

Cumberland Community Action Program

The CCAP Board met Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in the Superior Court room of the Cumberland County Courthouse. The Board received and acted on the following recommendations from the low-income board members and the presidents of the Neighborhood Councils:

1. That the career ladder be adopted and that the Incentive Grant Coordinator's salary position be abolished and two non-professional positions be created, not included in the grant.
2. That the Assistant Director of Neighborhood Services assume the responsibilities of the Incentive Grant Coordinator.
3. That Consumer's Education Coordinator begin working in the interest of developing Day Care Centers in addition to other work.
4. That the staff include in CCAP provisions to teach music to low-income persons.
5. That Neighborhood Services Director's salary be brought in line with other component heads or supervisor's such as VISTA's and Child Development, and that the salary of the Assistant Director, and the Community Organization Coordinator be increased 10%.
6. That the Personnel Policies and Procedures be revised and that the hiring of staff be reinstated to the board of directors.
7. That all elected board members and PAC members be granted mileage and allowances.

Item number six was voted down by the board and there were minor changes in numbers one and five, but the list will be submitted with the recommendations by the board as acted upon.

The board voted to accept with regret, Mr. John E. Murray's resignation as Executive Director of CCAP, Inc. effective April 1, 1969.

CCAP, Inc. Board Members also voted approval of four incentive grants subject to the approval of OEO: A grant to Wilkes Road Area, Jackson Terrace, and Highway No. 87 for water service to that area, $4,200; a grant to Wilkes Road Area (lower part) for water service, $4,200.

A grant to the Long Hill-Linden Branch of the NAACP for legal aid to low-income persons of Cumberland County, $4,999; a grant to South Racepath Street Neighborhood Council for a community Recreation Center.

The board appointed a committee to study the by-laws and Personnel Policies and Procedures of CCAP as directed by OEO Evaluation Team.

CREDIT UNION
The C-CAP Credit Union is holding its annual meeting Monday, March 31, in the city court room at 7:30 p.m. An annual report will be given and two board members elected.

The Credit Union has total assets of $19,129,36, $18,115,38 in shares and made $33,681.00 in loans since it began. Now you can see why it is wise to support your Credit Union.

Fayetteville Links Given Many Honors

FAYETTEVILLE - Members of the Fayetteville Chapter of Links, Inc. cheered, as Mrs. A. J. Pindle, president, received for the chapter the "Most Cooperative Chapter Award", at the Southern Area Meeting, March 14-16, in Charlotte.

The Fayetteville Chapter members were further elated when the Southern Area Songbook was dedicated to one of its members, Mrs. C. L. Easley. Fayetteville Links attending the Charlotte meeting were: Mesdames A. J. Pindle, C. Easley, W. M. Hinson, D. W. Bishop, W. E. Lane, L. A. Mitchell, S. L. Reeder, S. Rodger, O. Uzzell, and H. W. Vick.

On Sunday, March 23, at the Downtowner Motor Inn, Azalea Room, the chapter met to evaluate its program of "Service Unlimited" to senior citizens; to finalize plans for the Charn School for teenagers, and to seek ways of rendering more service in the community. The highlight of the meeting was a panel discussion entitled,

AKA'S IN FAYETTEVILLE INDUCT SIX -

In a recent ceremony, six new members were added to the membership of the Zeta Pi Omega Graduate Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. The affair was held in the Recreation Room, Smith Hall, Fayetteville State College. Prior to the initiation rituals, the candidates presented a skit which depicted the club activities and it also served as a culminating activity for the group. Conducting the initiation ritual was the Basileus, Mrs. Calvin Daniels, with the assistance of Mrs. Melba King and Mrs. Jean Smith. New members received pink rose corsages, the sorority flower, sorority pins and gifts. Members were joined later in the evening by their husbands for a social hour. Pictured left to right, front row are new Sorors Mrs. Helen Farmer and Mrs. Carrie Garner. Mrs. Francis Hunter row are new Sorors Mrs. Helen Farmer and Mrs. Frances Hunter. Back row, left to right, are: Miss Pearlle Bolles, Mrs. Carrie Garner, Mrs. Ellery Donahue and Mrs. Teresa Berrien.

"Saying Your Thing", presented by students from E. E. Smith Senior High School.

Buy U.S. Savings Bonds new Freedom Shares

Marion George Enters Fayetteville's Race

FAYETTEVILLE - Several hundred persons turned out Sunday afternoon to witness and participate in a kick-off rally for Marion C. George's candidacy for the City Council. The meeting had been widely publicized during the week and the Evans Memorial A. M. E. Zion Church was filled when the program started at 4:00 p.m. The principal speaker for the occasion was the Honorable Henry E. Frye, D-Guilford, a member of the House of Representatives of the North Carolina General Assembly. Other speakers included Mr. Felton Capel, Mayor Pro Tem of Southern Pines, North Carolina and the local City Council candidate Marion C. George. Brief remarks were also made by the Rev. A. J. Johnson, Perry Leazer, Rev. Warren Coachman, J. A. Hollingsworth and Rev. C. T. Williams. The program was presided over by Mrs. Inez Easley, and the Rev. Dr. C. R. Edwards.

MARION C. GEORGE

Attorney Frye, who had been a student of Attorney Marion C. George, while the latter served as a professor at A&T State University several years ago, lauded the candidate as an honest, highly qualified man of integrity. He highly praised the group for having selected such a person for their endorsement.

Both Attorney Frye and Mr. Capel pointed out that North Carolina has less elected officials of any southern state. They went on in different ways to point out the need and advantages of having black representatives in elected offices.

Attorney Frye, after having traced the legislative history of black representatives in the General Assembly for more than 70 years went on to point out the advantages of such representatives and to suggest ways and means of achieving it. Attorney George, after pointing out the great responsibilities of his candidate, but will work for the benefit of all. The audience gave him a standing ovation after his brief remarks.

Next Week In Fayetteville

- Mar. 26 - Kindah Court No. 43, Daughters of Isis, 8 p.m., Wednesday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St.
- Mar. 26 - Kindah Temple No. 62, AEAONMS, 8 p.m., Wednesday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St.
- Mar. 27 - Electa Chapter No. 627, OES, 3 p.m., Thursday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St.
- Mar. 27 - Savannah Lodge No. 407, 8 p.m., Thursday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St., work in 2nd degree.
- Mar. 29 - Edward Evans Consistory No. 196, AASR, PHA, 1 p.m., Saturday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St., advancements to 32nd degree (Class II-69).
- Mar. 30 - Black Unity Council, 8 p.m., Sunday, Evans Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church.
- Apr. 1 - Young Men's Social Club, 8 p.m., Tuesday, Cape Fear Gardens Recreation Center, Old Wilmington Rd.
- Apr. 1 - Silver Square Lodge No. 791, 8 p.m., Tuesday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St.
- Apr. 3 - Edward Evans Consistory No. 196, AASR, PHA, 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St., Maundy Thursday Services.
- Apr. 3 - Newton Oddfellows, 8 p.m., Thursday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St.

MULTI - MILLION DOLLAR "MINORITY ENTERPRISE" - Birmingham, Alabama

Mayor George G. Seibels, Jr., (left) and businessman - philanthropist Dr. A. G. Gaston discuss opening of Gaston's new Citizens Federal Savings & Loan Association Building held last week in downtown Birmingham. Citizens Federal, with assets of $9.8 million, is a totally Negro-owned and managed association formed in 1957 to provide home mortgages to "less affluent citizens of Birmingham" - black and white. Dr. Gaston, owner of six other businesses in Birmingham with total assets estimated at $20 million, said "Our new building is a symbol of Negro achievement." (See story).

- Apr. 4 - Queen Esther Chapter No. 3, OES, 7 p.m., Friday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St.
 - Apr. 5 - Sign of Joy, 2 p.m., Saturday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St.
 - Apr. 6 - Edward Evans Consistory No. 196, AASR, PHA, 5:30 a.m. Sunday, Fayetteville State College Athletic Field.
- Sixth Annual Outdoor Easter Sunrise Service.
Organizations and groups wishing to post notices in this column may do so by calling Fayetteville 488-5386 by noon on Mondays for publication on the following Wednesday.
Deadline for Fayetteville area news is 12 noon on Mondays.

Easter Fashion Parade!

Marching out a Lively Band of Softly Feminine Looks

Layne's new collection of fashions break the ice between you and the glow of springtime, in tones and shades you'll welcome warmly. The story is one of gaiety, color and well spoken lines. This is your chance to herald the coming of Easter. Come in and enjoy the exhilaration of selecting your wardrobe from the absolute cream of the crop.

Choose from...

- COATS • SUITS • COSTUMES
- DRESSES • COORDINATES
- SKIRTS • BLOUSES
- LINGERIE • FOUNDATIONS
- HOSIERY • MILLINERY

When we buy for our customers... our selections are based on style and design to conform suitably to figure variations. Fashion knowledge and years of experience make this possible.

Remember... we specialize in clothing sizes to fit all women...

- Misses Sizes 8-20 • Tall Sizes 8-26
- Half Sizes 12½-32½ • Women's Sizes 38-60
- 30" to 40" Waist Sizes

Layne's INC.
QUALITY FASHION APPAREL
114 Hay Street
Downtown Fayetteville

Use your bank charge card or Layne's charge account.

