cepeda charged the company, without his consent, used his name to "enrich itself" in radio, television and billboard advertising to sell bacon and frankfurters. RETIREMENT GOAL
CHICAGO - First baseman Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs told the Quarterback Club that he would think of retiring after he has played in three consecutive World Series with the Cubs. "As a starter we'll win in 1968, then in '69 and again '70," Ernie said of the Cubs who finished the 1967 season in third place after a 10th place finish in '66.

It's a freshman, rather than one of our older players. Piggott praised his quarterback by saying: "Code finally got the confidence needed to make our offense jell." "He came up with the clutch play on third down and this is something we didn't get in our previous games." "Our other quarterback Jerome Turner shows he has a cool head and knows what to do. There's no question that he can throw the ball and he can run the two requisites for a quarterback." Willie Pearson, continued Piggott, "is a threat to catch from any position. He can go inside or outside."

Exciting Intersectional Football Classic

A&T STATE UNIVERSITY
"Aggies"

vs.

FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY
"Rattlers"

Greensboro Memorial Stadium

Saturday, 4:30 P. M.
November 4

Admission: $3.00
Children: 1.00

(Including high school students with I. D. Cards)

WELCOME HOME KISS-ANGELES: Wearing a button reading "Kiss Me, I'm Irish," University of Southern California football hero O. J. Simpson gets a welcome home kiss from his wife Marguerite. The team had just arrived in town after its 24-7 win over Notre Dame October 14. (UPI)

Slow Defense Beats Howard

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - The failure of Howard University's defense to stop two punt returns and an 85-yard kickoff return spelled defeat by Fisk University, in a game played here Saturday.

Fisk broke open a scoreless game early in the second period with three touchdowns, two on 51-and 21-yard punt returns.

Howard scored in the third quarter on a 60-yard touchdown drive, covering the distance in three plays. Halfback Harold Ford went the final 11 yards for the touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff, Jim Watkins broke through the entire Howard defense on an 85-yard run for Fisk's final touchdown.

Bear hunting bows are designed to give you greater striking power and a straighter, swifter cast. I have field tested them around the world. My list of over 100 record class trophies taken with bow and arrow includes a lion, polar bear and bull elephant.

Come in and see our complete line of Bear hunting bows, arrows, Razorheads, and hunting accessories.

HILL'S Inc.
US 1 NORTH BLVD.
Phone 533-4884

Merrick-Moore Downs H. B. Suggs Of Pitt

DURHAM - The M&M boys, of Harry Edmonds training, turned on the steam and defeated the highly-ranked eleven from H. B. Suggs High, Farmville, Saturday night, to the tune of 31-0.

The real villain was Donnie Pollard, quarterback, who scored one touchdown and passed for two more. The win gave Edmond's team six straights and the top rung of District One NCHSAC 3-A Conference.

Homecoming is slated for Saturday night when the Merrick-Moore team will meet

Rams Fail Again To Beat Aggies

GREENSBORO - The Winston-Salem State College Rams, who are said to have never won a football game against the A&T's Aggies, suffered the same fate here Saturday when the University boys swamped them 54-5.

The Rams came to town highly hopeful, due to the fact they had won two straights and the Aggies had not dented the win column this season. The Aggies' offense showed, in the first quarter, that it meant business when it scored 13 points, while the defense was holding the Rams to exactly nothing.

The Aggies really exploded in the second period when they scored four touchdowns and made three extra points. The game was far out of reach of the Rams, but they managed their one and only touchdown in that period and made a two-point conversion. Neither team scored in the third period, but the Aggies tallied 14 points in the final stanza.

Coach Bert Piggott showed much exuberation over the season's first victory.

"This is the beginning of a new season because the team finally realizes it can score," stated Piggott.

"We have new players in key positions, except fullback. Of course, the key spot is at quarterback where Merl Code plays. "And every time I look up and see a boy doing something.

BOURBON DE LUXE $2.50 PINT

Bourbon de Luxe
Kentucky Bourbon Whiskey
A Blend

BOTTLED BY
The Bourbon de Luxe Distillery Co., Louisville, Ky. - Cincinnati, Ohio

$4.00 PER QUART

THE BOURBON DE LUXE DISTILLERY COMPANY, LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, 86 PROOF. CONTAINS 49% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS.