

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES THE CRIME BEAT

STEALS COOKIES FROM TRUCK

Officer Rudolph Felix Perry reported at 1:56 p.m. Monday, that he and Officer J. C. King observed a colored male, about 17, at 12:05 p.m., reach into a Tip Top Bakery truck at the corner of S. East and E. Caharrus Streets and steal one box of cookies, then run away. The cops said they chased the subject several blocks, but "we were unable to catch him." The truck was driven by James McChee. The box contained one dozen raisin cookies, worth $1.20, and four dozen oatmeal cookies, valued at $4.80. The suspect was wearing a tan trench coat over a gold sweater, according to the report.

BOY ASSAULTED BY TWO

Excell Wilson, 211 Seawall Avenue, reported to Officer J. W. Wright at 9:16 p.m. Monday, that his son, Tony Archie Jones, 12, was standing outside the Boys' Club corner of New Bern and Tarboro Road, when Thomas Earl Johnson, 15, 111 Hicks Street, and Arthur Lee Whitley, 14, 708 E. Jones Street, assaulted him by striking him and broke his glasses, valued at $60. Both youths were charged with assault.

STRUCK FROM BEHIND

Lionie Hew Smith, 24, 1108 Mark Street, informed Officer W. B. Harrington at 3:52 p.m. Sunday, that he was "walking a friend of mine home," when a man he didn't know walked up to them on Kindley Street (behind Memorial Auditorium), and attacked him by hitting him with the butt of a shotgun, on the left side.

PURSE IS ENTERED

while she went to the restroom, and when she returned, she discovered that someone had stolen $6 out of it.

LICENSE TAG 'LIFTED'

Mrs. Henrietta White Kay, 1909 Hadley Road, reported to Officers M. G. Hamilton and F. A. Taylor at 6:55 p.m. on Sunday of last week, that the last time she could account for her license plate being on her 1963 Ford Staton wagon was at 7 p.m. the day before, when it was parked at the above address. The car was driven to the complainant's place of employment on this date and was parked on Exeter Circle. She did not notice if the missing plate was on the car when she left for work. The stolen plate's number is YB-8471. It is valued at $11.

STUDENT REPORTS THEFT

Jackie Kendrick, 205 Estey Hall, Shaw University, reported to Officers J. E. Pierce and O. C. Pratt at 3:51 p.m. Friday, that several items of his clothing were removed from a trunk, located on the same floor where he lives. It was pried open with an unknown tool. Missing were two sweaters, hand-knitted, blue and green, valued at $75; one brown turtle neck sweater, $25; and one black turtle neck sweater, also said by the complainant to be worth $25. The trunk was taken to the City-County Identification Bureau to be checked for fingerprints. Damage to the trunk was set at $3. The incident occurred after 1:30 p.m. Friday.

MORE LARCENY AT SHAW

Horace Small, A-15 Washington Terrace, Shaw counselor, reported to Officers J. C. King and R. F. Perry at 4:16 p.m. Saturday of last week, that at approximately 2 p.m. on March 1, someone entered 402 Estey Hall and stole a small tape recorder, the property of Henry Bush, and valued at $40. Also taken at the same time was a black London Fog overcoat, valued at $50.

NAB CIGARETTE THIEF

Officer John R. Stout arrested Otha N. Herndon, 62, of Garner, Route 2, at 5:18 p.m. Saturday and charged him with larceny after a carton of Pall Mall cigarettes was reportedly taken from the A&P Food Store, 201 E. Hargett Street, by Mr. Herndon. The cigarettes were valued at $2.10. Herndon's bond was set at $50.

INCOME TAX CHECK STOLEN

Hamp Henry Burden, 567 New Bern Avenue, reported to the police department at 1 p.m. Friday, that someone had stolen his $75 income tax refund check. He stated that he placed the check in the bookcase section at the head of his mother's bed on last Wednesday and it was missing the next day.

THIEF GRABS LOOT

Mrs. Johnnie Deham Sherman, 401 Bledsoe Avenue, reported to "the law" at 11:11 p.m. Friday, that she left her home at approximately 6:45 p.m. Friday and returned about 11 p.m. to find the entire house had been ransacked. Drawers had been opened and the contents thrown onto the floor. Two bedrooms and the den were "messed up." A large jewelry box was taken out of the front bedroom and a small box had been emptied. A pillow case the bed was used to haul the jewelry.

The large jewelry box contained the following items: One ladies Bulova yellow gold watch, $75; two French bracelets, yellow gold, $25; one small ladies yellow gold watch $20; and other assorted jewelry, $100. Also stolen were twelve long-sleeve men's white dress shirts, $70;

Miss Williams Is Teller At Norlina Bank

RECEIVES PLAQUE FOR WORK - Miss Joyce Davis, a 9th grade English teacher at Carnegie Junior High School, received a beautifully engraved plaque for training the three boys in an oratorical contest, in which each boy received an award for the excellent rendition of their oration. The boys who took part were Mel Tomlinson, Henry Muldrow and Claude Lee. The Breakfast Optimist Club of Raleigh made the presentation to Miss Davis.

NORLINA - A Washington, D. C. woman has accepted a position as teller with the Peoples' Bank and Trust Company of Norlina. She is the first Negro to be employed in this position in a Warren County Bank.

Miss Sondra Elaine Williams began her new duties with the Norlina bank recently. The 26-year-old woman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Williams, Jr. of Warrenton.

She is a graduate of McKinley High School in Washington, D. C. and attended Elizabeth City State College, St. Augustine's College in Raleigh and Temple Business School in Washington, D. C. She also attended the School of Music at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D. C. Prior to accepting a position with the Norlina Bank, Miss Williams was employed by the Navy Department in Washington for two years as a clerk in the classified division. She was also formerly employed by the Julius Garfinkel and Co. Department Store in Washington as a sales clerk and with the Veterans Administration Hospital in Washington as a nursing assistant.

Miss Williams' hobbies are playing the piano and organ and directing choirs for churches in her spare time.

Plans Forum

Household Assistance, Inc. is sponsoring a forum to give the Raleigh community an opportunity to take a new look at the requirements of household service. Come and share in a discussion with household employees and employers on Tuesday, March 18, at 8 p.m. at the Public Service Company, 1720 Hillsboro Street, Raleigh.
