BY MRS. LOUISE COLVIN

APEX - The fifth Sunday services opened with the junior choir, male and gospel choruses rendering the music for the 11 o'clock worship service. Miss Floya Cotton is pianist for the junior choir. Mr. Nathaniel Lofton accompanied the male and gospel choruses. Mrs. Barbara Jean Cross was soloist and performed beautifully. Nathaniel was her accompanist.

We were happy to see our guest speaker, a friend and neighbor of First Baptist, Rev. C. C. Craig, of Raleigh, who delivered a most fitting sermon. He is a messenger and assistant executive secretary of the North Carolina Baptist Convention. He is a Carolina Baptist Convention. He is a very busy man and we considered it an honor to obtain his services. We were also happy to have Mrs. Craig, Deborah and Calvin, Jr., wife and children of the speaker, Mr. Raymond Carter of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Bigelow of Durham, Mrs. Lea Hayes of New York and Mrs. Rebecca Faison of Asbury also attended the services.

Bro. Ed Hall and his singers will sponsor a program at the First Baptist Church on Sunday evening at 7:30. We invite our many friends to attend.

The week of August 17-22 was revival week at First Baptist and a wonderful week of fellowship with our many friends of other churches, who contributed greatly spiritually and financially. Monday night, we had as our guest speaker, Rev. Doroth of Burlington, who was dinner guest of the Evangelist and Rev. Perkins. His choir of Pleasant Union Christian Church accompanied him. Mr. Leonard Wilson was organist.

On Tuesday night, the Christian Home Choir participated in the service. Their pastor, Rev. Burwell of Norfolk, Va., was unable to attend. Rev. and Mrs. Burwell of Raleigh came as dinner guests.

On Wednesday night, a portion of the Felton Grove Church choir contributed musically and their pastor, Rev. Odell Davis and his wife, and daughter of Pittsboro were dinner guests.

On Thursday night, our own senior choir rendered the music for the service.

On Friday night, the Greater Saint Paul Gospel Chorus of Durham gushed the music with Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Bigelow as guests. Dr. Bigelow could not stay for the service due to prior commitments at his own church. All of our musical groups led the devotion for the night they were featured. It was a wonderful week and we greatly appreciate all of our visitors who worshipped with us and to the ladies for the very delicious dinners nightly. The evangelist was W. A. Carter of Washington, D. C.

On Sunday afternoon at 2, the junior choir of First Baptist Church rendered music on a Woman's Day service at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church in the Friendship Community.

On Sunday evening at 8, the youth usher board sponsored a program at the church. Conducting the program were Miss Carol Tabron and Mr. Donald Richardson. Dwight Wright read the scripture; Mrs. Lottie Page offered prayer; Josette Price and Rosalyn Price rendered solos; Ronald Richardson gave an instrumental solo; Donald Richardson read a poem.

Evangelist Evelyn Cook delivered the sermon from the Book of Revelations 3:1-3. Her theme was "Come Alive." Mrs. Docia Evans then offered a reading entitled "Amen." Background music was provided by Ronald Richardson. We were happy to have Rev. Robertson and Rev. Watkins of Raleigh drop in and give timely remarks.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Lancy Caudle, Jr. and Miss Queen Hunter spent the Labor Day holiday in Newark, N. J., visiting Mr. Caudle's uncle and Mrs. Caudle's cousins and aunt, all of Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Bigelow of Durham were the dinner guests Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Cofield. They had a lovely visit and dinner.

Mr. Vance Wilson and friend, Mrs. Ethel Bridges were guests of the Colvin home Sunday afternoon. It was an enjoyable visit. They both live in Fayetteville. It is always nice when friends drop in on us.

A THOUGHT

No one has failed so long as he can begin again. For yesterday is but a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision, and today well-lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and tomorrow a vision of hope.

Currents Events Bafflers

BY NEGRO PRESS INTERNATIONAL

In today's Baffler, five news items will be given—each of their incorrect. Your task is to find what is wrong with each statement.

Scoring: 7: excellent; 6: good; 4-5: fair; 0-3: poor. Bonus Questions count a total of two points. Other questions count one point each. Here's the quiz:

1. The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, SCLC president, has come to Chicago to aid a campaign against racially restrictive housing practices in the city's high-rise buildings.

2. There are now about 3.5 million Black registered voters in the 11 Southern states—about twice as many as there were in 1944.

3. In the wake of the devastation wrought by Hurricane Camille, white and Black Mississippi battled violently over housing and food for the homeless.

4. President Nixon now has what he wants: An all-white U. S. Supreme court amenable to his conservative views.

5. The President, in proposing his new assistance program, has vowed to do away with the food-stamp program.

***

BONUS QUESTION: (Each counts one point.)

--A. The first Black man to seek the gubernatorial nomination in North Carolina has begun his campaign drive anew to win the post in 1972. Who is he?

--B. Name President Nixon's two favorite ministers, and describe their stands on civil rights.

***

ANSWERS:

1. The campaign is against racially restrictive hiring practices in the building trades unions.

2. In 1944, there were only 250,000 Black voters in the South—about 1/14 the number today.

3. There was no violence between homeless Black and white Mississippians. The tragedy brought them together, for a little while at least.

4. Thurgood Marshall, a Black man, continues to serve on the Supreme court.

5. Administration officials say the food-stamp program will not be abolished.

***

BONUS ANSWERS:

--A. Dr. Reginald A. Hawkins.

--B. The Revs. Billy Graham and Norman Vincent Peale. Both are lukewarm and ambiguous on civil rights—the way President Nixon evidently likes his ministers.
