At R. J. Reynolds things are on the move

But they're on the move everywhere else, too. So, why shout about it? At R. J. Reynolds we've long recognized our obligations to the black community and we've been doing something about it. Something new and different. Our trainees get more than just a job offer. We offer them a career with a bright and rewarding future. And we back up our offer with the best training we can provide. Our program has given so many career-minded black people the opportunity to reach for a better life that we can't help but be proud. That's why we say "things are on the move" here. But we don't have to shout about it.
