NOTICE
NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY
IN THE SUPERIOR COURT
JOSEPHINE MARION GUESS,
Petitioner
vs.
JOHN WILSON
The defendant will take notice that the action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Wake County, North Carolina, a Special Proceeding entitled as above, in which she seeks to adopt Tommy Lee Wil-

IMPRESSIONS IN BRONZE

1301 Branch Street BY EDDIE HERMAN DAVIS Phone 828-2415

COATTAIL BLACKS
I have been writing some articles about blacks in Raleigh, why? Because I want the concerned blacks of Raleigh to know just who is down to earth and who the phonies are. Last week, I stepped on the toes of some blacks in the Recreation Department and that is a big factor in the lives and future of our youth because they are the ones who will change the white power structure.

EDDIE HERMAN DAVIS

The old and middle age blacks are trying to work within the white power structure to bring about a change and that is alright if they would just stop hanging on the coat tails of the white man. There are many places in the Raleigh area where summer programs can be set up for the black youth in Raleigh, but the coat tail blacks don't want to let go of the white man's coat tails and stand up for the black brothers and sisters. Why? Because they are afraid if they act like real black men and women, that they will not have a job. This type of black feels that if he really gets out there among the middle class and poor and leave their air conditioned offices and try and set up programs that will help all blacks in the future (day programs for youth, night educational classes about black culture) these types of programs are not set up for blacks in the white man's programs for blacks and the coat tail blacks knows in his mind and heart that this type of program is what the black people need in order to understand their oppressor and be able to gain power and dignity within the power structure and out of the power structure.

I am quite sure that if you go to see the head black of the recreation department he will tell you that we as blacks should try and help one another but that is all he will do - talk to you about it.

After recreation hours are over, he is home laying back and enjoying life because you let him stay on the job, knowing all the while that he is not doing anything for your children or you, but that 8,000 or more dollars a year looks good to him and he is going to keep laying back and blacks from all over Raleigh ask themselves everyday why is the pool dirty, why do blacks have to pay

$50 a night to the School Board just to give a dance or some type of program to raise money for the poor blacks, welfare blacks, help pay someone's back rent or rent, help an organization help itself. Why do heads of recreation have to run to the white man to ask if you can have some type of program in your black areas, and why are all gyms in black recreation areas, black public housing recreation areas controlled by the white man, but have all coat tail blacks to head the programs. Just stop and answer these questions, then you will see for yourself or call and try and set up some kind of program to help your brothers and sisters. Ask to use a building in your black area and see what the coat tail black tells you!! I have been doing some research on other coat tail blacks in Raleigh.

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE
You are seated in the office of Oscar Banning, manager of a building and loan company, listening to his story of the robber who made away with more than $5,000 in cash from his establishment.

"He was a big, tall fellow," begins Banning. "Well dressed and rather good-looking in a tough sort of way. He wore a light gray hat, a light blue, double-breasted blazer, a maroon tie, and pearlgray slacks . . . and oh yes, this might help you . . . his belt buckle had a monogram on it, the initial 'G'."

"I was seated here in my office late this evening . . . all our other employees had gone . . . this fellow suddenly walked in as bold as you please, pointed a gun at me, and in very polite and cultured words ordered me to get away from my desk and move over against the wall. Then he swept all the currency off my desk into an attache case he was carrying, went over to the safe and found more money there which he likewise transferred to his case. Then after apologizing to me for 'the inconvenience' he tied me to a chair and gagged me. Then, as he walked away from me toward the door, he unbuttoned his coat and stuck his gun into his belt. Finally, after a cautious look out the door, he slipped quietly out. It must have taken me the better part of fifteen minutes before I finally succeeded in working myself loose and phoning you."

"Have you ever had any previous experiences like this?" you ask.
"No, not since I've been manager here. My employer . . . he's out of town just now . . . when he learns of this, he's going to be very much upset. He's a very emotional sort of man."
"I think he will have plenty of reason to be emotional about this," you then say, "especially when he learns that his manager is under suspicion of having staged this little robbery?"
"Why do you suspect Oscar Banning?"
SOLUTION
Banning told you that the "robber" was wearing a double-breasted blazer, and this was obviously buttoned, for he also told you the man unbuttoned the coat as he walked away from Banning, in order to slip his gun into his belt. Since the coat was of the double-breasted style and since it was buttoned, Banning could not possibly have seen the man's belt buckle with its "G" initial which he so foolishly described to you.

Foust, in charge.
Mrs. Vass was the widow of Dr. Rufus Vass, who practiced medicine some years ago in Raleigh.

When we think of Dr. Vass, we also think of Dr. Pegurs, Dr. Wortham, Dr. Roberts, Sr., and Dr. Roberts, Jr., who were beloved citizens of Raleigh.
The First United Church of Christ of which the Rev. Howard Cunningham is pastor, was saddened by the passing of Mrs. Charles G. Irving of East St., who was a beloved and faithful member. She passed last Sunday morning. Funeral services for Mrs. Irving were held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by the pastor.
The many friends of Mrs. Florise A. Turner of 1200 Hargett Street sympathize with her in the loss by death of her sister, who lived in New York. Funeral services for her were conducted in Franklin on Tuesday, July 1.
We all sympathize with ex-Governor Luther Hodges in the untimely death of his wife.
Rev. Charles R. Sautler of Chicago, Ill., was in the city this week for a short while to see old friends, Mrs. Bessie Moore, Fayetteville Street, Mrs. Bessie Wesley of New Bern Avenue and Mrs. Ruth M. Bethea of Lenoir Street.
A very successful Daily Vacation Bible School was just concluded after two weeks at St. Paul AME Church with a theme "Jesus Leads Me."
Last Sunday evening, the young folks, at 7 p.m., presented a program and a display of their exhibits in the Sunday School room. The junior department did some excellent work in mosaic and with popcycle sticks.
There were four departments; beginners, primary, junior and young teens.
Miss Almena Nunn was director. Mrs. Geneva P. Brown was director of music and the junior department. In the beginners department were Miss Pamela Batey, Miss Almena Nunn and Mrs. Blanche Rivers, and in the young teen department was Miss Willie McIver.
Before we write again, the celebration of the fourth of July will be over.
Please be careful. Remember you have but one life, hadner you have but one life, handle it with care. Parents talk to your young folks about talk to your young folks about the dangers of fast driving and swimming.

Mason Honored For Work Among Migrant Workers

NEW YORK—Dennis Mason, Coordinator for the New York State Department of Health, recently was presented with the Ballantine's Scotch Unsung Hero Award for his work in behalf of migrant farm workers. The award is jointly sponsored by Ballantine's Scotch and New York's AMSTERDAM NEWS.
It's presented each month to an individual whose concern for his fellow man exceeds the ordinary.
As state coordinator, Mason revitalized and improved existing programs to improve conditions migrant workers, while instituting two new projects which provide rehabilitation and medical care for the workers and for other deprived persons.
Mason began his career as a nursing student and went on to win a scholarship for advanced study at Adelphi University. He won his Bachelor of Science degree there while working for the New York State Health Department and attending evening sessions at the university.
Later, while working with the Nassau County (N. Y.) Health Department on migrant worker programs, Mason obtained a Masters Degree in Public Administration from Adelphi.
According to one colleague, "The 30,000 migrant farm workers and their families who seek employment annually in New York State have better living, working and health facilities than they ever had before -- due to the efforts of Dennis Mason."
