Senior Citizens Hold Meet Here

The Senior Citizens Center, 416 E. Cabarrus Street had another successful club day last Wednesday. Several ladies spent the day quilting, sewing, knitting and making potholders. One lady, who brought her mother for the first time, had many words of praise and gratitude that a place like the Senior Citizens Center had been provided for older people.

The Senior Citizens Center is open daily from 9:00-5:00. Wednesday, June 11, was the day for the special club groups to meet at the center. Citizens were asked to bring any kind of work that you are interested in doing and come prepared for a day of work, fellowship, and enjoyment.

"If you plan to spend the day bring a sandwich and the center will provide the drink."
