

Big Homecoming Climaxes Wk. At R.B. Harrison

Saturday, Oct. 28, will climax the big eventful week of annual Homecoming activities at the Richard B. Harrison School at Selma.

Some of the memorable events planned for this extravaganza demand public attention and attendance.

"Miss Richard B. Harrison" is to be crowned in very colorful and elaborate ceremonies Wednesday evening, Oct. 25, at eight o'clock p. m. in the gymnasium.

Friday night, 7-9 p. m., the traditional "Bonfire" will get underway on a site on the school campus near the Agriculture Building.

The Alumni will hold their business meeting and Luncheon in the school cafeteria Saturday morning at 11:30 a. m. All graduates of this fine institution are invited to be present at this very important assemblage.

Harrison's colossal Parade featuring "A Wonderful World Of Color" will begin at 1:45 p. m. Saturday Oct. 28, from the school on through downtown Selma and back to Harrison's Athletic field accompanied by bands, high stepping majorettes, marching units, beautiful queens, artistically decorated cars, floats, and anxious faces.

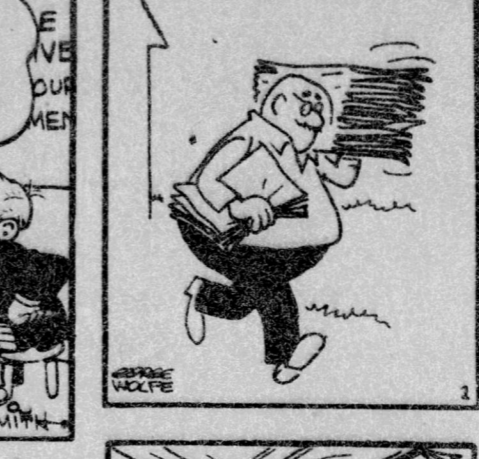

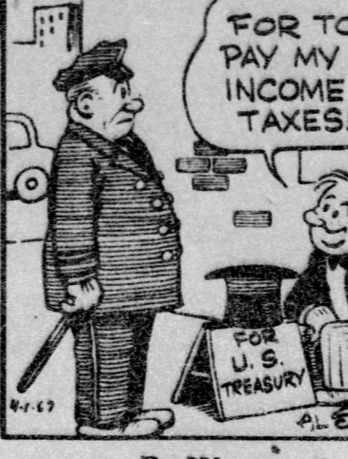

The biggest event of the day is the Homecoming Game, Richard B. Harrison Bulldogs versus Sampson High School. The kick off is set for 3 p. m. Saturday. "Miss Homecoming" and "Miss Harvest" will be presented and crowned during half time festivities.

Advanced tickets are available at the School for attendance to the football game. --Adults $1.00 and for students $.50. At the gate the tickets will be $1.25 and $.75, respectively.

George C. Sanders is chairman of the Athletic Committee, and Mack Sowell is serving as the Homecoming Committee chairman.

In 1950 Gwendolyn Brooks was the first Negro woman to receive a Pulitzer Prize.

Garner Consolidated To Stage Homecoming At Garner Sr. High

The Garner Consolidated High School will celebrate its third annual "Homecoming" Friday night, Oct. 27 at the Garner Senior High School field. The "Tigers" will play host to the "Elsons" of Fuquar Consolidated High School. The Homecoming parade will begin at 4:30 p. m. It will be highlighted with our beautiful queens and their courts. The visiting bands will be represented. Among them are: Student Council and Cheerleaders.

Homecoming festivities began Monday with an assembly to honor the football team and coaches. (Hickerson & Powell)

On Tuesday there will be a gala of colors with each class wearing its class colors. The crowning of "Miss Homecoming" will be one of the highlights of Homecoming which will be Wednesday night at our Coronation Ball. On Thursday there will be a "Bonfire" followed by a pre-game dance. Friday is "the" day with a pep rally, our Homecoming parade, and the Homecoming game followed by a "Victory" Dance in the "Tiger's Den."

Contestants for "Miss Homecoming" are Patricia Denning representing 9-2, Sue Thomas, 9-3, Brenda Harris 10-1, Bevelon Hayes 10-2, Fenice Pryor 10-3, Portia Hinnant 11-1, Mary Yates 11-2, and Patricia Hinton representing the senior class. Minnie Williams and Geraldine Hinton are also representatives of 9-1.

At halftime the queen will be crowned by the captain of the team, Herman Jones. The queen will be entertained with music by the Fuquar Consolidated marching band. The Garner Consolidated marching band will also perform.

VSC Gets $23,000 Check

Scholarship aid checks totaling $23,000 were presented to Virginia State College Tuesday (Oct. 24) by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation.

This foundation has assisted more than 25,000 young men and women during the past 31 years through its scholarship programs.

The checks were presented to college Assistant President Walker H. Quarles, Jr. by Lewis C. Griffith, representing the Sears Foundation. College officials will announce the names of the students who qualify for this aid.
