Come to Church

MRS. MAY L. BROADIE

"O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home. Before the hills in ardor stood, or earth received her frame from everlasting, Thou art God, to endless years the same. A thousand ages in Thy sight, are like an evening gone short as the watch that ends the night, before the rising sun.
Time, like an ever rolling stream, bears all its sons away. Thy fly, forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.
O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, be Thou our guide while life drear lasts, and our eternal home.

Dear God, we come with thankful hearts to thank you for our blessings. Help us to draw closer to Thee with deepest adoration and reverence.
We thank Thee for guiding us past the shores and rocks which would destroy us. We thank Thee for Thy voice which comes when we stop to listen. Help us to look to Thee when we are confused by life's ways.
May we not live selfishly, but let Thy grace so dwell within us that Thy sweetness and gentleness shall influence the people around us. May the perfume of Thy love draw all men to a complete surrender of themselves. We pray this, in the name of Jesus, our pilot, Amen.

ferings were lifted and consec-a very beautiful spiritual before the pastor began his message. The theme of the message was again, "Give Me That Old Time Religion." The Book of Jude has more to say about this theme than any other and our pastor, in this series, has pointed out the many factors in having what is termed an old time religion. In Sunday's message, these factors were discussed: 1. Separation of groups of people (a) those who were going to be saved and (b) those who are going to be lost. He also emphasized the fact that we are better trained, better equipped and wiser, yet, we have more perils, more hardship and more confusion, because we still won't accept the fact that God's ways is still as far above man's as heaven is above earth.

Immediately after this wonderful and enlightening message an invitational hymn was sung. A hymn of fellowship followed and prayer for the sick was next. The benediction concluded the morning hour of worship.

Revival services began at Maple Temple on Monday night and will continue until Friday, August 29. The speaker will

Your professional beautician knows the answer...

Why does some hair break off when combing?

Your hair is precious and delicate. ...and none of us like to see it break off for any reason. Scientists tell us that excessive use of hot combs and over-processing of hair with chemicals often are major causes of brittleness resulting in hair breakage. But hair that is naturally curly and tangles easily frequently breaks off in everyday combing. Notice how irritated your scalp becomes when you comb in contrast to the way your beautician does?
Your professional beautician knows that curly hair mats and tangles so easily that it should be softened before combing.
Otherwise, unnecessary irritation to the scalp and damage to the shaft and ends of the hair occurs. To achieve this needed softening and a temporary relaxing effect that prevents breakage on all human hair (including wigs), most beauticians rely on Clairol® Hair-So-New® spray on creme rinse. For combing ease and for beautifying your hair in many other ways, trained beauticians stock a complete family of fine Clairol products for your specific needs.

Visit your expert hairdresser, who cares about your hair care and your comfort. Whatever the nature of your hair problems, only your professional beautician knows the answer for sure.
