OTHERS

Lord, help me live from day to day in such a self forgetful way,

That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for others.

Others Lord, yes, others, let this my motto be,
Help me to live for others,
That I may live for Thee.

SPENDS SUNDAY IN SANFORD
Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Raines of 910 Mark Street motored to Sanford on Sunday where they enjoyed visiting in the home of relatives and friends. They have reported a most enjoyable day.

RECENT VISITOR

Mr. Milton Jones of Buffalo, N. Y., was a recent visitor in our city. He was here on important business. While here, he spent some time with his cousin, Mrs. Annie H. Thorpe, 527 E. Cabarrus Street. He also spent time at the home of his cousins in Method, the Burrells. He was accompanied on the trip by his uncle, Mr. Jones. We say hurry back, cousin! FETED AT SHOWER

Mrs. Mary Grimes No. 5 Ashe Terrace, the president and founder of the Helping Hands Club feted Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holloway of 4 Edgecombe Terrace at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday, May 31. Among the friends who joined in to congratulate and to wish the couple many years of happy married life was her pastor, the Rev. L. L. Wilson, pastor of Providence Holiness Church. May we also wish for both of you a long and happy married life.

CLUB NEWS

BEAUTICIANS' CLUB MEETS
Raleigh Chapter, No. 27, met Monday night June 2, at the lovely home of Mrs. Helen Starks on Bragg Street.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Mildred Williams, president. Devotion was led by Mrs. Mary S. Greene. After devotion, business was discussed. Everyone is looking forward to the trip to Dicie Shore where the North Carolina Beauticians have a home. A one-day meeting will be held on the 30th of this month.

After the disposal of business, Mrs. Starks, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Artha King, served a very delicious dinner. Members present were Mesdames Mildred S. Williams, Alberta Hicks, Lizzie Ritter, Mary S. Greene, Daisy Alston, Gaybelle Harris, Selma Spell, Aylce Henry, Helen Starks, and Misses Frances V. Hinton and Janice Gadison.

The Club adjourned for the summer. The meetings will convene again in September at the home of Miss Jannie Gadison in Wendell.

DELICADOS MEET

The Delicados, Inc., met recently at Peebles Hotel with Mrs. Louise Nelson serving as hostess. Mrs. Gladys Johnson presided during the business session, while Mrs. Muriel McKoy and Mrs. Dorothy Housen were elected delegates to the Conclave to be held in Norfolk, Va.

After the business session, the hostess had the staff of Peebles Hotel to serve the Delicados a most delectable meal. Following the repast, the members enjoyed a social hour and the hostess presented each member with a delightful novelty.

Members present were: Mesdames Dorothy Housen, Gladys Johnson, Louise Johnson, Muriel McKoy, Louise Nelson, Pearl Smith, Theodora Vines, and Frances Whitaker.

TYPICAL TWELVE CLUB

The Typical Twelve Civic and Social Club held its regular monthly meeting on May 19 at the home of Mrs. Etta M. Hough, 811 S. Bloodworth Street. After a short devotion, Mrs. Irene Scales, president,

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Why does some hair break off when combing?

Your hair is precious and delicate... and none of us like to see it break off for any reason. Scientists tell us that excessive use of hot combs and over-processing of hair with chemicals often are major causes of brittleness resulting in hair breakage. But hair that is naturally curly and tangles easily frequently breaks off in everyday combing. Notice how irritated your scalp becomes when you comb in contrast to the way your beautician does?

Your professional beautician knows that curly hair mats and tangles so easily that it should be softened before combing. Otherwise, unnecessary irritation to the scalp and damage to the shaft and ends of the hair occurs. To achieve this needed softening and a temporary relaxing effect that prevents breakage on all human hair (including wigs), most beauticians rely on Clairol® Hair-So-New® spray-on creme rinse. For combing ease and for beautifying your hair in many other ways, trained beauticians stock a complete family of fine Clairol products for your specific needs.

Visit your expert hairdresser, who cares about your hair care and your comfort. Whatever the nature of your hair problems, only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.

Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

Softly now the light of day fades upon our sight away. Free from care, from labor free, Lord we would commune with Thee. Soon from us the light of day, shall forever pass away. Then from sin and sorrow free, take us Lord, to dwell with Thee.

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank Thee that in times of need Thou art always near to comfort and guide us. May we seek the comfort of Thine everlasting love and times of sorrow and distress. O Lord please help us to understand that all of our ways are not easy, but give us that faith to remember your word for "I am with you always..." Dear God, when we have finished our work and time and place will know us no longer and the old flesh can no longer hold us, please take us into Thy kingdom, we pray, Amen.

The month of June brings us graduations and weddings.

Shaw University's Convocation for the conferring of degrees, held at Memorial Auditorium Sunday afternoon, June 8, was truly a beautiful sight with graduates launching out on the voyage of life hoping and dreaming of success in their future undertakings.

President Emeritus of Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga., Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, gave the youths, the elders and all present facts which, if heeded, will shape many lives for this voyage of life.

Many persons visited the city during the past weekend. From Elizabeth City came Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pattillo, Mrs. Janie Pettway, Mrs. Mary B. Perkins and husband, were here from Salisbury. The parents of Thomas Brown, who graduated from Shaw Sunday, were also present. They are from Henderson.

Mrs. Mary Sapp has returned to the city after spending a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Moore, Bayboro, where she went to attend the graduation exercises of her granddaughter, Miss Cheryl E. Moore from the J. T. Barber High School, New Bern.

Mrs. Emma O. Jones has returned to her home, 712 Cumberland Ave., this time for good, as she retired from teaching at the Pattillo High School, Tarboro, after a long tenure. Mrs. Edith Trice and Mrs. Dorothy C. Thomas were hostesses for the meeting of the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority last Saturday afternoon at Peebles Hotel.

The Basileus, Mrs. Mamie Haywood, presided. The sorors chatted after eating a delicious dinner. Finishing the year's work and planning for another year completed the afternoon's

City. He attended Crosby-Garfield School and J. W. Ligon High School. He was married to the former Miss Mabel Dozier. They have one son.

Survivors are wife, Mrs. Mabel D. Evans; one son, Claude Evans, III of New York City; two aunts, Mrs. Rosa Delaine and Mrs. Annie James, all of Raleigh; one uncle, Mr. Fred Robinson of Darlington, S. C.; a niece, Mrs. Louise Bowers of Brooklyn, N. Y.

GETS FULL NCC SCHOLARSHIP

Wesley Eugene Debnam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Debnam, Sr., 219 Walker Street, was recently notified that he was chosen to receive a full scholarship to attend North Carolina College at Durham. Young Debnam had previously been named one of the two recipients at Needham B. Broughton High School of a $300 scholarship, known as the Senior High School Hi-Y scholarship. Selections were based on outstanding character, service and leadership. Although his scholarship to NCC made the Hi-Y scholarship invalid, young Debnam did receive an honorary award. The youngest of ten children in the Debnam family, Wesley will run track at NCC. He broke all of Broughton's existing track record during the past school year. A member of the Watts Chapel Baptist Church's choir, Sunday School and president of the junior usher board, Wesley held membership in the Future Business Leaders of America, Inc., Club, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Club and served as secretary of Broughton's Monogram Club. He was a track star for four years and won a number of local and state awards for his ability on the cinderpath. He plans to major in business administration at the Durham-based college.

MUSIC NOTES AND HALF NOTES

BY MRS. E. M. M. KELLY

If you missed Shaw University's Worship Service for its graduates on Sunday, June 8, at 11 o'clock in the University Church and the graduation Convocation at 3 p.m., you missed, among many things, a musical treat by the University Choral Society.

Mr. Herbert Walters was director and Mr. Harry Gilmoyne, accompanist for the 3 p.m. service. Soloists, who performed excellently were Robert L. White, baritone, singing "I Got A Home In A Dat Rock" Burleigh; Renee Williams, soprano, singing the solo part in "Sinner, Please Don't Let This Harvest Pass"; Work's "The Chorale Society showed excellent training in its performance of Bach's "Jesus, Priceless Treasure"; Work's "Sinner, Please Don't Let This Harvest Pass"; Beethoven's "Hallelujah" from the Mount of Olives; and Dett's "I'll Never Turn Back No More."

It was truly a great pleasure seeing and talking with Dr. Leo Oxley recently. He has been working in Kansas City since he resigned at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C. Besides being trained as a surgeon and a psychiatrist, he is also a well-trained musician in piano and organ. He is an excellent recitalist. Bravo, Leo!

Mature singers, did you read my column last week? Are you interested? Four singers are all I need. Call me, please. We sing, travel, meet wonderful people and picnic. Enjoyable, exciting, rewarding, satisfying, if music is truly your thing!
