Holly Springs News

BY BETTY MERRITT

HOLLY SPRINGS - Morning services were held at Douglas Chapel AME Zion Church, where the pastor the Rev. Frank Rush, presided. He chose his text for the morning message from Proverbs 31:1-10: "Who can find a virtuous woman for her price is far above rubies." Rev. Rush used as a theme: "An Ideal Woman." A voluntary junior choir of our community rendered music and were accompanied by Miss Jean Jones. A Mother's Day program was held immediately following morning services.

The Holly Springs Athletic Club had a busy weekend on Saturday afternoon. We played the Raleigh Tigers and we won!

Our school held its first Spring social Thursday night. A nice time was had by all.

Let's remember our sick and shut-in and continue to pray for them.

A THOUGHT

"Be not deceived, God is not marked."

Question-Calling

BUCK HILL FALLS, Pa. - "Black consciousness is calling into question the operation and programs of councils of churches," declared the Rev. Eugene Turner, Black coordinator metropolitan missions, United Presbyterian Church U. S. A. Speaking at a panel discussion during the annual meeting of the U.S. Conference of the World Council of Churches, he said, "Black people of America have gotten hold of something called Black consciousness that refutes white Christianity's relevance to them. This is not to suggest Blacks are turning away from Christ; it is to affirm that God may be using Black consciousness to call His Church back into His fold."
