THE CRIME BEAT

BEATEN FOR NO REASON?
Mrs. Evelyn King, 37, 313 E. Cabarrus Street, told Officer W. E. Harrington at 1:57 p.m. Sunday, that Joseph Patrick Clark, 38, same address, beat her up for no reason at all at the above address. Clark was arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon. The woman was bleeding from the mouth and was unable to walk. An iron pipe is believed to have been used on the woman by Clark.

WHITE MEN ACCUSED
William Hinton, 106 Maple Street, informed Officer G. W. Black at 12:28 a.m. Sunday, that a white Renault stopped beside him on Oakwood Avenue at its intersection with Hill. He said the passenger in the vehicle called him to come over and as he approached the car, a white man jumped from it and started striking at him with a knife, cutting him on the left hand. The driver of the car, Hinton stated, was also white. Three fingers on his hand were cut.

ATTACKED BY TWO
Lacy Thomas Walker, 6 Chatham Terrace, reported to Officer R. E. Williams at 10:41 p.m. Friday, that he had left Ligon's Market and was walking through Chavis Heights when he was assaulted by two colored males, both about 20 years old. He also stated that he could identify one of the subjects. Mr. Walker suffered lacerations of the head.

STRUCK WITH VASE
Miss Phyllis Marie Evans, 18, 717 S. Dawson Street, told Officers W. F. Booth and R. L. Johnson at 9:54 a.m. Tuesday of last week, that she had been having trouble with Harry Dexter Johnson, 711 S. Dawson Street earlier in the morning. She said he threw a vase and struck her behind the right ear. The woman was advised to sign a petition against the underaged suspect. The incident occurred in front of 700 S. Dawson Street.

NEW WINDSHIELD BROKEN
Willie Randolph Thorb, 619 S. Blount Street, informed Officer James E. (Bobby) Daye at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday of last week, that his 1969 Pontiac was parked in front of his home. He said he discovered the front windshield had been broken at about 6:15. Damage was estimated to be $120. A suspect was listed as Sam Pierce, 32, 745 S. Blount St.

SHOOTS AT GIRLFRIEND
Miss Dorothy Mayo, 1326 Pender Street, reported to Officer J. E. Daye at 12:47 a.m. last Monday, that she and her boyfriend, Walter Morgan, 25, 905 E. Edenton Street, were in an argument over his automobile. She stated that he shot at her with a shotgun and assaulted her with his hands and fists. She was not shot, but received abrasions about the arms and legs. The woman signed a warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon.

WOMAN'S CAR DAMAGED
Mrs. Mary Jones Avery, 922 Crosslink Road, informed Officers R. E. Brown and Bruce F. Tucker at 1:54 a.m. last Monday, that her 1969 Buick was parked in front of 201 Smithfield Street at the Fountainette Grill. She said she did not know it had been damaged until she approached it to drive home. Damage was a five-inch dent on the left front fender. She estimated it would cost $40 to have it repaired.

STRUCK IN MOUTH
Miss Josephine Austin, 35, 523 E. Cabarrus Street, told Officer Otis L. Hinton at 9:40 a.m. Thursday, that she asked Joseph Brewer, 40, same address, for a key to her suitcase and he got mad and struck her in the mouth with his fist. She said she would sign an assault and battery warrant against him. She suffered a bruised mouth.

ROBBED AT KNIFEPOINT
James Ray Young, 709 1/2 Quarry Street, informed Officer R. E. Keeter at 10:45 p.m. Saturday, that two colored males drew a knife on him at E. Worth Street's intersection with Chavis Way and told him to give them all the money he had. He said they then proceeded to "relieve" him of $21 in cash.

WOMAN CHARGES ASSAULT
Miss Ruby Mae Golact, 16-03 Pender Street, told Officer James E. (Sonny) Lane at 1:29 p.m. Sunday, that she would sign an assault and battery warrant against Jimmie Gordon, 1600 1/2 Pender, whom she said struck her on the arm and neck, causing arm bruises. She also said on another report that she would sign another warrant, charging Gordon with damage to property, claiming he broke the window on the north side of her house and damaged the screen door in the amount of $25.

GRABS POCKETBOOK, RUNS
Mrs. Clara Lee Edmundson, 217 E. Lenior Street, told Officer R. E. Perry at 12 noon Saturday, that two colored males walked up to her in the 500 block of S. Person Street and one grabbed her pocketbook, then both ran north in the 500 block of the street. She said the boys appeared to be about 18 years. The large white ladies pocketbook was valued at $10.

AUTO TIRE CUT
Mrs. Estelle Morgan Jones, 203 Cooke Street, reported to Officer F. W. Mitchell at 10:15 a.m. Wednesday, that she parked her 1966 Ford at her house sometime Tuesday, and found that her tire had been slashed the next morning. Damage was placed at $30.
