

DEAR SALLY

BY SALLY SHAW

DEAR SALLY: We're a young couple, soon to be married, and we have a little problem on which we'd appreciate your advice. Since our finances are somewhat limited at present, it will be necessary for us to make our home for at least a couple of years with one of our sets of parents. Both have ample room in their homes for us, and both are eager to have us. So ... what do you think is the best way for us to decide where to live ... flip a coin ... or what? HERE OR THERE.

DEAR HERE OR THERE: Since in most cases the chances of a mother and daughter's getting along are much better than those of a mother and daughter-in-law, my vote is for the wife's parents.

DEAR SALLY: Recently, while a couple were visiting in our home, the woman dropped a live ash from her cigarette on the slip cover of the chair in which she was seated and burned a hole in it. She was very apologetic about this, but there still wasn't a single word from her or her husband about making it right with us. I have now found it will cost us $12 to repair the hole in the chair cover. Don't you think our friends should pay this and that maybe we should mail them the bill? BURNED.

DEAR BURNED: Instead of mailing them the bill, I think it would be much better to tell your friends personally what the woman's little accident is costing you, and give them the opportunity to pay the damages. If they don't, then there's nothing more you can do -- except to realize it has cost you $12 to learn that these "friends" have little or no principles.

DEAR SALLY: I'm a young man of 25 who was a high school "drop-out" eight years ago, and feeling more sorry about this all the time. I know now how much the lack of a high school diploma is handicapping me in getting the kind of work I would like to be doing. I have been thinking about finishing my high school education at night school, but haven't done anything about it yet because of my age. I think it would be embarrassing to be a 25-year-old high school student. What do you have to say about this? JERRY.

DEAR JERRY: No age is too old to learn. There are many, many persons many, many years older than you who are attending school all over the country. An eagerness to learn and to improve oneself is ADMIRABLE, not embarrassing. Go to it, and good luck to you!

DEAR SALLY: I was engaged to a certain young man for five months, and then we broke our engagement two months ago. Recently, however, we began going together again, patched up all our differences, and have decided to become "re-engaged." My little problem now is this: Considering the fact our first engagement appeared, along with my picture, in our newspaper, would it be proper for me to insert another such announcement now of our second engagement? SECOND TIME AROUND.

DEAR SECOND TIME AROUND: No. Another such announcement of your engagement to the same man would not be in the best of taste. Much better this time to convey your news verbally to your relatives and good friends.

The Veteran's Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA office.

Q -- I receive a monthly compensation check from the Veterans Administration. I have recently had a change of address. Should I report the change to the VA or Treasury Department.

A -- Your change of address should always be reported to the VA Regional Office where your records are located.

Q -- I am interested in the new Modified Life plan of government insurance I have been reading about. I now hold $10,000 of government insurance. Where can I get more specific information on the Modified Life plan?

A -- Write to the Veterans Administration Regional Office where your records are held or to the VA Insurance office (Philadelphia or St. Paul) where your premiums are paid. Ask for a copy of VA Pamphlet 29-

22 which discusses the benefits of this plan.

Q -- I read recently that the Post-Korean G. I. Bill is two years old. I got out of service in 1965 after four years in the Army. Am I eligible for education and training benefits under this bill? If so, how long do I have before my entitlement expires?

A -- First, and most important, you are eligible for education and training benefits under the Post-Korean G. I. Bill. This third generation G. I. Bill was enacted for veterans who served for at least 180 days consecutively in the Armed Forces, some of which was after Jan. 31, 1955.

Since you were released from active duty between Jan. 1955, and June 1, 1966, your eligibility for VA education and training assistance runs until May 31, 1974. Veterans discharged since June 1, 1966, when the Post-Korean G. I. Bill went into effect, have eight years after their separation from service to use their benefits.

Delight the family with Broiled Halibut served with a delicious Egg Sauce. Evaporated milk keeps the sauce creamy-good. It helps make all your cooking better. Try it for main dishes and desserts, salads and soups. You will be pleased

BROILED HALIBUT WITH EGG SAUCE
(Makes 4 servings)

1 1/2 pounds (3/4 to 1-inch thick) halibut filets or steaks
2 tablespoons melted butter

2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Dry halibut with paper towels. Place on broiler pan. Combine butter, lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce. Brush mixture on fish. Place under broiler 4 inches from heat. Broil 5-7 minutes on each side. Baste occasionally with butter-lemon mixture. While fish is broiling, prepare Egg Sauce.

EGG SAUCE

1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

1 cup undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk
1/2 cup chicken broth
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 chopped hard cooked eggs

Melt butter in saucepan. Stir in flour, salt, pepper, mustard and Worcestershire sauce until smooth. Gradually stir in Carnation Evaporated Milk and chicken broth. Cook until sauce is thickened, stirring constantly (about 5 minutes). Remove from heat. Stir in lemon juice. (Sauce will thicken.) Stir in eggs. Serve with Halibut Steaks.
