Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

Dear God, our Father, we thank Thee for the promise of Thy presence in hours of tribulation. We need not fear what the future holds for us for Christ is always at our side, no matter how large or small the temptation with His help we shall overcome. Forgive us, dear God, when our words have condemned us. Help us to use our tongues for Thy glory. We earnestly repent of our sins of thought, word and deed and plead for Thy mercy for the sake of Jesus, whose blood was shed for the remission of sins. Our Father, help us to see that above and beyond all storms of life, yes, even in their midst, we have a safe haven at the foot of the Cross. Give us strength and courage for the present faith and hope for the future. Sustain us by Thy grace and direct us by Thy Spirit and help us to remember, dear God, by whose Almighty power Thy beloved Son, Jesus Christ, was raised from the dead. Help us to experience the risen Christ in our hearts. We would see life with His eyes ponder all things with His mind, minister with His heart, in Jesus' name, we pray, Amen.

Eastside Reminders

The Lenten season has brought forth beautiful services from the various churches, as pastors of and denominations have portrayed the meaning of the Lenten season. Sermons and music have been beautiful, as we join in the two thousand year old celebration.

Rev. Richard Woodward brought an inspirational message to the congregation of Davis Street United Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. Rev. Woodward is from Durham. The music was beautiful in keeping with Palm Sunday and the organist, Mrs. Mary Carter and chorister, Mr. D. H. Keck, were in charge.

Many of us travelled Friday evening, March 26 at 8 p.m. with the Interdenominational Ministers' Wives Alliance to Spring Hope where Founders' Day celebration was so well carried out. The president, Mrs. L. P. Perry, presided. The evening began with the singing of "Love Lifted Me." Mrs. M. B. Sapp read the 13th chapter of I Corinthians; Mrs. P. H. Johnson gave tribute to the founder, Mrs. A. B. Johnson, who gave a response.

Miss Arcella M. Spiring of Spring Hope, gave messages of welcome and information at different intervals during the evening.

Pete's Pickin'
BY W. A. "PETE" WILDER
I saw my good friend, Miss Susie Smith, last Friday. She told me that her two brothers, Harry and Hubert, were scheduled to arrive in Raleigh on Thursday. It will really be nice to see them. Hubert was a seatmate of mine when I attended Crosby-Garfield School. Well, I should say that Mrs. Alice C. Jones was our teacher. Another member of that class was David "King" Greene, who now operates "King" Greene Cleaners. At that time, King was the ringleader of the "Dirty Moore Gang." Three other members stand out in my memory: Alexander "Nunnie" Daniels, who was one of the first to fall in the southwest Pacific; Will Barrett and Joe Privette.

Sunday was a pretty rushy day for me, but I had a lot of fun on the schedule. I attended the Sunday School opening at St. Paul A.M.E. Church; attended the class discussion at Tupper Memorial, attended the worship service at Tupper and enjoyed a masterful sermon - "Cheers For The King-Tears For The City," by the Rev. Leatha Debnam. Stopped by St. Matthew A.M.E. Church on my way home. Attended Good Hope Baptist Church at 5 p.m. in observance of the junior choir's third anniversary. Certainly, every junior choir I have heard rated an orchid. Hustling back, I stopped at the home of Deacon Sylvester Scott, 1100 Gregg St. Deacon Scott wasn't doing too well. He had reasons to smile, however. His daughter, Mrs. Louise Hinton Lynch, had come home Sunday.

At 7:30 p.m., the Rev. J. D. Lockley, pastor of St. Matthew Baptist Church, accompanied by his choir, held forth at Maple Temple United Christian Church at the corner of E. Martin at Camden Sts. I could not stop my "wanderings" so I finally found myself at the Elks' Club. Exalted Ruler Julius R. Hayward, "Bear" Wilder, Louis Dunbar, "Kid" Sparrow and perhaps two or three more were about all there. I hurried down to Earl Dunston's Texaco Service and found Earl and Robert Hodge enjoying conversation. Well folks, wood, "Community Action"; Mrs. Betty Doak, "The League Of Women Voters"; Miss L. M. Latham, "See The World - Increase Your Understanding While Having Fun."

All panelists covered their subject adequately and further enriched our knowledge and understanding during the question and answer prelude. Persons attending represented the following places: Carthage, Durham, Pinehurst, Raleigh and Weldon.

Panelists were: C. J. Barber, "The ESEA Program"; Dr. J. T. Taylor, "The Good Neighbor Program"; Lorenzo Hay-

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Can your hair be damaged from brushing, alone?

All hair becomes damaged from exposure to sun and natural elements. Certain greasy compounds and many chemicals, improperly used, also take their toll... not to mention simple attempts at beautifying the hair with any brush not made of natural bristles. The results are brittleness, breakage, dry and dull looking hair.

Your professional beautician knows how artificial bristles actually brush away a great deal of the "lubricants" of the hair that give it body, lustre and protection. And trained beauticians claim that nothing beats Clairol® condition* Beauty Pack Treatment for overcoming brittleness, dryness and breakage... leaving hair lively and easy to manage. condition* is an easy-to-work-with creme which can even be applied during a chemical straightening retouch to prevent drying of hair that has been previously relaxed. condition* is the ultimate in repairing deep-down damage. And, when time is a factor for their customers, hairdressers turn to new Clairol® Hair Dew - the lotion conditioner that penetrates so fast many think of it as an instant conditioner. When applied regularly by your beautician, Clairol Hair Dew adds body, softens and gives a glowing new look to your hair that many friends will notice and admire.

Damage can come from using brushes with artificial bristles. But damage to every woman's hair comes from so many other causes that all human hair (including wigs) needs to be revitalized periodically. Visit your professional beautician and ask this expert to check the condition of your hair.
