PALEIGH N C. SATUPDAY MAY 17 1969

UNITED BLACK (CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE) Lood."

Bill Land, a native of New York City is director of community organization for the Committee for Racial Justice, parent body of the United Front Black,

The certificates to be awarded to the honorees Sunday night will read: "BLACK CONGRES-SIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR. We pay tribute to our Black Brother, who because of his undying love for Black people, did voluntarily distinguish himself in our quest for LIBERA-TION.

"It is imperative that all Brothers continue to uphold the dignity of Black Manhood, while serving and protecting the Black Community."

CHURCHMEN (CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

have sustained our churches over the years."

The statement warned that "it is too late to call for propriety and moderation. A radical challenge has been placed before us on the threshold of a summer of unmitigated discontent and crisis. That challenge must be met with an equally radical commitment to undo, as much as we are able, the injustice of the past and to eliminate the injustices of the present."

The statement was adopted May 7 at the Atlanta meeting of the NCBC Board of Directors with 35 black churchmen in attendance. The Rev. Dr. M. L. Wilson, minister of the Convent Avenue Baptist Church in Harlem, is the board chairman. Mr. Forman, who is director of the International Black Appeal for the National Black Economic Development Conference, addressed the meeting.

NC MORTICIAN (CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

ers throughout the state casting a ballot for their choice of a potential office holder. Previously, appointments were goveiner. North Carolina has 1,300 white and 300 Black licensed funeral directors and embalmers.

Kelsey, a product of Salisbury, was educated in the local public schools, at Livingstone College, and entered the embalming field via Cincinnati (Ohio) College of Embalmers. He is owner-manager of the Noble and Kelsey Funeral home, Salisbury; secretary-treasurer, Kelsey Mutual Burial association; president, Piedmont district, N. C. Funeral Directors and Morticians associasociation; and president, Dixie Shores Realty company. In other affiliations, he is a member of Phi Beta Sigma and Upsilon Nu Delta fraternities, Dunbar Lodge No. 55, Knights of Pythians and member, Soldiers Memorial AME Zion Church; Salisbury Recreational commission; Mayor's Committee on Youth Summer employment; Salisbury Chamber of Commerce; advisory committee, Central North Carolina council; and on the board of the Children's Home society of North Carolina. He is married to the former Miss Reba Thomason, and they are parents of two children --Kevin and Kim.

> GOLDEN FRINKS (CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE) declared, "There'll be a hot time in Raleigh this summer if the legislature doesn't say and meet some of our demands." He also said that "Hope and Opportunity City" should have been built-"If not physicallyat least in our minds."

The leader stated that another request for his Tent City was turned down once again Tuesday morning. A City Council session on Monday night of last week failed to take any action ere s made by the board and the He concluded with the statement, "We are going to be in this city for long time to come." City Man

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE) on officers and resisting arrest and put under a bond of $200. Aside from Mr.Lockey's wounds, Officer Ellis said his whistle, valued at $2.50, was broken during the melee.

Griffis is expected to face Judge S. Pretlow Winborne sometime this week.

According to police records. neither Mr. nor Mrs. Griffis had police records prior to tion; past president and board the man assaulting and cursing chairman N. C. Funeral Di- the officers. His present adrectors and Morticians as- dress could not be ascertained by CAROLINIAN press time. Mrs. Griffis was not injured in the affray, although it is believed that Griffis had made threats against her before the officers arrived.

CHAS. EVERS (CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)

major bid of this Twentieth Century for city government posts. Many others qualified as independents and will compete in the general elections off for City Commissioner against whiteopponentsat Clarksdale, and two others won Miss.

Single Black office-seekers advanced to the second primary at Pass Christian, Lexington, Holly Springs and Moss Point, Miss.

Mr. Evers also stated, "This was our first try at the city level. We are not going to win everything in the first goround. This is only the beginning. We're going to run in every race from now on," concluded the new Fayette mayor. A heavy turnout was reported in most of the 250 cities and towns holding primaries. Black candidates ran in about forty municipalities.

CAREER DAY PRINCIPALS AT PHILLIPS HIGH SCHOOL - The consultants who served on the program were; from left to right, front row: Dr. Frank Weaver, Raleigh; Dr. Rose B. Browne, Durham; Attorney Corrad Boddie, Rocky Mount; Mr. A. Peeler, Greensboro; Miss Annie Rich. Raleigh; Mrs. Carolyn Johnson, Raleigh; Mrs. S. A. Gould, Halifax: Mrs. Juanita Powell, Nashville. Second Row: J. E. Batts, principal of Phillips High School; Rev. F. L. Bullock, Enfield; George Matthewthroughout the state on June son, Tarboro, Linwood Sharpe, Raleigh; David Mallette, Raleigh; Rev.

Two Negroes entered the run- W. T. Grimes, Rocky Mount; James Dickens, Wilson; Harold Webb, Raleigh; Russell Rankins, Greensboro; Miss Vivian William, Rocky Mount; Miss Sylvia Hunter, Rocky Mount; Miss Mary Knight, Battleunoff spots at West Point, boro. Third Row: Sgt. C. Littleton and Sgt. C. Daughtry, Rocky Mount; Robert Powell, Raleigh; Mrs. S. K. Sanson, Raleigh; Calvin Hargrove, Tarboro; Curtis E. Bryant, Elizabeth City; Lewis Turner and Lee Hatcher, Rocky Mount; Mrs. Alice Cade, Fayetteville; and Mrs. Ida W. Knight, Phillips School, chairman of the Career Day Committee. (See story).

Mary Alston then tendered praver. The mission offering was lifted as Mrs. Minnie Phillips presided. The general offering was lifted with Mrs. Mary Alston. The offering were consecrated with the singing of a chant and the doxology. The visitors were welcome and introduced, Birthday and general announcement by Mrs. Mary White. Mrs. Salina

ST. AUG.'S "STUDENTS OF THE YEAR" - These Saint Augustine's College students were cited by Mrs. Rebecca C. Weatherford as "Students of the Year." Left to right: Donnell Morris. senior from Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; president of the Student Council; Wilhelmina E. Mack, a junior of Greer, S. C.; and James Kelly, a freshman of Lillington. Also cited, but not on picture was Phyllis Harden, a sophomore of Norfolk, Virginia. The occasion was Student Recognition Day, Thursday, May 8, on the Campus.

Saturday, Prince Hall Masonic day, Mount Olive Methodist Temple, 515 Caswell St. Church, Lumberton, N. C. (Ju-

May 19 - Eureka Lodge No. bilee Day). , 8:00 p.m., Monday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St.

515 Caswell St.

in this column may do so by May 20 - Young Men's Socalling Fayetteville 488-5386 cial Club, 8:00 p.m., Tuesday, by noon on Mondays for publication on the following Wednes-Cape Fear Gardens Recreation Center, Old Wilmington Rd. davs. May 20 - Silver Square Lodge

The whole world is pleased No. 791, 8:00 p.m., Tuesday, when a young man makes a Prince Hall Masonic Temple, success out of his life.

Organizations and groups

wishing to post meeting notices

May 22- Electa Chapter No. FOR REPAIRS 627, OES, 3:00 p.m. Thursday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St. May 22 - Savannah Lodge No. 407, 8:00 p.m., Thursday, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 515 Caswell St. May 25 - Kindah Temple No.

62, AEAONMS, 3:00 p.m. Sun-

TO ANY TV PHONOGRAPH TAPE RECORDER