Mrs. Pauline M. Solice Retires After 46 Years

BY MRS. H. M. JOHNSON CLINTON - On May 23, the faculty of Butler Avenue School honored Mrs. Pauline M. Solice, who retired after 46 years of service in the public schools of North Carolina. The testimonial was in the form of "This Is Your Life." The faculty presented the honoree with flowers, a service plaque and scripbook. Friends and members of the faculty presented a saving bond. A reception in the school cafeteria followed the program in the school auditorium.

The program began with the lighting of candles signifying family, friends, education, civic endeavor, religious participation and clubs. The tapers were lit by Ernestine M. Lucas, Mamie Faison, Pocahontas White, Lois Robinson, Elizabeth McDaniels and Wixie Sampson. Flowers from Butler Avenue School were presented by Mrs. Hazel Moore.

Mrs. Solice's sister, Ernestine Lucas and her brother, Dr. W. E. Merritt, were with her on the platform. They were joined by Mrs. Solice's husband, Perry, her daughter, Mattie S. Grigsby and her son, Edmond and his wife, Annabell, and their two children, Perry, III, and Todd. Other members of her immediate family with her were her only living aunt, Mrs. Bessie Armwood, and her daughter, Elizabeth McDaniels of Mt. Olive. Mrs. Arletha Graham, a co-worker for many years and a dear friend, sat with her during the proceedings as did Mrs. Purrie Grigsby of Charlotte.

Mrs. Mary Barnes Smith, supervisor of Bladen County Schools, and one of Mrs. Solice's first students spoke. Other former students on the program were James Franklin Butler, Mrs. Clatie Lee and Mrs. S. A. Goodman.

"The Mighty Swaneers," with James Franklin Butler, sang two songs. Queenie Goodman sang a solo representing the Goodman family. Mrs. Daisy Caldwell spoke on behalf of the Faison Memorial Presbyterian Church and Mrs. Naomi Durham represented the First Congregational Church of Dudley. Miss Wixie Sampson represented the Round Dozen Club; Mrs. Reva Mae Williams, the Friendly Garden Club; Mrs. Carrie Ray, for the Eastern Star; Mrs. Estelle Stewart for the Swan Club; Mrs. Lois Robinson, for the Hospital Auxiliary. Mr. David Robinson, principal, spoke for the faculty and students of Butler Avenue School. Weldon Washington spoke for the class of '69 which began the eighth grade under Mrs. Solice. Rev. O. L. Bennett commended her on her service to the Butler Avenue PTA and Mrs. Beulah Crenshaw spoke for the Girl Scouts. Representative members from each group were present.

Mrs. Iris Caldwell was in charge of the music and Mrs. Bettie Davis arranged flowers for the stage and the punchtable. The 46 year service plaque was presented by Mrs. Ruby Eason. A silver tray was presented by Mrs. B. U. Jones for the Clinton Unit of the NCTA. The narrator was Mrs. Neatrice Merritt. An orchid was pinned on Mrs. Solice by Mrs. Sadie Merritt for herself and her daughters, Georgetta and Ercele.

Among the out-of-town guests not already mentioned were Mrs. Nancy Butler, Mrs. Mabel B. Wright, Mrs. Hazel Howard, Miss Mae D. Holmes, Mrs. Willie Newkirk, Mrs. Marian Jacobs Phillips, Mrs. Eva Carter, Mr. Orbel Wynn, Mrs. Edna Gray, Mrs. Louella Solice Simmons, Mrs. Martha Kelly Alston and Mr. H. B. Lucas.

Cards, letters and gifts were received from many friends and relatives.

News And Views

BY J. B. HARREN

ADAM POWELL WINS; JUSTICE REAFFIRMED ROCKY MOUNT - The Monday morning announcement that the United States Supreme Court had declared that the U. S. House of Representatives had erred in denying Harlem Congressman Adam Clayton Powell his seat in Congress two years ago, was indeed a heart-warmer for all Americans of color who still believe in the orderly though frequently slow-process of justice in these our beloved United States of America.

Those who are so quick to want to take the law into their hands in an attempt to hasten the cause of justice and right, too often damaging to the desired result, should take note of the ancient proverb which says, "The mills of the gods grind slowly, but surely." Negro America has won, and WON BIG, even if the Congress still finds a devious way to deny Powell his seat.

We do not approve of all the things alleged to Powell any more than we do the charges hurled at Senator Thomas Dodd, Mendell Rivers and some others. But Negroes and all fair-minded Americans hate to see the Black Congressman made the whipping-boy simple because he happened to be quite flamboyant. WHY have they not brought charges against some of the others accused publicly of similar flamboyancy? Justice needs more help! We were disturbed last week by the trend indicated in a United Presbyterian Men's Council meeting in Bull City. The prevailing thought was that the Church would have to be "modernized" to the extent of making the church more appealing to black youth by, what many consider, secularizing the church rather than spiritualizing it. This column is heartily in favor of the Church meaning much more than just preaching and shouting Amens. We believe the church should try to get all the folks possible into, and active, in the church. We believe youths should be encouraged to take positions of leadership responsibility when they display the type of constructive ideas that are indicative of Christianity and a desire to build there on. We do not believe that the Church should have its standard lowered by making church elders, deacons or ministers of the uncommitted to Christ youths under twenty to have them lead others astray.

Yet, there's a place for all of us in the church structure if we are committed to building God's Kingdom here on earth and it entails civic work and building good citizenship thru the NAACP and other groups.
