Deadline for Fayetteville

Youth Council Activities

Prepared By Members of The Fayetteville Youth Council

During the past month, the FYC has been reorganizing its staff of officers and committee chairman. With President Jay Benson leading the meetings, all of the positions have been filled by members of the 1969-70 council. Most of our old projects have been retained and some new ones have been introduced.

The coming year promises to be a challenging and fulfilling one.

Project Call-In will be continued under the leadership of Deryl Davis. As most of you know, this project has been designed to provide youth with part time employment during the summer. Any of you that are interested in getting a job or an employee should call the Recreation and Parks Department at 484-5174.

The old faithful radio show is now in the hands of Woody Myatt and Elizabeth Gambill. The program last week was on Campus disorders. Tune in on WFLB at 12:00 Sunday to hear the voice of the teenagers of Fayetteville.

One of the new projects adopted this year is the teen-play. This production will be completely organized and carried through by the teenagers.

The first production is Everyman Today by Sorrell. It will open July 24 at the Hay Street United Methodist Church.

More information on the play will be disclosed later. Anyone interested in helping with the play may contact Patricia Walker at 867-3721 or Patty Mann at 484-3787. A lot of real characters are working on it.

These are only a few of our projects for the next year. With your help, we are sure that our hard-working staff can make them successful.
