

Music Guild To Present Alma Trio

The Alma Trio, internationally honored for their "peerless" (Sovetskaja Muzyka) performing of works for violin, cello and piano, will play Sunday, April 20, at 8 p.m. at the North Carolina State University Erdahl-Cloyd Union.

The group is composed of Andor Toth, violinist, Gabor Rejto, cellist and Adolph Baller, pianist, each of whom has an independent reputation as a concert artist and in chamber music. It is sponsored here by the Raleigh Chamber Music Guild, taking its name from the Alma Estate of Yehudi Menuhin, where its members first joined, the trio has toured extensively in North America and Europe.

Trios are very different from quartets, notes Baller. "Each part is freer and more like a solo, yet the three solo parts are interlaced in beautiful contrasts and balances. Their program here demonstrates their variety: Brahms' Trio in Major, Opus 8; Prokofiev's Sonata for Violin and Piano in D Major; Beethoven's Sonata for Cello and Piano in A Major, Opus 69 and Schubert's Trio in E Flat, Opus 100.

VSC Choir In Spring Performances

PETERSBURG, Va. - The department of music at Virginia State College has announced that the VSC choir, under the direction of Dr. Eugene T. Simpson, has begun its spring schedule of performances.

The group, after two local performances, is now traveling to northern cities for performances in New York, Cape May, Dover and Camden.

Following the northern tour, the choir will return to Virginia for performances in Suffolk and Charles City. It will hold its annual spring concert on the VSC campus on Sunday, May 4.

According to Dr. Simpson, the choir will perform a varied program of music during its concerts, including Renaissance, Romantic and modern selections.

The choir will conclude its season with its first Negro Heritage Concert to be held at 8 p.m., May 15 in Virginia Hall auditorium. The choir's program will be devoted entirely to the works of Hall Johnson, distinguished Negro composer, and the performance will be available on recording in late June.

VETERAN'S CORNER

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA office.

Q -- The Veterans Administration pays $250 toward the burial expense of deceased eligible veterans. Is this allowance also payable when interment is in a national cemetery where there is no charge for the burial plot?

A -- Yes. The place of burial makes no difference. The $250 allowance is paid toward the total funeral expense.

Q -- My aunt is the widow of a Spanish-American War Veteran. She receives $70 a month pension from the Veterans Administration. However, a friend of hers, who is also a Spanish-American War veteran's widow receives $75 a month from the VA. Why the difference?

A -- The $75 check goes to the widow of a Spanish-American war veteran who was married to the veteran during all or part of that war. The widow, such as your aunt, apparently, who married such a veteran after the war receives the $70 monthly check.

Q -- I was awarded a pension from the Veterans Administration last year. My wife and I are planning to sell our home and move to Florida. Will the profit I receive on the sale of the home affect my pension?

A -- Not directly. Proceeds from the sale of property are not considered income for veterans under the present pension law. However, you are advised to notify VA of the sale because net worth is also a consideration under the pension law in determining pension entitlement. While you live in the home its value is not reported as part of your net worth, but when you convert it to cash, the cash is considered part of your net worth. For further information and assistance in this matter, check with your nearest VA office.
