Family Fitness Council Every day we hear and read recommendations and advice about the necessity to exercise.

Just recently a medical research team reported that exercise circulates cholesterol in the body; this is beneficial to the heart.

in other words, fitness through exercise is a simple, precautionary and urgent health measure.

Furthermore, a daily personal exercise plan produces a vitality, a joy and more full participation in life. The feeling of 'aliveness" that accompanies a supple, energetic and trim body has been called "a quality that enhances all other human qualities." It provides that extra "oomph" to partake fully of daily, 20th Century activities.

Exercising need not be a big production. A 10 to 15 minute daily program is all we're talking about for both women and men. And, do it in your own home, for convenience and ease.

Scientific equipment once available only in health clubs and salons is now designed and scaled for home use. You can find it in full-line department stores, such as

Once your mind and body become accustomed to the benefits of a daily exercise routine, you'll be amazed how much better you feel and how much you'l'miss the regime on the occasional day

Dinners With Happy Endings One of the most important elements of a dinner party menu is the dessert. You can serve the most exotic entree, but if it's followed by a selec-tion of "just desserts", the final effect is anti-climactic. Dazzling Pudding Desserts

After preparing a complete meal, no one feels like baking a cake. And few guests feel like eating any. A gourmet meal calls for a light ending. For desserts that take the cakeout of party menus-think pudding, and dream up daz-zling, delicious ideas.

Creaminess Is Key

Recent studies have shown that most people rate creamy desserts high on the list of dessert preferences. Creamy pudding desserts are sure to please if you make them eye-appealing. For a pudding dessert that's creamy as the cream on top, choose a super-creamy chocolate cream pie made with a graham-cracker crust, rich packaged chocolate nut pud-ding filling and dollops of whipped cream on top. Or, swirl creamy My-T-Fine vanilla pud ding through chocolate nut pudding and serve in sparkling

(1) parfait glasses topped with whipped cream. Bits of canned or fresh fruit layered with creamy pudding also make exciting fare. Keep a variety of packaged regular and instant pudding flavors on your shelves so you can cook up, or whip up, creamy treats for quick snacks as well as happy meal-endings.

SITE OF NEW YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION BUILDING-The Y. W. C. A. is beginning work on its new home in the 500 block of East Hargett St. It is hoped that the new facility will be completed and ready for occupancy by late summer. The new facility will have adequate space for club and group meetings, classes and other activities. There will be a large multi-purpose room for banquets, dinners, games etc. This photo shows the Special Building Committee with Cy McGhee, the contractor background looking over new materials on the site. #### Segregated

CHICAGO - Four fifths of the nation's population lives in racially segregated areas, according to a report compiled by the National Opinion Research center at the University of Chicago. As of spring 1967, the report said, 36-million Americans -- or almost one-fifth of the nation -- lived in intergrated neighborhoods. Such areas were defined as communities where "both whites and Negroes can move and are moving into the area" and where their housing is of comparable quality.

Hearty Homemade Soup

Use the last small bit of left over turkey carcass in home made Cream of Turkey Soun To make broth, cook the car cass and any skins and bits of dressing several hours in well seasoned water, then strain.

Cream of Turkey Soup

1/3 cup margarine 21/2 tablespoons corn starch

1/4 teaspoon pepper

3 cups turkey broth 2 cups milk

1 cup chopped, cooked turkey Salt

Parsley, optional Melt margarine in a large saucepan Add corn starch and pepper; blend well. Remove from heat, gradually add turkey broth and milk, mixing until smooth. Serve immediately or keep hot over steam. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE At 5:15 this morning you speed to the lakeside country home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hughes, where you find the elderly financier in a state of great emotional upset. On the living room floor lies the body of his beautiful young wife, a bullet hole in her chest. On the mantel over the huge fireplace rests a clock, its glass shattered, the hands of the clock stopped at 10:35.

'I arrived here this morning at about 5:00," exclaims Hughes. "I found Kathy lying here . . .dead! Must have been one of her jealous host of admirers. As you can see, I'm many years older than she was . . . and she did have a wandering eye when it came to other men. Our maid back at our town apartment will probably tell you, too, that Kathy and I had a little argument yesterday afternoon . . . one of many. So I might as well give you the whole story now.

"Kathy became more incensed than usual during our little tiff . . . finally threw some of her things into a bag and said she was coming here to our country place to think things over. I was unable to sleep at the apartment . . . finally at about 4:00 a. m. I got out of bed and drove here, only to find poor Kathy shot to death. Horrible!"

You nod thoughtfully as you gaze out the window into the gray and bleak early morning. "Looks like more rain in the offing." you comment abstractly. "Quite a heavy rain we had last night around here until it finally stopped around midnight."

"That so?" says Hughes absent-mindedly. "We had some rain in town yesterday afternoon, but there wasn't a drop of rain when I drove here early this morning."

You watch as some of the police technicians now arrive with their miscellany of photographic and fingerprinting equipment, then you ask Hughes if you might ride with him in his car back to town. As you step outside the house, it begins to rain again and you both hurry to the shelter of Hughes' car. Then as he starts the engine and the windshield wipers immediately begin their rhythmic sweeps back and forth over the glass, you put a restraining hand on Hughes' right arm. "Just a second,"

As he darts a questioning look at you, you add, "I think we'll go to headquarters for some real intensive questioning on this

Why are you suspicious of Willard Hughes? SOLUTION

You saw his windshield wipers begin operating as soon as his engine started, evidence that they were on when the car was previously used. If he had really driven to his country home in the early morning, as he claimed -- when there was no rain -- the wipers would not have been on. You therefore suspect that he drove through the rain of the previous night, killed his wife, and then wait until early morning to phone you.
