

Music Notes & Half Notes

By MRS. E. M. M. KELLY

Friends to little Miss Ava Greene! She has an extensive repertoire at this present age of seven. She knows more than fifteen selections including songs from Broadway musicals, classics, sacred hymns, patriotic songs, folk songs, Christmas carols, etc.

She can play the I, IV and V chords in the key of C and in other keys. Rhythmically and tonally correct, she can play any tune she can sing. To say that Ava is gifted is stating it mildly. Orchids, Ava! Congratulations to Mr. Robert Fryson, an alumnus of Ligon High School and Virginia State College, for his many music achievements. He teaches public school music in Alexandria, Va. and has organized a quintet which does sacred songs of inspiration. Fryson's compositions and arrangements form a large part of the repertoire. Robert and his singers keep very busy with concert engagements. He was just returning from California, when he stopped here last week. Fryson sang several solos at First Baptist Church on Friday night, for the senior choir. It was simple thrilling, as well as spiritually rewarding, to hear his fabulous tenor voice again. Robert is a truly dedicated and fine musician and Christian gentleman. Bon voyage, Robert, on your trip to Europe this summer! Have a good time. Bravo! You may cover some of my tracks.

Congratulations to John Massemburg! He is in Akron, Ohio, this week, serving as music specialist in a workshop at the Church of God convention. John is well-equipped in his profession, music, to do the work of a music specialist.

It was a delightful surprise seeing Howard Thomas last week, who is visiting from California. A tenor, Howard is singing with a special ensemble on our "Swan Song Concert," program, doing Benedictus from Mass In G, by Schubert.

OLDEST ASSOCIATION MEMBER FETED ON BIRTHDAY - Mrs. Lizzie Bess celebrated her 80th birthday anniversary at a surprise party sponsored by the Walnut Terrace Tenants' Rights and Improvement Association on July 14th. Mrs. Bess, the oldest member of the organization, is one of the most active people in Walnut Terrace. Seldom does she miss a meeting of the Tenants' Association or the Walnut Terrace Senior Citizens' Club. Not only did she have a birthday cake, but also a money tree. Both are shown above. A native of Bishopville, South Carolina, Mrs. Bess came to Raleigh some 60 years ago. She is a Deaconess at the Fayetteville Street Baptist Church. She has one son in East Spencer, and two grandchildren in Raleigh. Mrs. Bess resides at 1317-B Holman Street.

Senior Citizens Center News

The Senior Citizens, of the 416 E. Cabarrus Street Center, toured the State Museum building and afterwards went to Umstead Park for a picnic on Wednesday, July 9. Over 100 people attended this outing, including a trailway busload from Goldsboro, and groups from the Little River Community Action Center at Zebulon and White Oak Center at Apex.

The buses left the center at 11:00 and returned at 3:15 p.m. Everyone taking the trip reported a good time.

On each Thursday night at 7:00, there will be a movie shown at the Center. All senior citizens are invited. Admission is free.

A glee club is being organized at the Center. Any senior citizen wishing to join this group should contact the center, telephone 828-3509. This club will meet on Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m.

Joseph W. James is acting manager of the Senior Citizens Center.

Dance Group At St. Aug.

The Orchestra Dance Group of Roosevelt High School, Gary, Indiana, will present an "African Safari" at Saint Augustine's College on Tuesday, July 22, at 8 p.m. in the Emery

Rev. Terry Is Elected Moderator

DURHAM - Rev. F. D. Terry, minister of West Durham Baptist Church, Durham, was named Moderator of the East Cedar Grove Association, succeeding the Rev. U. R. Booker of Roxboro. Other officers elected were: Rev. A. H. Parker, succeeding Rev. H. Albert Smith; Health and Fine Arts Building. The repertoire will include musical numbers depicting, South, East, West, Central and North Africa.

This is the first in the Summer Lyceum series at Saint Augustine's College. The public is invited without charge.

H. L. Gooch, succeeding H. E. Talley as recording secretary. Officers re-elected were: Mrs. L. B. Green, corresponding secretary; and Richard Timberlake, treasurer.

The Association operates a home for the aged, and has an assembly area on more than one hundred acres of land located in Creedmoor.

The newly-elected Moderator in addition to his pastoral duties is a member of the Durham County Mental Health Staff; Executive Board for College Ministry, North Carolina Central University; Youth Committee to the North Carolina Council of Churches; Mayor's Advisory Committee; and Chaplain in the U. S. Army Reserve with the rank of Major.

Meet some of the important people who help produce WATSON'S Chickens

Here you see a few of the Foremen at Watson Seafood and Poultry Company, where more than 500 people work together to supply you with the tastiest poultry at reasonable prices.

These and other Foremen earned their supervisory positions by working capably in other jobs and advancing up the payroll on their merit.

Good jobs with good pay for good workers—that is the policy at Watson Seafood and Poultry Company.

Watch for pictures of other Foremen; you may see some one you know—maybe a member of your family.

Ask for WATSON'S Chickens when you shop. They are prepared in Raleigh by people who want you to have the best.

WILLIE DOBBIN has been employed at Watson for 12 years and is a nighttime Foreman in the Evisceration Department.

THOMAS H. GEORGE, JR. Foreman in the Packing Line department, night shifts, has been with the company since 1956.

CHARLES L. SMITH is a Foreman on the night shift in the Cut Up line and has been with Watson 6 years.

HAYWOOD D. BUNCH started to work in 1963 for Watson and is presently a Foreman in the Evisceration department.
