

FULLER STUDENTS PERFORM AT NORTH HILLS MALL - The Fourth Graders of the W. H. Fuller School gave a performance at the North Hills Mall during the Music and Arts Festival Saturday, May 17. The three fourth grade teachers are: Mrs. Beatrice Williams, Mrs. Delaine Wilkerson (not shown on photo) and Mrs. Norma W. Haywood. Mrs. Haywood is director of the recorder players. Working with Mrs. Haywood is Miss Barbara Jones, Fuller's music supervisor. Fuller is the first Negro Elementary School to perform on the North Hills Mall for the music and arts festival. Pictured above, left to right: (First Row) Cheryl Twitty, Cedric Williams, Tara Daye, Charles Haywood, Erlecia Curry, Huston Dunston, Wayne Shuler, Sharon Harris, Beverly Nipper. (Second Row) Mrs. Norma Haywood, director of the group; Denzil Daye ( Auto-harp, fifth grade) Debra McCoy, Greta Williams, Wanda Joyner, Annette Jones, Bernard Young, Michael Grissom, Robin Utley, Carter Calloway, Linda Talley, Michael Pettiford, Ivan Owens (Drums - Sixth Grade) Mrs. B. F. Williams, assistant director, Jonathan Shottwell (Bass Drum-Sixth Grade). Third Row: Willie King, Anthony Blalock, June Egerton, Karen Parker, Jennifer Wilder, Cheryl Satterfield, Randy Smith, Angela Lanier, Sharon Edwards, Gwendolyn Hilliard, Patricia Alston and Timothy Handy.

Howard Will Cite Koontz, Two Others

WASHINGTON, D. C. - A Nixon appointee, a former official of the National Urban League, and a medical crusader will receive honorary degrees during Commencement exercises at Howard University June 6.

The honorees are Elizabeth Duncan Koontz, director of the Women's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor; Julius A. Thomas, former director of Industrial Relations of the National Urban League; and Dr. William P. Walsh, president and medical director of Project Hope (Health Opportunity for people Everywhere).

Mrs. Koontz will receive the Doctor of Humane Letters degree; and Dr. Walsh, the Doctor of Science degree.

RECEIVE FELLOWSHIPS AT NCC - These eight graduating seniors at North Carolina College are among ten who have received graduate fellowships for advanced study in geography. Shown, left to right, first row, are Herbert L. West, Samuel Jones, Margaret Stephenson, and Earl Leatherberry. On the second row, from left to right are Bobby Wilson, Perry Massey, Kenneth Jordan, and Albert Barnett. (NCC Photo).

Miss & Mr. 1969 Grad:

Wherever You Go Let The Carolinian Follow You

Honored During Awards Day Shaw University Students

Shaw University students are honored Friday during annual Awards - Honors Program, held in Spaulding Gymnasium. During the program, awards, citations, scholarships and fellowships were given students in recognition of achievement in several areas, including service in departmental activities. Shaw President, Dr. James E. Cheek made the presentations.

Maria A. Johnson, a 3rd year student from Newark, N. J. received the top academic award. The Catherine Hughes Waddell Scholarship, University awards to the top ranking students in the 3rd, 2nd, and 1st year classes went to: Onie Alston, Hampton, Virginia, and Brenda Hoffer, Newark, N. J. (3rd year); Clifton Burkham, Goldsboro, and JoAnn Eason, Sunbury, (2nd year); Marland Martin, Sanford, and Helen Sutton, Whitakers, (1st year).

Other awards were: The Dr. A.M. Moore Memorial Prize, Harold Bassett, Bronx, N. Y.; The Dr. Wendell C. Somerville Scholarship, Joseph L. Faison, Turkey; The Ella Stewart Plaque to a Senior for Achievement in Biology, Madeline Branch, Portsmouth, Va.; The Brooks Dickens Memorial Award in Education, Natalie Mitchell, Reidsville; The Emily Morgan Kelly Prize, Daisabelle Clark, Raleigh; The Women's Fellowship, Raleigh Moravian Church Scholarship, Andrew Amashie, Raleigh.

The Iota Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Award, James Cheek, Newport News, Va.; The Beta Gamma Rho Sorority Award, Cynthia Best, Wilson; The Ford Foundation Doctoral Fellowship, Patricia

Walters, Fayetteville; The W. C. Lawrence Scholarship, Madeline Cowling, Trenton, N. J.; The J. Milton Newman Scholarship, Constance Walker, Enfield; The Cary D. Jacobs Fellowship, Joseph D. Whitaker, Halifax; The L. L. Johns Scholarship, Roger Stennett, Englewood, N. J.

Recognition was also given to those students in Who's Who, The Debate Society, and The Shaw Players. Others were cited for participation in the Choral Society, the Band, and Christian Organizations. Student Counselors also received service awards.

Intercollegiate awards were given in baseball, basketball, football, track, and to cheerleaders. Honor students also received certificates of merit for outstanding academic achievement during the year.

Afro-American To Be Theme Of St. Andrews' Institute

LAUNINGBURG - Dean Robert F. Davidson Friday announced the faculty for the Institute on America Culture to be introduced this summer at St. Andrews Presbyterian College. The 1969 institute will focus on "The Afro-American and his contribution to America's Historical and Cultural Heritage" in two five-week sessions, June 9-July 11 and July 14-August 17.

Visiting faculty members will be Mrs. Florentine Audesson, faculty member at Anderson High School in Winston-Salem, and Clifton Collins, history and sociology teacher at West Charlotte High School. Dr. Charles Joyner, associate professor of history at St. Andrews, will be chairman of the teaching team for the institute. Other St. Andrews faculty on the team are Dr. Carl Bennett, professor of English, and Dr. George Melton, associate professor of history.

An interdisciplinary approach will be used in both sessions, according to Dr. John Daughtrey, co-ordinator of summer programs at St. Andrews. The first five weeks will emphasize the history of the Negro in America from slavery to the current civil rights movement. Studies in anthropology, sociology and psychology of the Black American will receive major attention in the second session. In literature, material through the 1930's and the Harlem Renaissance will be considered in the first session; in the second, developments since the 1940's.

Mr. Collins, teaching in the first session, holds a B. A. from St. Augustine's College and M. A. in sociology from Atlanta University. In 1958 he was a Phelps-Stokes Fellow at Fisk University and more recently has studied at institutes at Vanderbilt and Fisk University.

Mrs. Anderson earned her B. A. in French and drama at West Virginia State College and in 1962 received a Master's in English at North Carolina State College and in 1962 received a Master's in English at North Carolina A&T. In 1967 she won a R. J. Reynolds scholarship for summer study at Columbia University's Knave Theatre. Her speech students recently won the sweepstakes award at the N. C. Speech Festival at Wake Forest University and her drama group presented an original one-act play for meetings of the North Carolina English Teachers and for the State Drama Festival.

The institute is approved for the Professional Grant-in-Aid program of the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction. Students are encouraged to enroll in both sessions but may enroll in either five-week session, Dr. Daughtrey explained.

Yes, We All Talk

QUESTION: What are the steps in the learning of a language by a child? --Mrs. H. G. W.

ANSWER: The professional communicologists prefer the term "stages of language development." The stage include:

1. The babbling stage, experienced by every normal child, consists of cooing, gurgling, and playful experimentation with speech muscles.

2. The automatic imitation stage is a parrot like process in which the child enjoys hearing himself by repeating his sounds.

3. The acquisition of speech (first words) which reflects a meaningful vocabulary of word

AT IVEY'S, AN ARRAY OF GIFTS TO CONGRATULATE EVERY NEW GRADUATE. FOR HIM OR FOR HER. BROWSE THROUGH IVEY'S FOR THE SPECIAL GIFT THAT SAYS YOU CARE. SHOP WEEKNIGHTS UNTIL NINE.

IVEY'S
NORTH HILLS

come alive!

You're in the Pepsi generation!

Who's got the best-natured taste on this whole thirsty earth? Pepsi - that's who! Regular Pepsi-Cola with the taste that's clean and alive...and Diet Pepsi-Cola for honest-to-Pepsi taste at less than a calorie. Only Pepsi gives you such a delicious choice!

Pepsi DIET PEPSI PEPSI-COLA

Bottled By Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh, N. C. Inc.