APEX - The First Baptist Sunday School was opened at 9:45 a.m. with the superintendent, Mrs. Albert Cotten, presiding. Miss Rosalyn Price is pianist for the School. Ronald Richardson reviewed the lesson from Mrs. Frances Marrow's class. After all classes had re-assembled, Mrs. Lottie Pages' class received the banner for the offering. Mrs. Marrow's section received the banner for the largest attendance. We were happy, indeed, to have some of our members present who had not been with us for some time. Our attendance has increased greatly and this makes the pastor, superintendent and teachers very happy. We urge all parents to send their children to the Sunday School of their choice. Neighboring churches are the United Church of Christ, which is better known as the Christian Home and the Saint Mary's AME Church. All of the church doors are open and will welcome you and your family.

Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock worship service, the senior choir of First Baptist was in charge of the devotion. Mrs. Janet Thorpe sang the pre-message hymn "In the Garden." It was a beautiful rendition. The pastor, Rev. J. E. Perkins, delivered an interesting sermon. His text was taken from the Book of St. John 10:17-18 on the theme "Strange Talk." Visitors are always welcome to worship with us.

Sunday afternoon at 2, the First Baptist Male and Gospel Choruses appeared on the pastor's anniversary of the Smith Temple Church of Raleigh. We returned here to First Baptist where our young adult choir celebrated its 12th anniversary. The Fuquay Gospel Singers, the Daughters of Zion of Holly Springs and our male and gospel choruses rendered the music. Nathaniel Lofton sang the two solos. His performance was just great. Lawrence Marrow and Carol Tabron emceed the program. Mr. Marrow, the president and members of the young adult choir are most grateful to the visitors and members of First Baptist for their fine support.

Woman's Day will be observed this Sunday at 11 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. The women of the church will be in complete charge of the service. We were most fortunate to secure as our Woman's Day speaker, Mrs. Victoria M. Walters of Raleigh. Mrs. Walters was born and reared in this community and has made a great contribution, educationally, to the Virginia schools and to Wake County. We invite you to attend this special service.

Feltonville News

BY MRS. MARY MOSS

FELTONVILLE - The Felton Grove Sunday School opened at 10 o'clock and morning worship services were held at 11. Rev. T. O. Davis, pastor, delivered the sermon. His text was found in St. John 4:29. His theme, "Come And See A Man That Told Me Everything I Have Done." His message was most inspiring. Visitors included Mrs. Alice Petty.

Denounced

NEW YORK - (NPI) - Armed occupation of a Cornell university building has been denounced by Dr. Kenneth B. Clark, noted psychologist. Dr. Clark said the occupation prompted the same feelings of revulsion and sadness that were evoked when policemen in Alabama used cattle prods on civil-rights demonstrators during the early 1960s. "These spectacles must be viewed as serious symptoms of deep disturbances which threaten the foundations of our society," he said, charging that Black and white student protesters' confrontation tactics interfered with the freedom and rights of others.

Our prayers are extended to the sick: Rev. H. R. Smith, Mr. John Lee Cozart, Mr. James Percell and Mrs. Maylene Pearson.

Birthday greeting are wished for Mrs. Hazel Percell and Mr. James Percell.

Mrs. Zollie Moss recently held at shower for Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Smith. It was a delightful affair.

Our special people this week are Mrs. Ida Mae Latimore, Mrs. Pauline Powell and Mrs. Otis L. McClain.

theater at the School of the Arts.

Each program will be different. All dances were choreographed by faculty members except a ballet by Richard Gibson and an excerpt by Jean Perrot.

The new ballets are "Freeway" by Job Sanders, "Fragments" by Pauline Koner and "The Courtship of Miles Standish" by Duncan Noble.

"Freeway" and "Fragments" will be premiere performances. "The Courtship of Miles Standish" was commissioned by the Children's Theater Board for performances for school children here, but this will be the first public performance.

Warning

WASHINGTON - (NPI) - The Nixon administration can "soft-pedal" enforcement of anti-bias job legislation "only at our peril," Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive director, has warned. "All the Presidential encouragement of assistance to Negro entrepreneurs and all the good work of the National Alliance of Businessmen will be only marginally helpful if government is not to have a strongly enforced policy on employment discrimination," he said.

Hold Memorial Services For The Stewarts

BY MRS. A. H. THORPE

APEX - The Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Apex, of which the Rev. T. R. Cole is pastor, was the scene of a very impressive memorial service held on Sunday, May 4 in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, the parents and grandparents of Mrs. Irene S. Marrow and Mrs. Ruth S. Anderson. A gift was presented to the church in their memory of four silver engraved offering plates. A special program was arranged and the following poem expressed their sentiments:

HOME AT LAST

Though faith we understand we're told,

So we trust in God and know there must have been a reason why our loved ones had to go.

A reason that is hidden now, That we'll find someday, that comforts us in showing us it was the kinder way,

We think of our loved one as someone whose work is done,

Whose troubles now are past, entering gladly through that friendly door.

To peace, rest, and love to home at last.
