THE CRIME BEAT

REPORTS ARMED ROBBERY
John Henry Bryant, 1008 Hadley Road, told Officer L. R. Womack at 1:39 a.m. Monday, that he was robbed of $157 in dollar bills, and $593 in 10s, 20s, 50s and change—a total of $750—by a colored male, about 35, at the corner of Garner and Meadowbrook Roads. He said the suspect pulled a .45 automatic pistol and pointed it at him, then took the money by physical force.

AUTOMOBILE DAMAGED
Robert Walter Plummer, 22-30 Bender Drive, informed Officers D. Brinson and C. W. Harris at 9:46 p.m. Monday, that his 1957 Chevrolet was damaged by rocks, thrown from the north side of New Bern Avenue, in the 800 block, Damage to the broken windshield was set at $80.

VIRGINIAN BEATS WOMAN
Officer Ralph Clayborne reported at 4:10 p.m. Sunday, "When I arrived in the 800 block of S. East Street, I observed James Rogers, 46, 2126 Kemper Street, Fairfax, Va., assaulting Mrs. Golden Matilda Cotton, 50, 2146 S. Monroe Street, Arlington, Va., with his hands and fists."

A warrant, charging him with assault on a female, public intoxication and resisting arrest, was signed and he was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail under a bond of $300. Another warrant was signed, charging Mrs. Cotton with public intoxication and she was held under a $25 bond. She suffered bruises on her face.

BRICK, KNIFE USED
George Allen, 512 E. Martin Street, told Officer Ralph Clayborne at 4 p.m. Saturday, that during a "fuss" with Frederick Marshall Quiller, 31, 218 S. East Street, he was assaulted when Quiller threw a brick at him.

The complainant admitted that during the affray, he cut Quiller with a knife. After warrants were signed, both men were arrested on charges of engaging in an affray where deadly weapons were used.

ROCK STRIKES WOMAN
Mrs. Lemelle Upchurch, 52, 31 McKee Street, reported to Officers Glenn Westbrook and B. W. Peoples at 9:15 p.m. Saturday, that she was on her front porch when someone, "who lives next door, toward Manly Street," threw a brick and hit her in the head. The woman said she didn't know the person's name. She was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital for a three-inch cut on the left side of her head. Lonnie Upchurch, same address, was listed as a witness to the incident.

SAYS MAID "SLICED" HIM
Solomon Brown, Jr., 27, Room 225, Peebles Hotel, 122 E. Hargett Street, informed Officer J. E. Beasley at 1:14 p.m. Sunday, that he met a

"Miss Ling, a maid at the hotel," in the hall and she cut him with a knife "for no apparent reason." He exhibited a laceration on the right cheek, but refused to sign an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against "Miss Ling."

STORM DOOR DAMEAGED
Alvester Perry, 705 E. Lenior Street, reported to Officer R. H. Phillips, Jr., at 3:10 p.m. Friday, that he arrived home that afternoon and found the window in his storm door had been broken out and the glass had fallen on the outside of the door. Perry said he also discovered that his wooden front door had been opened, but there were no marks of forcible entry on either the front or rear doors. He was unable to determine if anything was missing at the time. Damage to the door glass was estimated to be $10.

THIEF 'STRIPS' HOME
Mrs. Deborah Harris Sanders, 1724 Proctor Road, told Officer K. N. Privette at 6:45 p.m. Monday, May 5, that she had moved part of her furniture into the above location and when she checked on it on that date, everything was there. However, she reported she had been living at her mother's home, and when she again checked, the new residence, she found that one table lamp, gold in color, valued at $20; one set of bedroom curtains, valued at $18; one large table lamp, $40; and one picture frame mirror, $46, had been stolen. Damage to the screen leading to the bedroom, was placed at $5.

ROOMER FACES RAP
Mrs. Gussie Boykin, 324 S. Tarboro Road, reported to Officer N. S. Lockey at 5:50 p.m. Friday, that a roomer at her house struck the glass in the front door and the glass in a dresser mirror in the front hall with an axe.

The complainant signed a damage to property warrant and Mrs. Alice Mae Rogers, 57, the roomer, was arrested at 7:15 p.m. Damages were listed as $20 to the front door glass, and $25 to the mirror. A witness was listed as Willie Brown, 2602 Bedford Avenue, in the Oberlin section of Raleigh.

SHOT AT 'GREEN CARPET'
Lawyer Terrell, Jr., 2112 Gilliam Lane, informed Officer E. V. Currin at 12:32 a.m. Thursday, that he had no idea who shot him in the right leg as he was standing at the bar inside the Green Carpet, a nightspot located at 517 S. Blount Street.

INJURED MAN IN STREET
Kenneth Jordan, 208 S. Bloodworth Street, reported to Officer J. D. Narron at 11:17 p.m. Friday, that he did not know who cut him in the 400 block of E. Davie Street. He was lying in the street when a car, driven by Ned Womack, Jr., cut out to keep from running over him and had a wreck. Jordan was said by the cop to have been intoxicated at that time. Womack was listed as a suspect in the incident.

"SLICED" MAN CLAMS UP
Willie Crowder, Plummer, 31, 405 Montague Lane, told Officers N. A. Carter and L. R. Womack at 12:50 a.m. Friday, that he got into an argument in the 900 block of Cannister Street — then he refused to tell the cops anything more.

However more talk was not necessary, because the complainant had a two and one-half inch cut on the right side of his throat and a half-inch cut on the top of his left hand. He had been cut with a knife.
