Deb Ball Held At Cooper High School

CLAYTON - With organ music playing softly in the background, sixteen debutantes and fifteen sub-debutantes were introduced to society under the auspices of the Parnal Nons Club on Friday night, March 27. Adding more color to the background in the Cooper school gymnasium of flowers and greenery, the sub-debutantes bedecked the scenery with beautiful dresses in pastel colors. They wore shoes to match along with gloves and small pearls.

The debutantes, representing poise and dignity, appeared in soft white gowns; and the pink and green bouquets that they held added even more color to the scenery.

Acting as Mistress of Ceremonies was Mrs. Rosa Watson. She first recognized all former debs, parents, and members of the Parnal Nons Club. At this point, the mascots, who were little Anthony Wall and Debra Davis, were introduced. They carried pillows bearing the queens' crowns.

Sub-debutantes introduced were Elk Adams, Linda Barnes, Betty Clark, Ruby Holder, Keturah Kirby, Kathy McCullers, Rose O'Neal, Hilda Rowland, Barbara Sanders, Doris Smith, Rose Taylor, Janice Watson, Ella Whitley, Linda Wilkerson, and Margaret Williams.

Horace Layton Paul, Jr., R. 4, Lumberton, a second year student in civil engineering technology at Holding Technical Institute, was presented the $500.00 Dickerson Scholarship Monday in ceremonies held at noon at the Institute. Henry West, Director of Personnel for Dickerson, Inc., made the presentation and Robert W. LeMay, President, and Robert I. Brown, Dean of Students, at Holding Tech. also participated in the ceremony.

The scholarship is the first to be given by Dickerson, Inc., and is presented to a student who is "co-opting" with the company, and Dickerson hopes that it will become an annual award. The scholarship amounts to a full tuition, books, fees, and other academic expenses scholarship for the recipient who is chosen by Dickerson on the basis of job performance, academic achievement, and possible need. Paul was chosen from a group of five students "co-opting" with Dickerson during the winter quarter.

THE GOSPEL WORLD

BY JAMES THOMAS

Hi there! Here we are again in the Gospel World after a very beautiful weekend and lots of wonderful programs.

The Cross Family had a successful anniversary, and the building was filled to capacity. I guess I was as happy as they because it was their first one, and it was a beautiful day.

THOMAS

Reports from the Gospelaires and the Golden Bells are that they had a safe trip and a successful program at the Holy Tabernacle Church of Jesus Christ in Danville, Va.

The Capital City P.T.E. and the Voices of Harmony program was a great success at the McKoy's Chapel Church, near Coats. All of these programs were held on Sunday, March 23.

Most of the groups this weekend will combine to form one big program which will be held at the Fuquay Consolidated School Sunday, March 30, at 3 p.m. Appearing will be the Divine Travelers, the Gospel Jubilee Singers, the Gospelaires, the Silver Echoes, the Macedonia Four, the Capital City Five, the Evening Five, the Sons of Calvary, Sister Jessie Peacock, the Gospel All-Stars, Leonard Wilson, the Gospel Tones and the Pearly Gates.

The Union meeting will be held at the McCoy's Grove Holiness Church Sunday, March 30, Dinner will be served. Speaking will be a preacher from Newark, N. J., at 3 p.m. Rev. Walter Stewart will preach at the Holly Springs United Church of Christ Friday night, March 28. Prayer service will follow. It will be sponsored by the Missionary Sisters.

The Gospelaires of Raleigh are sponsoring an appreciation program for Bro. Wilbert Thorpe, which will be held Sunday night, March 30, at 7:30 at the Mt. Sinai Holy Church, with a host of groups scheduled.

I really appreciate the way that everyone is responding to Mr. Robert McClain. We are still collecting clothing and donations. You may still take them by the Brown's Barber Shop in Fuquay - Varina.

Until next week, here is our thought: "Our gracious Father, grant us wisdom to see that only through consecration to the Master will we live life to its fullest. Bestow upon us the realization that sin punishes."
