

ARM HAS A CHANCE - Doctors at East Orange, N. J., General Hospital reimplanted the left arm of little Michelle Hayes last July, after the arm was nearly severed in a freak auto accident. Here, Michelle displays the rapid process she has made since the reimplantation as she plays under the Christmas tree at her East Orange home. If the reimplantation is successful - and indications thus far are favorable -- it will be the first successful operation of its kind in New Jersey medical history. (UPI PHOTO).

DEAR SALLY

BY SALLY SHAW

DEAR SALLY: We had a little gathering in our home a few evenings ago, and during a greater part of the time two of the couples exchanged anecdotes and details about the "great time" they had at another party they had attended sometime previously. Of course, my wife and I, along with our other guests, were compelled to sit by and listen and laugh with them as they regaled us with news about this other party. Am I right in considering these two couples rather inconsiderate and rude? HOST.

DEAR HOST: Right. They were MORE than RATHER inconsiderate and rude! They were in effect telling you and the other guests that they had a much better time at the other party. This should help you considerably in deciding whom NOT to include in any future parties in your home.

DEAR SALLY: A good girl friend of ours was recently given her own car by her parents--but after driving with her a couple of times, we're plain scared or chicken! She drives like she was blindfolded, doesn't know the first thing about traffic rules, and some of her near-misses with other vehicles have almost given us heart attacks. None of us want to ride with her anymore, but she is such a swell girl otherwise and such a good friend of ours, we don't want to hurt her feelings. So, what do you advise? SHOOK UP.

DEAR SHOOK-UP: Your good friend's feelings are not nearly so important as your safety! Kindly, but firmly, turn down any more offers of transportation... until she has learned considerably more about good driving.

DEAR SALLY: My husband and I are faced with a delicate little problem. A very good woman friend of ours, a divorcee, has now told us she is marrying for the second time and that she would like very much for my husband and me to stand up with them at her wedding. The thing that makes us uncomfortable about this is the fact that we stood up with her when she was married previously, only four years ago. How do we handle this? UNCERTAIN.

DEAR UNCERTAIN: If she really is a good friend of yours and you want to maintain that friendship, accept by all means. Since it's evident that neither she nor her fiancé is "uncomfortable" about the situation, why should you be? ***

DEAR SALLY: My fiancé and I have been saving our money for the past two years in a joint bank account, and have enough now to pay for the furniture for our home when we're married. Three weeks ago, however, my fiancé's aunt died, leaving four rooms of well-used, heavy-looking furniture to my fiancé in her will. His mother claims this would be "wonderful for two young people setting up housekeeping," and that it would certainly save us a lot of money. My fiancé is kind of bending this way too. But I would much rather have new, contemporary modern furniture in our new home -- much better than this old-fashioned heavy furniture. What do you think about this? MOD.

DEAR MOD: Since you and your fiancé have worked so hard these past two years to build up your furniture fund, certainly you've earned the right to start your married life with new furniture, the kind of furniture you like. The sale of your fiancé's inherited furniture can help here, too.

Apple Sauces
by Betty Crocker

Appetizing, versatile applesauce should be part of your bag of tricks for easy, interesting meals. Applesauce can add tang to breakfast... chilled on cereal or waffles... hot with breakfast sausage. A dish of applesauce can substitute for salad at lunch or dinner, is ideal for filling a small vacuum bottle in a lunch box. Applesauce gessers are almost endless... applesauce puddings, cookies, cakes, even molded applesauce-gelatin desserts. A favorite applesauce cake, easy to put together, is this one. Try it on the family tonight. Then remember it for the next time you entertain at a "coffee."

APPLESAUCE VELVET CRUMB CAKE
1 1/2 cups Bisquick
3/4 cup brown sugar (packed)
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon allspice
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
3 tablespoons shortening
1 egg
1/2 cup unsweetened applesauce
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup milk
Topping (below)
Heat oven to 350°. Grease and flour square pan, 8x8x2 inches. In large mixer bowl, stir together dry ingredients. Add shortening, egg, applesauce and vanilla. Beat on low speed 1/2 minute, scraping side and bottom of bowl frequently. Beat 1 minute on medium speed. Stir in milk gradually.

Beat 1/2 minute longer. Pour into prepared pan. Bake 35 to 40 minutes. Serve warm with Topping, 9 servings.
Topping: In chilled bowl, beat 1 1/2 cups whipping cream until stiff. Fold in 2 teaspoons cinnamon, 1/4 cup chopped nuts and 2 teaspoons sugar. Colorful, tasty trick with applesauce for children: Sprinkle the dish of applesauce with red cinnamon candies. And here's another saucy treat.
CRANBERRY APPLESAUCE
2 cups fresh cranberries
2 cups sliced apples
3/4 cup water
1 cup sugar
Combine cranberries, apples and water; cook until fruit is soft. Put through a colander or strainer; stir in sugar and cook until sugar is dissolved. If desired, sprinkle with grated orange peel.

we care

It isn't easy to buy bean coffee!

Nowadays, very few stores offer you bean coffee.

Why does A&P still offer coffees in the bean?

Basically, because "We Care."

Specifically, because we know these facts:

The coffee bean is nature's seal that holds the flavor.

Once that seal is broken by grinding, flavor fades..

NO MATTER HOW IT'S PACKAGED.

The shorter the time between grinding the beans and brewing your coffee, the greater the flavor.

So if you want the finest cup of "The Think Drink" you've ever tasted, buy and brew one of A&P's three Bean Coffee blends...

Eight O'Clock, Red Circle or Bokar.

Not every store can offer you custom-ground bean coffee.

A&P can and does.

Shouldn't A&P be your store?
