

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES
THE CRIME BEAT

STABBED ON BLOUNT STREET

Leamon McCall, 201 S. East Street, told Officer R. Stewart at 12:51 a.m. Tuesday, that he was stabbed in the back on the left side, the upper arm and upper arm and upper left chest in the 500 block of S. Blount Street. No suspect was listed on the police report. Healed at Wake Memorial Hospital for his wounds.

CAR WINDOW SMASHED

Mrs. Marjorie Faye Chapman, 1213 Pender Street, reported to Officer R. E. Keeter at 4:43 p.m. Monday, that her 1967 Ford was parked beside her house and was okay when she left it the night before. When she returned to it, however, she discovered that the left front window had been broken. Damage was set at $20.

STEALS TWO TV SETS

Julian A. Denning, employee of McCracken Supply Company, 1500 Old Garner Road, informed Officer M. C. Hamilton at 3:19 p.m. Monday, that a colored male was observed in the area of the warehouse at about the same time that two Motorola television sets turned up "missing."

Denning stated further that the suspect was later seen getting into a 1968 Chevrolet Super Sport, which was also near the warehouse. The man, Denning declared, was wearing tennis shoes and the tracks made by the shoes were followed from the car and led to a stack of television sets in the warehouse. The City-County Identification Bureau was called to photograph the tracks. Both 19-inch TVs were valued at $121.

The suspect was described as being about 20 years of age, 5 feet, 10 inches tall, and weighing about 165 pounds. He wore a yellow shirt, black pants and had "large lips."

TAPE RECORDER "SWIPED"

Felix Douglas Dunn, 14 Chatham Terrace, told Officer Norman Artis at 9:17 a.m. Sunday, that he parked his 1964 Pontiac in the Dare Terrace Parking Lot because he didn't have a State license tag on it. A tape and recorder, valued at $128, had been stolen after his car door had been forced open. The Identification Bureau's technicians were called in to check for fingerprints.

LICENSE TAG "LIFTED"

Mrs. Annie Lee Payne, 213 S. Walker Street, Cary, reported to Officer N. S. Locke at 12:45 p.m. Sunday, that she parked her car beside 608 Dorrothea Drive, and when she came out to drive it the next morning, the 1969 license tag had been stolen from her 1965 Plymouth convertible. The plate number is YE-6463.

HIT BY "DRUNK MAN"

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Wilson, K-28 Washington Terrace, informed Officer J. E. Beasley at 3:30 p.m. Saturday, that John Lawson, 42, same address, came home drunk and they started "fussing," then he struck her. The extent of the woman's injuries was not listed on the report.

BITES MOTHER, DAUGHTER

Mrs. Deborah J. Hines, 3005 Woods Place (Method), reported to Officer R. Stewart at 4:15 a.m. Saturday, that James Daniel Wright, 35, same address, was assaulting her mother and she tried to stop him. At his point, the complainant pointed out, she was bitten by him. The woman suffered abrasions and bruises of the left breast and abrasions on the inside of her arm. Her mother, Mrs. J. E. Sorrell of the 4000 block of S. East Street, told the officer that Wright was engaged in an argument and he bit her on the right hand during a scuffle. She exhibited an abrasion of the hand.

Two warrants, charging

Wright with assault, are being held for his arrest. He apparently "split the scene" before the officer arrived.

CUT AT PARTY

Miss Deborah Faye Edwards, 19, 312 Jamaica Drive, told Officer R. B. Tant at 11:53 p.m. Saturday, that she was at a party in the 500 block of Bragg Street when a colored male started an argument with "the lady of the house." The man tripped and fell into her lap, she said, and the sharp instrument he held in his hand (believed to have been a knife) cut her on the tops of both legs. She suffered three-inch cuts on the upper portion of the legs.

BEATEN ON BRANCH STREET

Mrs. Lottie Bowman Allen, 38, 604 Cumberland Street, informed Officer Freddie L. Benson at 1:33 a.m. Friday, that James Thomas Hamer, 31, 800 block of Manly Street, assaulted her with his hands and fists during a "fuss" at 508 Branch Street. She said she would sign an assault and battery warrant against him later.

Mrs. Allen suffered bruises about the head and face.

SHOT AT ON PORCH

Fred Haywood Carrington, 18, 1317 Branch Street, reported to Officer H. S. Pearce at 4:15 p.m. Thursday, that he and others were on the front porch at 708 E. Jones Street, when a subject shot into the crowd and hit Harrington.

It was brought out that there were three boys at the residence: Dwight Bunch, Greg Bunch and Arthur Hines. Hines was listed as the suspect, but no further information was on the police blotter. The extent of the gunshot wound was not revealed.

Peterson New Alumni President

Sylvester Peterson, coordinator of admissions at Saint Augustine's College, is the newly-elected president of the Raleigh Alumni Chapter of the college. He was elected at the last meeting of the organization, which was held April 16, at the home of Robert Bridges.

'Look Up And Live' To Study Christian Ed. For Ghettoes

Christian education as it pertains to ghetto residents is studied in "Man and the City" on "Look Up and Live" Sunday, May 4 (10:30 - 11:30 a.m., EDT) in color on the CBS Television Network.

NCC To Observe Centenary

DURHAM - North Carolina College will observe the Gandhi Centenary (1969) with an exhibition of Indian books, many about the founder of the Non-violent Protest Movement, in the college library, Monday, May 5, through Friday, May 9.

Also part of the program will be a reception at 8 p.m. in the library, Monday, May 5; a student discussion group and a film presentation at 8 p.m., Tuesday, in the Education Building auditorium; and a show of Indian fashions and costumes at 8 p.m., Wednesday, in the Student Union Building.

The book exhibit, presented by India's Lok-Milap Trust, will be entitled "Discovering India." Some 300 different books will be exhibited, as will collections of Indian art.

Two Shaw Students To Study

Two Shaw students have been accepted by the Harvard - Yale - Columbia Committee to attend the 1969 Intensive Summer Studies Program.

The students, Edwanda Brown, a third year psychology major from Wilmington, and Daniel Malone, a second year Chemistry major from Clayton, will do scholarly study for an eight-week period in their major field of study.

The taped broadcast is an extension of a four-day conference of more than 1,000 Christian educators held last February in Chicago, when the delegates spent two days visiting the city's ghettos in small groups to see firsthand how the poor live.

"Man and the City" shows film of the delegates during their ghetto visits, and a discussion of what they brought to Chicago during the convention and what they learned there.

Participants are the Rev. Earle Ransdale, executive director of the Greater Flint (Mich.) Council of Churches and chairman of the Chicago conference; Archie Hargraves, professor of mission development at Chicago Theological Seminary and conference keynote, and the Rev. Charles Wissink, associate professor at New Brunswick (N. J.) Theological Seminary and conference delegate. Dr. George Crothers is host.

Pamela Hott is executive producer of "Look Up and Live"; a presentation of CBS News, Chalmers Dale produced "Man and the City," and Portman Paget directed.
