MY LIVING SHALL NOT BE IN VAIN

If I can help somebody as I travel on,
If I can cheer somebody with a word or a song,
If I can tell somebody that he's doing wrong,
Then my living shall not be in vain.
If I can do my duty as a Christian ought,
If I can hear love's message as the Master taught,
He can heal the sick He can cleanse the stain,
Then my living shall not be in vain.

SPEND WEEKEND IN SPRING HOPE

Come to Church

BY MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

O Thou God of my salvation, my Redeemer from all sin, moved by Thy divine compassion, who hast died, my heart to win, I will praise Thee, I will praise Thee, where shall I Thy praise begin.

While the angel choirs are crying, glory to the great, I am with them and will still be saying glory, glory to the Lord, O how precious, O how precious is the sound of Jesus' name.

Dear Lord, how often we call to remembrance the former days of Thine infinite patience with us. Help us not to lose our victory now by casting away our confidence. Guard us against the evil of unbelief. We know that the secret of the Lord is with them that fear Him, Thou has called us Thy friends, Thou art the same yesterday, today, and forever. O gracious Lord, help us to look forward, remembering the recompense of the reward so soon to come and we hold fast our confidence. Thou art the author and finisher of our faith and we will trust Thee till the end in Thy name, Amen.

MRS. CHARLES CHRISTMAS was Miss Mildred Campbell

Miss Mildred Campbell Weds Mr. Christmas In Church Rites

In a beautiful setting of palms, flowers and candles, Miss Mildred Vivian Campbell became the bride of Mr. Charles Christmas at Saint Ambrose Episcopal Church on Satur- day, June 28, at four o'clock. The Rev. Arthur J. Calloway, rector of St. Ambrose, per- formed the Nuptial Mass cere- mony. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell Sr., 804 E. Edenton Street and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Christmas, Sr., 217 N. Tarboro Road. A musical program was rendered by Mrs. Esther Hayes, organ- ist, and soloists, Mrs. Walter Brown and Mr. Harold O. White.

The bride's gown of white Peau de Soire featured an Em- pire bodice and long fitted sleeves ruffled at the hand of re-embroidered Aleneou lace beaded in seed pearls and ir- idescent sequins. Her Cathed- ral train fell from the should- ers and was bordered with matching lace. The full length veil of silk French illusion was attached to a cap of orange blossoms and curls of satin ribbon. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and two white or- chids with a purple throat.

Miss Beryl Sansom was maid of honor and Mrs. Nelson Greene, Jr., of Alexandria, Va. was matron of honor. They wore formal gowns with full skirts of orchid chiffon topped with Empire bodices of pale green sprayed with pastel flow- ers. Violet velvet ribbons tied the waist lines and formed curls on their head dresses of flow- ers. They carried baskets of garden flowers. The brides- maids wore identical dresses as the maid and matron. They were Misses Sidney Imer, Fieldsboro, N. J., Donna Kay, Patricia Thomas and Frances Williams, Atlanta, Ga., and Donna Winters. Two junior bridesmaids were in identical gowns, Misses Carmen and Cam- millie Taylor. Little Miss Nena Greene of Alexandria, Va. was flower girl. Her little gown was a miniature of the maids.

Charles Otey Kay was ring bearer in an Edwardian suit of black with short pants and knee length white socks. White lace at the neck and hands.

The best man was Mr. Wil- liam Christmas, Jr., brother of the groom. Other groomsmen were Ralph Campbell, Jr., William Campbell, Gregory Christmas, Nelson Greene, Jr., Donnell Patterson and George Williams.

The mother of the bride wore a formal gown of pink chiffon and beaded lace with a white orchid at her shoulder. A pink French rose crowned her hair.

A wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Willie O- tey Kay, on New Bern Avenue. Receiving guests at the door was Mrs. Harold White, who presented them to the recep- tions.

of Mankind, The Prayer Per- fect and The Lord's Prayer.

The Rev. Mr. Ennis Whal- ey is the director.

TO WED ON JULY 5- Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hines Gilles- pie of 1621 Hargett St., Jack- sonville, N. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Catherine Marie, to Mr. Cle- ment Earl Harris, son of Mrs. Mary Ida Harris and the late Mr. Armon Harris of 603 Roy- al St., Raleigh. The public is invited to attend the wedding at St. James A.M.E. Church of Method, at 1 p.m. Saturday, July 5. The Rev. Burn James Nathaniel Sheares will per- form the ceremony. A recep- tion will follow the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James William Wilders, Sr., 3030 Carver Place, Method.

"Still In Race"

HOUSTON, Texas-(NPI) - "I am still in the race" for mayor of Houston, said State Rep. Curtis M. Graves, in answer to a newspaper story claiming that his right to run for mayor was in doubt. According to the story, Graves might not meet the re- quirement that a candidate for mayor must own property in Houston for at least two years preceding the election. "It's nothing but another at- tempt to question my quali- fications," said Graves, who in- dicated that the matter may have to be settled in court.
