

A BREATH OF LIFE-BOSON, MASS.: Paramedic Thomas Stack gives mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to Giga Wilson, 5, after she was nearly strangled to death by an automobile door here August 11. Looking on, left, is one of the child's neighbors, one of the 15 persons who helped move the car which had rolled some 25 feet after slipping out of gear, ending up against a fence, trapping the child, (UPI).

Civil Rights Commission Blasts State, Local Bodies On Job Bias

WASHINGTON, D. C. - The U. S. Commission on Civil Rights declared Tuesday that State and local governments have failed to assure equal job opportunities to member of minority groups and recommended that Congress amend the Civil Rights Act of 1964 to bring these now exempt governments under nondiscrimination in employment requirements of that act.

It also noted that the Federal Government has itself "failed to exert leadership to protect the rights of minority group members in State and local government" and recommend the passage of legislation authorizing the withholding of Federal funds from any State or local public agency discriminating against any employee or job applicant who is, or would be compensated in part by, or involved, in administering programs or activities assisted by such funds.

These recommendations are among a number contained in a Commission study of public employment in seven contained in a Commission study of public employment in seven metropolitan areas that revealed the presence of discriminatory elements in State and local government personnel systems which restrict opportunities for minority groups.

Specific steps were suggested for affirmative action programs in the areas of recruitment, selection of employees, placement and promotion, discipline and facilities.

The Commission pointed out

Say Cleaver Will Return To The US

CHICAGO (NPI) - Eldridge Cleaver, self-exiled Black Panther minister of defense, will return to the United States within six months, it has been reported.

According to the Panthers' minister of education, Raymond Hewitt, Cleaver has lawyers working to arrange his legal return to the United States. But illegal moves fail, Cleaver will return anyway, Hewitt added.

Cleaver fled the United States last November to avoid arrest on charge of parole violation and aggravated battery in connection with a gun battle with police in California.

Hewitt and Panther Minister of Culture Emory Douglas said they conferred with Cleaver in Algeria during the recent Pan African Cultural festival held (See CLEAVER, P. 2) that State and local governments have a responsibility to alter any laws, regulations and practices which stand in the way (See CR BODY, P. 2)

Director Of Youth Center Interviewed

A disturbance at the Youth Center, located in the 200 block of S. East Street Monday afternoon, resulted in the arrest of Eddie Lee Smith, 18-year-old resident of 812 Cape Street, on charges of disorderly conduct, resisting arrest and assault and battery.

A CAROLINIAN representative interviewed several bystanders on Tuesday, all of whom stated the incident began with an argument inside the Center between an unidentified teenage boy and girl.

Asked to leave the Center several times by center director, Leon Davis, he finally called police headquarters. The boy is alleged to have fled upon seeing the cops. However, several other teenagers allegedly followed the officers out of the building, Davis stated.

Witnesses declared that a number of other police cars were called to the scene, and said Smith was arrested after being manhandled, squirted with tear gas and kicked by officers in the lower part of his stomach. Officer J. L. Arrington said he was bitten on the thumb during the melee.

Police Officer J. L. Arrington said he and Officer R. W. Miller answered a disturbance call (See YOUTH CENTER, P. 2)

To Board Of Trustees NUL Names Two Activists

Zion Church Divided Over Manifesto

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 28, NO. 42

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1969

SINGLE COPY 15c

A. Barnes Reports On Division

DURHAM - Alexander Barnes, director, Public Relations Department, A.M.E. Zion Church, when questioned here Tuesday about a story that appeared in the New York Times, as to the denomination's stand on the Black Manifesto, as it relates to reparations to the black community, said that his investigation revealed that there were two camps.

A story appeared in the N. Y. Times, dated August 6, carried a head, which read "Forman Backed by Negro Church" with a subhead which read "Reparations Idea is favored by A.M.E. Zion Panel." Bishop Felix Anderson, secretary, Board of Bishops, Louisville, Ky., declared the headlines misleading and the accompanying story untrue.

Bishop H. B. Shaw, Wilmington, chosen at the summer meeting of the Board, in Montgomery, Ala., July 30-August 1, who presided over the meeting of the Connectional Council, composed of the bishops and policy-makers, is reported as saying that the Council adopted a resolution that accepted the principles of the manifesto, as guidelines to be studied by the denomination and to be adhered to according to the dictates of one's conscience.

Bishop Anderson stated that the matter was on the agenda for discussion by the bishops, but due to the time element, (See ZION CHURCH, P. 2)

His Father Was Fighting Mother Boy Kills Dad Here

At Youth Center Here

Says Fight Provoked

FEUD BREWING IN FAYETTE - Fayette, Miss.: A feud is brewing in this town over the Medgar Evers Memorial Monument and apparently it will have to be settled in court. The one-ton marble monument was placed in the town's only park July 7th for Charles Evers' inaugural ceremony as the new mayor. It was supposed to have been moved after the festivities. It wasn't. The town Board of Supervisors ordered it moved from the Confederate Park August 11, saying it was placed there without their authorization. Evers, along with his son in this photo, said it would not be moved and would be left there permanently. (UPI).

Black Americans Invited To "Directions" Confab

DETROIT - All black people in America are invited to a major directional convention in Washington, D. C., this month, August 21 through August 24, as the Republic of New Africa, opens its "First Year on the Land" in Mississippi, challenges the Panthers, the Black (See ALL BLACKS, P. 2)

The Crime Beat

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILE

THROWN OUT OF HOUSE

Miss Minnie Pearl Forte, 22, 534 E. Martin Street, told Officer J. L. Arrington at 7:03 p.m. Friday, that she was visiting at the residence of her sister, 125 Idlewild Avenue when Phillip Murray, 30, same address, jumped on her and started beating her about the head and kicking her on the legs. Miss Forte said that, "He started with a quarrel with his wife (believed to be the complainant's sister) and he threw me out of the house onto the sidewalk. An assault and battery warrant was signed by Miss Forte and Murray was arrested."

ASSAULTS TWO OFFICERS

Officers Jimmy Max Glover, 25, and Floyd I. Denton, 48, were assaulted by a 19-year-old subject here at 4 a.m. Friday. Glover said he was chasing Joseph Chavis 1112 E. Martin Street, in the 300 block of E. Davis Street, after Chavis had assaulted Officer Denton, and was pushed off when he was apprehended the first time. Officer Denton said he was attempting to prevent Chavis from leaving the police car when Chavis struck him in the face and ran. He was apprehended in the 300 block of S. Bloodworth Street and now faces two counts of assault on an officer. Neither officer was hurt. (See CRIME BEAT, P. 2)

Owen Nichols Joins Cheek At Howard

WASHINGTON, D. C. Owen D. Nichols, Raleigh, N. C. native, and director of the Office of Technical Information and Publications of the National Air Pollution Control Adminisgraduated with honors from that institution as class valedictorian in 1955, and received the M. S. degree in physical chemistry at Howard University in 1958. He did additional graduate work in information sciences at American University on a part-time basis from 1963 through 1966.

Beginning his professional career as a glassblower and equipment technician at Howard in 1957, Mr. Nichols became an associate professor of chemistry at South Carolina State College in 1958. He returned to Washington in 1959 to accept a position as research chemist with the U. S. Naval Research Laboratory, and remained there until 1962 when he became a physical science specialist with the Defense Documentation Center in Alexandria, Virginia.

Four years later, in 1966, he was appointed technical information specialist for the Air Pollution Technical Information Center, National Air Pollution Control Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. In that position he served as deputy to the chief of APTIC, and participated in the overall operation of the Information Center.

Last year, he became director of the Office of Technical Information and Publications, administering a comprehensive program to provide technical (See NICHOLS JOINS, P. 2)

MICHAEL R. ALSTON

12-Inch Butcher Knife Used

A 15-year-old boy, due to enter John W. Ligon High School in September, plunged a 12-inch butcher knife into the back of his father here last Wednesday morning and killed him instantly.

Michael Robin Alston, 1123 Gregg Street, is now being held at the Wake County Detention Home, E. Whitaker Mill Road, according to Police Lt. John (See BOY 15, P. 2)

Pythians To Hear Koontz

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. - Four major attractions will highlight the 45th biennial session of the Supreme Lodge of Knights of Pythias and Order of Calanthe set for Aug. 17-20 at the Tutwiler Hotel here.

Dr. Elizabeth Duncan Koontz, Director of the Women's Bureau in the Department of Labor, will be the featured speaker at the public meeting set for 7:30 Sunday evening, Aug. 17 at the Tutwiler Hotel. She will be introduced by Dr. J. King Chandler III, president of Daniel Payne College.

Mrs. Koontz is a former president of the National Education Association and the Association of Classroom Teachers.

The Supreme Lodge, meeting in Birmingham and the South for the first in its history, will hold Memorial Services at 2 p.m., Sunday, August 17 at the Tutwiler, Convention (See MRS. KOONTZ, P. 2)

CONFER ON EQUAL EMPLOYMENT - Washington - Before leaving on a month stay in California, President Nixon held a conference August 9 with William Brown, Director of the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission, on legislation enabling the commission to bring suit in cases involving violations in equal employment. Attending the discussion are, left to right, Nixon, Brown, Robert J. Brown a Presidential assistant and Arthur Burns, counselor to the President. (UPI).

SWEEPSTAKES

2753 $10	3055 $5	1754 $10
--------------	-------------	--------------

Anyone having current GREEN tickets, dated August 2, 1969, with proper numbers, present same to The CAROLINIAN office and receive amount listed above from the SWEEPSTAKES Feature.

Two Win Sweepstakes Cash

Two ladies claimed a total of $45 in CAROLINIAN Sweepstakes cash last week. Mrs. Frances Falvey, 2402 Van Dyke Avenue, visited National Health Foods, 8 E. Hargett Street, where she received lucky ticket number 132. When she presented this ticket at The CAROLINIAN, she was awarded the $5 second prize money.

Mrs. Mary Denning, 1220 Smithfield Street, won the whopping amount of $40. The employee of Woolworth Store has never won the Sweepstakes before. (See SWEEPSTAKES, P. 2)

N. C. GOVERNOR FREES FIVE ON ARSON RAPS - Raleigh, N. C.: These five young Negroes leave prison August 12 after being given gubernatorial clemency by Gov. Scott after serving two months of a twelve year sentence for setting fire to a Ku Klux Klan meeting hall. (L to R) Percy Barfield, 17; Fredrick Lockamy, 18; Jesse Jones, 21; Dubois Gather, 20; and Leo Stewart, 19. (UPI).