THREATENS SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

George L. Foxwell, principal of the Fred J. Carnegie Junior High School, 1325 Carnegie Drive, told Officer R. E. Williams at 10:35 a.m. Wednesday, that he did not want to sign a warrant against William Burt, 15, 526 Bragg Street, a student at Carnegie, who reportedly threatened the principal with a knife after being dismissed from school following an argument. The youth was referred to the Raleigh Police Department's Public Relations Office for counseling.

CUT WITH STRAIGHT RAZOR

Lee Ciptel, Route 5, Raleigh, informed Officer R. W. Miller at 1:18 a.m. Thursday, that he and Charles Harris were arguing over Miss Rose Lee, who was reported as being the girlfriend of Mr. Ciptel, who also told the cop that Harris attacked him and cut him with a straight razor at Harris' home, 816 1/2 Fayetteville Street.

Miss Lee, the girlfriend, who resides at 209 Fowle Street, was listed as being a witness to the incident. The complainant suffered severe lacerations, approximately five inches long, on the left side of his head. Other cuts were on an ear and the neck. A warrant for assault with a deadly weapon was advised.

THROWS BRICK IN WINDOW

Edward Lee Watkins, 531 Montague Lane, reported to Officer C. W. Hairr at 9:40 p.m. Sunday, that he had gone to the back bedroom at his home and raised the window. He said he then stepped back into the kitchen and heard a crash sound, which came from the bedroom. When he again went into the bedroom, he found a brick on the floor and scratches on his dresser. Damage was set at $4.

SAYS $50 MISSING

Miss Virginia Mae Eatman, 119 1/2 New Bern Avenue, told Officer F. D. Taylor at 12:19 p.m. Friday, that at about 11:30 a.m., she left her office at the North Hills Maintenance Shop to go to the main office, and when she returned, she found that $50 of her money had been stolen.

She informed the officer that she was coming from the main office to give the suspect listed below two checks. Missing were two twenty dollar bills and one ten. The suspect was listed as being George Foster, 23, 307 N. Carver Street.

THREATENED WITH RIFLE

James Elton Jeffreys, 309 W. South Street, reported to Officers Glen Westbrook and B. W. Peoples at 5:40 p.m. Friday, that Robert Atkins, 23, address unlisted, threatened his life several times with a .22 calibre rifle at the complainant's residence. He signed an assault with a deadly weapon warrant against Atkins and the two cops are still looking for him.

HUBBY JAILED IN STABBING

Mrs. Iredell Christine Staton, 29, 411 S. Swain Street, informed Officer Norman Artis at 2 a.m. Saturday, that her husband, Emmanuel Staton, 40, 313 E. Cabarrus Street, Apartment 8, stabbed her because she "went out with another man." She signed a warrant, charging her mate with assault on a female. Mrs. Staton exhibited a stab wound in the right hand and one puncture wound elsewhere on her body.

This incident occurred in the front yard at 8 Rogers' Alley. Staton was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail.

BREAKS COP'S WATCH BAND

Officer Robert Wayne Miller reported at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, that while he was in the process of writing a process of arrest on Richard Donald Young, 23, 311 B Waldrop St., the suspect attacked him with his hands and broke the band from his wrist watch. Damage was placed at $10. Young faces a capias charge and was also charged with damage to property. This incident took place at 825 W. Morgan Street, believed to be the location of Central Prison.

MAN STARTS SHOOTING

Robert Lee Atkins, 122 E. Lenoir Street, told Officers E. V. Currin and J. W. Rogers at 11:52 p.m. Thursday, that he and James Jeffries had an argument over a girl. They fought, and Jeffries is alleged to have said "he was going to get me" to Atkins. Jeffries, shortly thereafter, came up to the service station where Atkins works, located at 126 W. South Street, and started shooting at him with a pistol. A warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon, was signed by Atkins against Jeffries, whose address was listed as 209 W. South

SAYS MAN SLAPPED SON

Mrs. Iredell Christine Staton, 411 S. Swain Street, informed Officer R. B. Tant at 7:17 p.m. Thursday, that her son opened the glove compartment of a car belonging to George Mollas, 73-year-old white merchant, 542 E. Davie, while the owner was still sitting in the car. The suspect is said to have reached over and slapped 10-year-old Her man Darnell Staton on the side of his head with his hand. The boy went home and told his mother, who proceeded to call the police. A warrant charging assault on a minor, was signed and served, and Mollas, of 1810 Sunset Drive, was arrested.

SHOPLIFTERS NABBED

Officer Jimmy Max Glover reported at 7:42 p.m. Thursday, that he observed Misses Thelma Mills Thorpe, 18, 204 Seawall Avenue, and Annette Hodge, 19, 215 N. Cooke Street, conceal two pairs of shoes in their purses and leave the K-Mart, 400 E. Six Forks Road. They were then arrested and charged with larceny. The shoes were valued at a total of $12.40.

ALSO CAUGHT AT 'MART

Officer J. M. Glover stated in a report at 6:15 p.m. Thursday, "Mrs. Beatrice Bledsoe Dunn, 21, Route 1, Knightdale, concealed a pair of shoes and a gown in the ladies wear dressing room and walked out of the store without paying." She was arrested for larceny of the items valued at a total of $7.90. The incident also took place at the K-Mart.

STEALS PAIR OF GLASSES

Police Officer J. M. Glover, at 4:47 p.m. Saturday, made the following report: "I observed Mr. (William Alexander) Lacy pick up a pair of sunglasses and conceal them in his pants. I stopped Mr. Lacy outside the store (K-Mart) and arrested him for larceny and he broke away and ran inside and threw the sunglasses on the floor. The security officer helped me bring Mr. Lacy under control. Mr. Lacy was then also charged with resisting arrest.

Lacy, 21, lives at Box 74, Bladenboro. The sunglasses were valued at $1.37.

REVOLVER IS 'LIFTED'

Mrs. Naomi Cain Scarborough, P. O. Box 44, Zebulon, told Officer W. A. Blackman at 8:31 p.m. Thursday, that one Harrington and Richardson revolver, black with a white handle, was in the desk in the 1200 block of New Bern Avenue, where she works, Wednesday night, but was missing Thursday morning. She also stated that people used her room, where the weapon was kept, to use the telephone. The pistol, valued at $40, is registered with the Wake County Sheriff's Department.

'SAMARITAN' BEATEN

David Gillespie, 39, 201 E. South Street, informed Officer M. Bissette, Jr., at 5:30 p.m. Saturday, that he gave $1 to Lenwood McCall and Marlon Raeford. They wanted another dollar and when he refused to give it to them, they beat him with a brick. A warrant will be signed, said the complainant, who suffered a ruptured left eyeball, and multiple cuts and bruises on his face and forehead.

Both suspects are believed to be around 24 years of age. An address of 506 E. Hargett Street, was listed under their names. The incident took place in the 200 block of S. East Street.

SAYS BOYFRIEND STRUCK HER

Miss Mary Martha Bennett, 19, 509 Gordon Street, told Officer D. F. Gersch at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, that her boyfriend, Robert Campbell, struck her with his left hand on the side of the neck at her home. This was listed as a domestic problem over money. The cop advised Miss Bennett to sign an assault on a female warrant against Campbell. She said he would.

CREDIT CARD 'SWIPED'

Vincent Ray Fairfax, Shaw University, student reported to Officer R. Clayborne at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, that someone took his Sinclair credit card from his billfold, while it was left in his room. No suspects were named on the police report. Mr. Fairfax listed his address as 702 Coleman Street.

DEALER TAG STOLEN

Randy Vance Evans, 1301 Bart Street, told a cop at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, that a dealer tag, number 81808, was stolen from a car, parked in front of his house at about 12 midnight Saturday. He admitted it was poorly fastened to the car, with only one screw holding the plate on. Evans said the car had been parked in front of his house for two days.

THREATENED WITH BLADE

Tommie Lewis Hinton, Route 1, Box 127, Raleigh, and two cops were present at 2:10 a.m. Sunday, when William Trumills, 20, Route 6, Box 135, Raleigh, pulled a knife out of his pocket with the blade open and threatened to cut Hinton with it. He was then jailed on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon by Officers D. W. Dalmas and J. D. Greene. The incident occurred at a dance club, located at 5647 Western Boulevard.

SAYS HUBBY BEAT HER

Mrs. Carol Hinton, 17, 1772 Procter Road (Southgate) told two officers at 2:12 a.m. Sunday, that she went to the Bonnevillie Tavern, 5647 Western Boulevard, and her husband, Tommie Lewis Hinton, 19, saw her and "started beating on me."

Mrs. Hinton signed an assault on a female warrant and her mate was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail on this rap.

Youth Corps Picks Malone To Counselor

It was announced recently by Gilbert Rozler, project director of Stamford's Neighborhood Youth Corps, the appointment of William U. Malone, Jr., as counselor.

Mr. Malone comes to his new position with a wealth of experience in working with teenagers in the New York area. Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Malone, Sr., of 507 South Person Street, is a native of Raleigh and attended Shaw University.

Veterans attending school under the GI Bill are reminded that it normally requires three months before they receive their initial subsistence checks, which will be retroactive to the start of training.
