APEX - This being the 5th Sunday, the Male and Gospel Choruses of First Baptist were on duty for the devotion during the 11 o'clock worship service. Mrs. Lottie B. Page was soloist. She sang beautifully "It Is No Secret" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. E. H. Williams.

The pastor Rev. J. E. Perkins, delivered an interesting sermon. His text was taken from the Book of Luke 19:41 using for his subject, "Jesus Wept." We were most happy to have among our worshippers, Mr. P. A. Williams of Durham. Although

MRS. COLVIN he lives in Durham, he is still our Mr. Williams, former principal of our school. Mrs. Mildred Wiggins and Mrs. Christine Wiggins of Raleigh, both members of St. Matthew Baptist Church, Andre, Lemuel, and Marcellus Johnson all of Goldsboro Chapel and Mrs. Clarice Atwater and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Grinsley also visited. We are always happy to see the students who are away in college come to church. Miss Gayle Thorpe is a freshman of NC College at Durham and gets the chance to come home often. We always welcome friends and visitors to worship with us. We were so thankful that Mrs. Minder Mangum was able to attend the service. We ask your prayers for all of our sick.

Mrs. Lena McCoy is in Apex Branch Hospital, Mrs. Mollie Scott, McCain Hospital; Mr. G. G. Lett, was in the hospital, but has returned home. Mrs. Sadie Thompson, Knollwood Manor; and Mrs. Connie Beckwith, at home.

Sunrise meeting will be held at First Baptist Sunday from 6-7 o'clock a.m. We invite our many friends to attend. Sunday at 7:30 p.m. the annual Easter program will be presented at First Baptist. The chairman is Mrs. Francis Marrow.

Easter Monday at 9:00 a.m., the annual Easter Egg Hunt will be held at First Baptist.

Friends have been liberal in giving eggs and all children of the community are invited to attend.

Sunday at 7:30 p.m., Rev. A. M. Wiggins, of Clayton, and his choir and congregation rendered service at First Baptist. Rev. Wiggins' text was taken from the Book of Luke 23:18 using as his subject, "Rejected Christ." Our Male and Gospel Choruses also participated on the program. The sponsors of the program were the Deacon and Deaconess Board.

Feltonville

BY MRS. MARY MOSS

Felton Grove Sunday School was opened at 10 a.m. with the devotional service. The subject of the lesson was, "Jesus Rejected And Crucified." The lesson was read and explained well.

There will be a Sunrise meeting held at Felton Grove Church Easter Sunday morning. All are invited to come and worship with us. From April 13 through 18, there will be a drive at Felton Grove Church each night and a different speaker nightly. The proceeds will be for the building fund of the church.

The sick and shut-ins are Mrs. Renna Baker, Mr. Percoll, Rev. H. R. Smith and Mr. Cozart.

Mr. Walter Hayes and family of Chapel Hill visited Mrs. Estelle Cozart Sunday. Mrs. Evelyn Moss visited Mrs. Earnest T. McNeil of Greenlevel.

Mrs. Marguerite Brailsford and children, Mrs. Janice Moss and baby, Mrs. Delores Smith and son, Miss Catherine Moss and Mr. Jonah Cozart, visited

Angier News

BY MRS. POLLY TAYLOR

ANGIER - The Raleigh District AME Zion Church sponsored its first Christian Education Day meeting for this conference year at Kesler Temple Church in Henderson Sunday, March 30. It was well attended by the members of the district. Rev. J. W. Britt was the host pastor and Rev. E. H. Beebe is the presiding elder.

The morning services began at 11 o'clock with Mr. Rembert Ford, Jr., adult director in charge of the adult session. An interesting panel on Christian Education in the Home, School and Church was discussed by the following persons: the home, Mrs. A. L. Parham; the school, Mrs. Nia Ford and the church by Miss R. M. Ford.

The Christian education message was delivered by Rev. J. W. Britt, pastor of the church, which was in keeping with the Christian Education program and Palm Sunday. The subject was "The Ideal King Comes To the Capital."

The services were attended by adults, youth and children from throughout the district.

The evening program, directed by Mrs. Polly Taylor, comprised music, orientation, lectures and demonstrations by the youth and children, under the supervision of the directors, Mrs. Willa D. Harris and Mrs. Christine Evans.

Attendance banners were presented by Mrs. Ethel P. Williams. They were presented to Kesler Temple Church for the three departments: adult, youth and children.

The pastor and members of Kesler Temple were very hospitable in entertaining this meeting of which the Raleigh District is grateful.

We are also proud of the attendance and cooperation of the youth and other personnel of the district.

There will be services held at Cutts Chapel Freewill Baptist Church Friday night at 7:30 April 4. Rev. R. J. Avery will preside.

Sunrise service Easter Sunday will be held. Sunday School opens at 10 a.m. and regular worship services will commence at 11.

The Home Mission will sponsor a program at 3:30 p.m. Rev. McCallister will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Hollie Talton is sponsor. The public is friends in Creedmoore, Butler Durham and Northside Sunday.

Our special people are Mrs. Alice Watkins, Mr. Vallie Baker, Mrs. Minnie Gainey and Mrs. Ethel Johnson.
