

FUQUAY-VARINA

Fuquay - Varina News

BY MRS. LOUISE CAESAR
FUQUAY - VARINA - The First Baptist Sunday School opened at 10 a.m. with the supt., Mr. Alford Thorpe, in charge of the devotion.

The annual Men's Day was observed Sunday at the St. Augusta Freewill Baptist Church. The supt., Mr. Alex Bullock, was in charge. The pastor, Rev. J. M. Jackson, delivered the morning message. His theme was entitled, "A Body To Make Man."

Music was rendered by the male chorus, accompanied by Mr. Wilbert Thorpe. They sang beautifully. The welcoming address was given by Mr. George Harris and responded to by Mr. Nash Horton of Pittsboro.

Sunday at 2 p.m., there was a dinner given at the Fuquay-Varina Consolidated Lunch room for the benefit of the building fund of St. Augusta Church. Everyone enjoyed the fellowship. The sponsor was Mrs. Laura Chavis. The evening was a great success. On Sunday, July 20, the Rev. James Bowden was the dinner guest of Miss Annie Lee Blue.

Morning worship service was held at Rogers Chapel AME Zion Church at 11:30 a.m. The assistant pastor was the Rev. H. P. Rogers.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next Sunday morning, worship service will be held at First Baptist Church at 11:15. You are welcome to come and worship with us.

The annual picnic of First Baptist Sunday School will be held at White Lake August 2. The bus will leave from the First Baptist Church at 8 a.m. Parents, if your boy or girl is going, please have them at the church on time.

Mr. and Mrs. Needham McCullers and family have returned home after spending a week in Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Belinda Allen is vacationing for a week in Richmond, Va., visiting her uncle and friends.

Let us remember our sick and shut-in and pray for them.

Happy Birthday to Mrs. Alberta Smith, who will celebrate a birthday on August 1.

Eula Smith, Maurice and James Montgomery spent their vacation in Philadelphia, Pa. They visited Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Hattie Jones.

Mrs. Matilda Montgomery spent one month in Baltimore, Md., visiting her daughter, Miss Alice McFadden.

Mrs. Bertha McRae, Eula Smith, James Pearson, Beverly Holt and James Montgomery, attended a wedding in Richmond, Va., Saturday of Mary McRae Jr. and Dianne Turner. Mr. McRae is the stepson of Mrs. Bertha McRae.

A THOUGHT

O Lord, we thank Thee for suffering for our behalf. Strengthen us that we may be able to take up our cross in order to bring peace to every hyman being, for the Savior's sake.

Holly Springs News

BY MRS. CORETTA MERRITT
HOLLY SPRINGS - Sunday School was conducted at each of our churches at its usual hour by the superintendents.

Morning worship services were held at the Douglas Chapel AME Zion Church. The call to worship was made by the pastor, Rev. F. L. Rush. He used for his text, St. John's gospel 6:5-14. His theme was "I'm the Bread Of Life." He emphasized the facts that we must have faith in Jesus and we first must organize ourselves. then we can do service for God.

Angier News

BY MRS. POLLY TAYLOR
ANGIER - Worship services at Williams Chapel AME Zion Church on Sunday morning, began with the choir singing "Steal Away To Jesus." Rev. William M. Freeman gave the call to worship. Prayer was offered by Rev. Freeman. The choir sang, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." The responsive reading was from the Book of Psalms 8, followed by the affirmation of faith. The scripture lesson was from the gospel of St. Luke chapter 2. Prayer of compassion was offered by Rev. Rudolph Cutts.

A thought - provoking and splendid message which was very suitable for our time, was delivered by Rev. Freeman. He chose his text from Psalms 8:3-4, "When I consider the works of Thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which Thou hast ordained; what is man that Thou art mindful of him?" His subject was "Man On the Moon, Not the Greatest Event In the History Of Mankind." In his message, he emphasized that God was so powerful and intelligent as to make the moon and stars and place them in the elements - we can not understand the works of God, we are too small to understand; Christ said, "greater things you can do than I have done because I am going home to my Father." Man is an instrument of God. He made him to have dominion over the universe. Man on the moon is a great event. The greatest event was the birth of Jesus, a Saviour who is Christ, the Lord; the resurrection and ascension of Christ who went out beyond the moon and the stars into heaven with God. Will man abuse his accomplishments?

We wish a speedy recovery for Mrs. Inez Lee, who is at Wake Memorial Hospital, Raleigh, and also Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Lee, who are improving at home after an automobile accident Friday night.

Happy birthday to Mr. Billy Taylor, who observed a birthday July 31.

Central cities in large metropolitan areas still account for two-thirds of their area's employment, despite recent increases in employment in suburban areas.
