CURRENT EVENTS BAFFLERS

BY NEGRO PRESS INTERNATIONAL

In today's Baffler, test your knowledge of recent events by choosing the current answer to each question.

Scoring: 8-10; excellent; 6-7; good; 4-5; fair; 0-3; poor. Bonus Question counts two points. Here's the multiple-choice quiz:

1. The specter of two Mississippi delegations at the Democratic National Convention one black and the other white-- has been raised by the resignation of a delegate to the convention from the Magnolia state. Who is he?

--A. Charles Evers; --B. Medgar Evers; --C. Aaron Henry.

2. Why was a transit strike recently conducted in Chicago?

--A. Black workers charged the transit system's management with discrimination; --B. Black workers were angry because their pay scale was lower than white's pay scale; --C. Black workers charged that all the transit union's officers are white, even though union membership is 50 per cent black.

3. How successful have the Poor People's marches been in winning their demands for a better deal from the federal government?

--A. Very unsuccessful. The forthcoming trimming of the federal budget will mean that most anti-poverty programs will be out; --B. Very successful. For once, the federal government is on record as being an "active partner" in efforts to eradicate poverty; --C. Outstandingly successful. The federal government has exceeded poor people's demands.

4. The squabble between the "Young Turks" and NAACP moderates, which exploded at the organization's recent convention:

--A. Threatens to destroy the civil-rights group; --B. Is an old story going back to the NAACP's founding; --C. Could have been avoided if NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins had kept his mouth shut.

5. Small black contracting firms are being denied contracts with the federal government because they can't get (----), according to author-lawyer Gilbert B. Friedman, writing in "The New Republic."

--A. Legal aid; --B. Human respect; --C. Surety bonds.

6. Lawyers for James Earl Ray are trying to keep him from being extradited to the United States.

--A. By representing Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., as a "politician" and maintaining that Ray cannot be extradited for the "political crime" of purportedly slaying Dr. King; --B. Because they know full well that Ray could not get a fair trial in the United States; --C. Because they want the case to be tried by the World Court.

7. Who is the Presidential candidate whom NAACP Executive Director Roy Wilkins accused of "meddling" in the association's recent convention?

--A. Eugene McCarthy; --B. George Wallace; --C. Richard M. Nixon.

8. The NAACP and CORE have identified with new concepts in efforts to improve their images. What, respectively, are these new concepts?

--A. The NAACP has linked up with "black power;" CORE with "black nationalism;" --B. The NAACP has come out for "radical moderation;" CORE, for "moderate radicalism;" --C. The NAACP has adopted "self-segregation" as its motto; CORE is up tight with "peaceful integration."

BONUS QUESTION: What "first" has recently been achieved by Progress Aerospace Enterprises, Inc., the brainchild of the Rev. Leon Sullivan, a Philadelphia minister?

ANSWERS: 1. A; 2. C; 3. A; 4. B; 5. C; 6. A; 7. A; 8. A.

BONUS ANSWER: The firm is starting the first aerospace plant owned and administered by black people.

Muffin Plans

Plan to serve Blueberry Bran Muffins for any meal. With the nutlike flavor and the wholesome goodness of whole bran cereal, these muffins are the not-too-sweet variety that complement every menu. Plan to make this recipe even if you're a family of only two or three. These muffins freeze nicely, and can be brought out as needed. Split, buttered and broiler-browned, they'll be a treat for a breakfast sleepyhead or a luncheon guest.

Blueberry Bran Muffins

- 1 cup Kellogg's Bran Buds
- 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup soft shortening
- 1/2 cup frozen blueberries, thawed and drained
- 1 cup sifted regular all-purpose flour

Combine Bran Buds and milk; let stand until most of moisture is taken up. Add eggs and shortening; beat well. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar; mix in blueberries. Add to Bran Buds mixture stirring only until combined. Fill greased muffin-pan cups 3/4 full. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) about 25 minutes.

Yield: 10 Blueberry Bran Muffins, 2 1/2 inches in diameter. Note: Fresh blueberries, washed and drained, may be substituted for frozen.
