

FAYETTEVILLE-CUMBERLAND FIRST LADIES BOOST FASHION SHOW-The first ladies of Fayetteville-Cumberland County, Mrs. J. N. McGillis (extreme left) and Mrs. C. B. C. Holt, (second from right) received the initial tickets for the Ebony Fashion Show, October 23, from Mrs. S. X. Allen, President of Chums, Inc., the sponsoring organization. Looking on is Mrs. E. T. Felton, chairman of the ticket committee. Mrs. McGillis and Mrs. Holt are wives of the chairman of the Cumberland county commissioner and city mayor, respectively.

NEW FSU PREXY FETED AT RECEPTION - Fayetteville State University's new president, Dr. Charles Lyons, (extreme right) receives cordial greetings at a recent reception. With Dr. Lyons are (l-r) Mrs. Rudolph Jones, wife of the former president; and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gaines. Gaines is head basketball coach.

Cumberland County Community Action Center
EMERGENCY FOOD PROGRAM GRANT SIGNED OFF BY GOVERNOR SCOTT
Mr. William J. Bowser, Executive Director of Cumberland

Who needs SAFETY
FIAT believes you do!
Protect yourself and your loved ones with these safety features when you buy a car.

The Fabulous FIAT FASTBACK 850 COUPE
Here are the safety features you're looking for:
• Disc brakes up-front
• Safety positioned inside door handles
• Independently fused head and tail lights
• Front seat belts
• Dual windshield washers
• Electric windshield wipers
• Safety padded dash
• Safety padded sunvisors
• Courtesy lights
• Safety front hinged trunk lid
See it today—drive it away!

BLEECKER RAMBLER
FIAT—JAGUAR
114-116 E. Russell St.
Fayetteville, N. C. 28301
Phone 483-3268

Community Action Program, Inc., has received notice that CCAP's Emergency Food and Medical Program for $25,000 has been signed off by Governor Bob Scott. The program is expected to begin as soon as staff can be hired.
The program allows for vouchers up to $25. on a one-time basis for use to purchase food for emergency situations. It also includes funds for school lunch supplements and special dietary foods (where needed) for young children and older adults.
Funds have also been provided for medical help in connection with malnutrition. A certification committee will be set up composed of one member from the Conduct and Administration Staff, one from

FSC Professor Attending An Afro-American Experience
CHICAGO, Ill. - Participating in the Afro-American Experience, a six week summer institute for college teachers at Roosevelt University, Chicago, Mrs. Natalie Williams of the English faculty, Fayetteville State, North Carolina, is attending classes led by experts from the United States and abroad.
Sponsored by the African and Afro-American Studies Program of Roosevelt University in cooperation with the National Endowment for the Humanities,

Coming Events in The Auditorium
The following events have been scheduled at Memorial Auditorium for the next several weeks. Information on tickets is available at the auditorium box office and in newspaper advertisements.
July 30 - Country Shindig at 8 p.m. in the auditorium, starring Merle Haggard, The Strangers, Bonnie Owens and Freddie Hart.
Aug. 1 - Sou'l Festival 1969 starring The Impressions, The Dells, The Winstons, Barbara Acklin, The Unifics, Sad Sam and all-star band in the arena.
Aug. 4 - Wrestling at 8:30 p.m. in the arena.
Aug. 15 - Gospel Music with the Singing Rambos, Sego Brothers and Naomi and others, in the auditorium.

Shop Sam's And Save!
SAM'S STORE
131-218 Person St. Fayetteville, N. C. 28301
Phone 483-7004-483-3457

Youth Council Activities

Prepared By Members of The Fayetteville Youth Council
The FYC was proud to have as guest speaker Wednesday night, the Rev. Robert Barefoot of Smithville. He spoke of starting a youth revival here in Fayetteville and the Wilmington area.

Members of the Wilmington Youth Council also attended our FYC meeting last Wednesday night and another group from Wilmington will be coming next Wednesday night to observe our meetings.
There will be a dance FOR ALL at Rowan Street Recreation Center. Admission price is only $1. All college and senior high students are cordially invited to attend. The date is August 2, from 8-12. George Williams and the Ambassadors will be playing.

The FYC members presented a play, "Everyman Today" last Thursday and Friday nights. It is our sincere hope that everyone enjoyed the play. Patrice Walker, director, was presented a gift by FYC in appreciation of her hard work on this project.

Robert McPhail, our YCNC district director is really on the go!!! Last Monday night he spoke to the Lumberton City Council about starting a Youth Council there. Also, Friday he went to Wilmington to participate on a panel discussion on the Youth Council Bill.

Be sure to tune in today at noon and listen to a lively discussion on teenage drinking. A representative from A. A. will lead the discussion. Also on the show will be Elizabeth Gambill, David Freeman, De Grebner, and Pat Long. There has been a lot of preparation for this show, so it ought to be a good one.

We recognize David Freeman for his hard work on our play and for selling the most tickets!

Next Week In Fayetteville

- Aug. 1 - Queen Esther Chapter No. 3, OES, 7 p.m., Friday, Prince Hall Mason Temple, 515 Caswell St.
- Aug. 2 - Sign of Joy Youth Department, 3 p.m., Saturday, Prince Hall Mason Temple, 515 Caswell St.
- Aug. 4 - Ada Chapter No. 31, OES, 3 p.m., Monday, Prince Hall Mason Temple, 515 Caswell St.
- Aug. 4 - Eureka Lodge No. 3, 8 p.m., Monday, Prince Hall Mason Temple, 515 Caswell St.
- Aug. 5 - Young Men's Social Club, 8 p.m., Tuesday, Cape Fear Gardens Recreation Center, Old Wilmington Rd.
- Aug. 5 - Silver Square Lodge No. 791, 8 p.m., Tuesday, Prince Hall Mason Temple, Caswell St.
- Aug. 7 - Newtown Oddfellows, 8 p.m., Thursday, Prince Hall Mason Temple, 515 Caswell St.

Organizations and groups wishing to post meeting notices in this column may do so by calling Fayetteville 488-5386 by noon on Mondays for publication the following Wednesday.
Deadline for Fayetteville Area news (social, church, births, deaths, pictures, etc.) is 12:00 noon on Mondays at 721 Eccles Drive, Fayetteville 28301.
Call Fayetteville 488-5386 for advertising and subscription service.

Miss Turner Acting Head Of FSU English

FAYETTEVILLE - President Rudolph Jones has announced the appointment of Miss Lois P. Turner as acting chairman, department of English at Fayetteville State University.
Miss Turner follows Edward D. Clark, who has been granted a year's leave of absence to complete the work toward his doctorate at Syracuse University during the academic year 1969-70.
Miss Turner, who has coordinated the university's Speech and Drama Area since 1945, will relinquish those duties to Ernest T. Battle, assistant professor of English.
Both appointments are effective September 1.

the Institute is designed primarily for faculty members from predominantly white or predominantly Negro colleges in the South.
Connie Mack managed the Philadelphia Athletics from 1901 to 1950.
The National Baseball Hall of Fame includes at least two umpires: Bill Klem and Tom Connolly.
Yankee Stadium was the biggest baseball park in the country when it opened in 1923. Its seating capacity is listed at 67,000.
Go To Church

HENDERSON-OXFORD-WARRENTON

Henderson News

BY L. B. RUSSELL
HENDERSON - As this is being written, the sad and unexpected death of Mr. James Owen Cheek is being broadcast by the local news agency. Mr. Cheek was found dead on a cot in his living room at 709 Champion Street Thursday afternoon by a friend who lives at the same address. It was reported that he was partially dressed in shorts and partially covered by a blanket. The report was made public by officer Dan Stanley and Patrolman M. E. Levister of the police department, who were called to the scene. The coroner was called and the body was taken to the Williams Funeral Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carpenter of 519 N. Chestnut St. had their family reunion on July 4 with other members of the family, Mr. George Russell and his family and Mr. Herman Durham and his family. Out-of-town for the week were Mrs. Victoria Alston of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ellison of New York City, Mrs. Beatrice Barnhart and two children, Charles, Jr., and daughter, Michele, Miss Delois Carpenter and son, Joel, Mr. and Mrs. King A. Camel and sister-in-law, Miss Virginia Hargrove, all from Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Annie Bullock and Miss Irene Durham, both of Philadelphia, Pa.

The barbeque was held in the back yard of the Carpenter home.
Mrs. Carrie Russell of 245 Hillside Avenue was the happy hostess to Mrs. Janice Russell, her daughter-in-law and children from Brockton, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. William E. Russell, her son and daughter-in-law from Philadelphia, Pa., and their two children.

Mrs. Emma Jones Washington spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Carrie Jones, Mrs. Washington is from Haddonfield, N. J.
Mrs. Alice Grant of New York City was the weekend guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie T. Chavis of 407 Ranson St. She was accompanied by her two children, Charlie and Anthony Grant.
ST. ANDREWS UNITED CHURCH NEWS
BY MISS VICKIE FIELDS
The topic of our Sunday School was "Heirs of the Covenant."
The convenor selection was "Now we, brethren, like Isaac, are children of promise," Gal. 4:28. The lesson scripture was taken from Genesis.

Our pastor, Rev. W. J. Wilson, preached the homecoming sermon at New Bethel Baptist Church Sunday, July 27. The senior choir rendered music. The Dixie Grove choir rendered music, also, and their pastor was present.
Devotional services were led by Mrs. M. Wilkerson and Theresa Cook. Then the Dixie Grove's choir sang "Back to the Dust." The welcoming address was given by Mr. Robert Foster, after which our own Mr. J. T. Marrow gave the response. Another selection by the Dixie Grove choir was "Won't It Be Grand." Homecoming remarks were made by Mr. Lewis

Dr. Butler, 49 years of age, has had an interesting and brilliant career since receiving his B. S. degree from Talladega, and his master's and doctorate in philosophy from the University of Michigan.
He served for 16 years in Wayne University, Detroit, where he was associate director of human relations. He also served in the Office of the U. S. Commissioner of Education.
He was cited by the Michigan Chronicle as "Citizens of the Year" in 1962, and served on many boards in Detroit, receiving some 14 awards for this service.

He was a staff sergeant during World War II with the 332nd Fighter Group. He is married and the father of two teenaged children. He assumes office Sept. 1.
Sandy Koufax struck out 382 batters in 1965, a major-league record.
The record for the most shutouts in one season is held by Grover Cleveland Alexander. He pitched 16 shutouts in 1916.
Don Drysdale pitched a record 58 2/3 consecutive scoreless innings in 1968.

Christian - Harward FURNITURE COMPANY, INC.
401 SOUTH GARNETT ST. HENDERSON, N. C. 27536

HENDERSON MUSIC CO.
Extends Courtesy To All Customers And Appreciates Their Trade
DIAL 438-4786
108 GARNETT STREET HENDERSON, N. C.

GOODYEAR MOTOROLA-NORGE-QUALITY FURNITURE
Thomas Woods
602 S. GARNETT ST. HENDERSON - PHONE 438-5151

is in which he said a fine brick home with hatred and violence was not a home, but an old house with peace and love was a home of God. He also read some remarks from St. Luke and St. Mark which pertained to the home.
Presentation of the speaker was made by their pastor, Rev. Bryant, after which St. Andrew's Senior Choir sang "Amazing Grace." Our pastor, Rev. Wilson, prayed and started his sermon. He preached from the 10th chapter and 1st verse of Samuel. His text was "Where Is He?" In his discourse, he said to find out where Jesus is we must live the life of a Christian and love one another, and we will know where Jesus is. Our pastor sang "The Last Mile Of The Way," along with the congregation and prayer was offered by Rev. Trayer. The offering was lifted by Mr. J. Nicholson and Mr. Lewis. Solos were sung by Mrs. Mary Nicholson and Mrs. Jettie Russell. The Dixie Grove choir sang "There Must Be A Heaven Somewhere," and St. Andrew's senior choir closed the service with a hymn. The whole day had been very successful. Rev. Wilson will preach a Homecoming service at St. James Church on the first Sunday in August.

Dr. Butler New Prexy Of Dillard
NEW ORLEANS-(NPI)-Dr. Broadus Butler, a native of Mobile, Ala., presently dean of arts and sciences, Texas Southern University, has been selected president of Dillard University. He succeeds Dr. Albert W. Dent, who retires Aug. 31 after 28 years of highly successful administration of the school.

Today's Baffler is a true-false test of what you know about recent events. Find the correct news items, and tell what is wrong with the incorrect ones.
Scoring: 8-10; excellent; 6-7; good; 4-5; fair; 0-3; poor. Bonus Questions count a total of two points. Other questions count one point each. Here's the quiz:
1. A suspected alliance between Kenya leader Jomo Kenyatta and Black-power advocate Stokely Carmichael is seen by Dr. St. Claire Drake, sociology professor at Chicago's Roosevelt University.

2. SNCC has changed its name, while keeping its initials. The organization's new name, the Student Negro Community conference, indicates SNCC's determination to be a Black-only group.
3. James Brown, "Soul Brother No. 1" to his millions of followers, declared he was "appalled" by a paternity suit filed against him by the former president of his fan club in California.
4. President Richard M. Nixon is "ruling the roost" in Congress, where his proposal to revise and extend the 1965 Voting Rights Act is on its way to passage.
5. Charles Evers, mayor of Fayette, Miss., had acknowledged that his city is in a major financial crisis, but he plans to "get the money from somewhere."

6. The fabled home of the blues, Beale street in Memphis, where W. C. Handy first played his "St. Louis Blues," is due for rebirth under urban renewal.
7. In Milwaukee, the Black Panthers are raising funds to bid for purchase of the Blatz operations of Pabst Brewing Company.
8. The Institute of Race Relations, noting that the Black population of Great Britain is rapidly growing, has urged that no more Blacks be allowed to take up residence in the British Isles.

BONUS QUESTION: (Each counts one point.)
--A. Within 100,000, tell how many Black people are estimated to be in Great Britain at present.
--B. Within 100,000, tell how many U. S. Negroes are susceptible to sickle-cell anemia.
ANSWERS:
1. False. The alliance is said to be between Carmichael and Kwame Nkrumah, president-in-exile of Ghana.
2. False. The new name is Student National Coordinating committee. The name was changed to remove the word "Non-Violent."
3. True.
4. False. His proposed revision of the 1965 Voting Rights act is not given much chance of passage.
5. True.
6. True.
7. False. The organization is the United Black Enterprises, not the Black Panthers.

ALLEN PURE SERVICE
529 N. GARNETT STREET
HENDERSON, N. C. 27536
ALVIN ALLEN, JR.
Owner
MECHANIC ON DUTY
CLARENCE KINGBERRY
PHONE 438-5869

Consumer Credit COMPANY
Loans For All Needs
Across from Woolworth's
121 S. GARNETT ST.
Phone 438-4113
HENDERSON, N. C.
Maxine Tillotson, Mgr.

Warrenton Furniture Exchange
TELEPHONE 257-3693
WARRENTON, NORTH CAROLINA
Complete Household Furnishings

One Hour "MARTINIZING"
THE MOST IN DRY CLEANING
WE DRY CLEAN ON SATURDAYS
DRIVE-UP SERVICE
HENDERSON, N. C.

"Shop And Save" The 7-11 Way!
7-11 N. Garnett St.
Open 7:00 A. M. To 11:00 P. M.
7 Days A Week
SELF SERVICE
Super Market Prices
Free Parking

7-11 AND HUMPTY DUMPTY FOOD STORES
MEMBERS BETTER VAL-U-STORES, INC.

Free Parking
Humpty Dumpty
Norlina Road
Open 9:00 A. M. To 11:00 P. M.
7 Days A Week
SELF SERVICE
Super Market Prices