Catholic Bishops To Discuss Ways To Make Religion Work

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Three Catholic bishops will meet March 11 in Detroit, Mich., with leaders of the Black Catholic Clergy Caucus to discuss in depth proposals to make Catholicism relevant to Black Americans, and to recommend action to the American hierarchy.

The bishops were appointed by Archbishop John F. Bearden of Detroit, president of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops (NCCB), to find ways in which the American bishops and Black Catholics can work together on their common religious and social problems. They will present their recommendations in April, at the semi-annual meeting of the nation's Catholic hierarchy in Houston, Tex., April 15-17. The Black Catholic Clergy Caucus was founded in April, 1968. Its membership included the 167 Black priests in the United States.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

PEACE AND ACCESS
"Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; by whom also we have access." (Rom. 5:1-2).
"Being justified... we have peace with God!" What a priceless blessing. We believers are prone to take this blessing altogether too much for granted. Since the day we trusted Christ and the burden of sin rolled away, most of us have never had another question about our eternal destiny, and we have begun to take it for granted. We fail to appreciate sufficiently what it means to be able to arise in the morning, go about our business during the day and give ourselves up to unconsciousness at night, always assured that through our Lord's redemptive work we have "peace with God" and our eternal destiny is secure. Surely this knowledge should overwhelm our hearts with constant gratitude and have a profound effect upon our daily conduct. The companion blessing to

"peace with God" is our full and free access into His presence; another blessing of grace far too little appreciated. Think of the wonder of our free access to God; now He the Ruler of the Universe, invites us to come confidently before His "throne of grace" at our convenience. "In time of need."
"Let us therefore come boldly into the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need." (Heb. 4:16).
Let us never forget that this high privilege was purchased for us by the precious blood of Christ, and that having thus been purchased, it is His will that we believers avail ourselves of "this grace." Could there be greater proof of His love for us?
"Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, a new and living way, which He hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, His flesh." (Heb. 10:19,20).

MEDITATION

A SERMONETTE BY COLIN DOUGLAS

"Stand firm, and see the salvation of the Lord, He will work for you today." --Exod 14:13.
Patience, contrary to what some people think, is NOT a "do-nothing" quality. Although some people feel that patience is like marking time, this is not so. It takes great strength to be patient.
The gardener learns to be patient. He learns to wait watchfully as the things grow. The scientist learns to be patient. He makes his experiments over and over again. The teacher learns to be patient. He allows the students to do for themselves, at their own pace, the things he could do speedily for them. . . . he allows the students to seek through to answers that he has already found.
So, Lord, teach us patience! "Let patience have its perfect work" in us. Patience is a needed quality in all of us. We need patience in little things that annoy or frustrate us. We need patience in handling human relationships. We need patience in handling family affairs. We need patience in meeting all the various phases of our life. . . . in our place of employment, in our community, in our nation, in our world.

Through the practice of daily prayer we can keep the Spirit of God within us burning brightly, and through this prayer we build up our awareness of His closeness to us. . . . our realization that He is ever at hand to aid us with His love, wisdom, and power. As our faith in this great Presence is strengthened, so does our patience increase. . . . for we know that with God all things are possible, and that with God all things work out for our good. Therefore, we can no longer be concerned over the outcome of anything. . . . we can no longer be impatient with other persons or with any circumstance.
"God is our refuge and strength." - Psalms 46:1.

$10,000 Given Kittrell By AME Church

KITTRELL - Kittrell Junior College was given $10,000 by the second district AME Church, following its annual Founders' Day Banquet held in Washington, D. C.
The gift, acknowledged by Kittrell President L. G. Horton, brings the school closer to its $50,000 goal set to supplement its current operational budget and will be used to purchase new library books, help needy students and increase teachers salaries.
Kittrell gets one-fourth of its yearly operational budget from the sponsoring AME Church and has received, to date, about $6,000 from friends of the college in nearby Henderson.

ATTEND CHURCH

The GOOD BOOK

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

America in its early days depended on the "GOOD BOOK" for its guide in ethics, worship, and pursuit of freedom. These early gains are now in danger of falling and we need to turn all America once again to God and His word. America can be strong only when each individual looks to God for strength.
