Valentine Not Moved By Wire

If Tim Valentine's reply to a telegram sent by Dr. R. A. Hawkins, setting forth the fact that Negroes should have pro-rata representation in the Democratic National Convention, is the thinking of the North Carolina Democratic Committee, there will be a brush-off of the idea.

Hawkins set forth that since the majority of the almost 300,000 registered Negro voters in the state are in the Democratic fold, there should be a distribution of delegates, equal to the voting strength of this (See VALENTINE, P. 2)

Democratic Officials Answer Dr. R. Hawkins

WASHINGTON - The Poor People's marchers have started their campaign off on the right foot by maintaining a nonviolent dignity that is commanding government officials' respect.

Moving into "Resurrection City, U. S. A.," a shanty-town near the capitol building and the White House, the demonstrators are seeking Congressional introduction and approval of such anti-poverty legislation as a guaranteed annual wage or a "negative income tax" paid to the poor.

And so far, the marchers have won over several government officials to their cause by keeping their cool and demonstrating the respectability of their campaign.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey was one of those touring the marchers' encampment. (See ABERNATHY, P. 2)

Advocates Separate State For Blacks

Calling on black people everywhere to "insist on a separate State in these United States," Muhammad Ali, Muslim minister, formerly known as Cassius Marcellus Clay, Jr., a Louisville, Ky. native, told an audience of 1,500 persons Saturday night.

"We are seeking knowledge today. Regardless of what we believe in, we can still listen to speeches from every religion."

Sponsored by the Afro-American Cultural Society of Shaw University, the 26-year old Mr. Ali, dethroned heavyweight boxing champion of the world, was heard in the C. C. Spaulding Gymnasium on the campus at 7 p. m. He received two standing ovations - one before speaking and the other following his remarks.

"There is a serious race problem going on here in America," he stated. "Elijah Muhammad (leader of the Muslims, Chicago) is the boldest prophet in the world. He teaches us that the main problem in the world today is race. 'BLOOD SPENT IN VIETNAM' - 'White people will fight and go to war for what they believe in. Blood is being spent all over Vietnam in this $80 million war, and America refuses to allot just one of these fifty States to the so-called Negro.'"

"We, as black people, once worked 310 long years, 16 hours a day, without a payday and we have given our blood and sweat in all of America's wars and are still giving it in Vietnam. Our great leaders, who followed Martin Luther King, can't even catch his killer. Kill a white man and they will catch him (the killer) before he even gets out of the neighborhood."

Unable to conceal some of the mannerisms that has characterized his colorful career and branded him as "The Louisville Lip" and the "Loquacious Cassius," Ali reminded his audience, "I don't think anybody in this room will ever be as great as Martin Luther King, me, or Adam Clayton Powell, so you must start doing something for yourselves. We are still begging, but we must not let our children grow up to be as we are." (See ADVOCATES, P. 2)
