BY MRS. LOUISE COLVIN

APEX - The Gospel Chorus of First Baptist Church was in charge of the devotion for the 11 o'clock service. Mr. Nathaniel Lofton is pianist and Mrs. Frances Marrow was soloist.

The pastor, Rev. J. E. Perkins, brought an interesting sermon. His text was taken from the Book of James 3:1-12. He used for his subject "The Tongue." The message was most fitting and timely.

MRS. COLVIN

We are most happy to add to our church family, Mrs. Loomis Horton, II and their two children, Loomis, III, and Kimberly. Also joining were Delphine McClain and sister, Denise and Nathaniel Lofton. Visitors worshipping with us were Mrs. Willie M. Stewart, Miss Valerie Walker and the little Phillips sisters. Visitors are always welcomed at First Baptist.

Sunday afternoon at 3, the Rev. J. E. Perkins, the senior choir and the gospel chorus rendered the first anniversary service for Rev. C. T. Bellamy who is pastor of the White Oak Baptist Church. Mrs. Josephine Farrar and Mr. John Fuller conducted the services. Miss Marie Harrington read the scripture; Mr. Macy Gee gave the invocation; Mr. Leon Herndon, the welcoming address; Mrs. Louise Colvin, the response; Mr. Henry Mason introduced Rev. Perkins, who delivered an interesting and fitting sermon. His text was taken from the 10th chapter of the Book of Romans 13-15. It was a textual sermon.

The auxiliaries presented Rev. Bellamy with gifts. The sponsor thanked the guests and friends who contributed their fine support to make this occasion a success.

Sunday evening at 7:30, Mrs. Teresa Coffield was the sponsor of a service rendered by Rev. Robert L. Fuller of Durham. He is pastor of the Hatched Grove Baptist Church and his choir attended. Rev. Fuller delivered an interesting sermon from the Book of St. Luke 10:3. His subject "Go Forward, ASBURY - Sunday School opened at 9:40 a.m. with the superintendent, Mr. Charles Rogers, in charge. The opening hymn was "I Must Tell Jesus." Prayer was given by Mr. Marshall Brown. The second hymn, "Jesus Is Called," was then sung. The subject of the lesson was "God With His People." The scripture was read from the Book of Exodus. A review of the lesson was made by Mrs. Lucille Cotton. Miss Linda Evans, Lincolntonville's Sunday School delegate, gave her report.

Sunday School officers for 1969-'70 are: superintendent, Mr. Charles Rogers; first Bible class teacher, Mr. James White; second teacher, Miss Nellie McKnight; third teacher, Mrs. Lucille Cotton; and fourth teacher, Miss Clarice Perry. Miss Margaret Louise Matthews is secretary and Mr. Melvin Jones, treasurer.

The morning services opened at 11:05 with Rev. E. M. Jennerette presiding. The junior choir rendered the music. Prayer was offered by Mr. Moses Jones. The scripture and text were taken from the 14th chapter of St. Luke. Holy Communion was distributed.

A THOUGHT

"If we turn aside from following God, and do not keep His commandments, then He will cut us off from His goodness."

Spread Out And Conquer," was a thought-provoking topic. The service was a most successful one.
