Mrs. Kelly Ends Musical Career With A 'Minister Of Music Swan Song Concert'

BY CHARLES R. JONES

One of this city's most revered musicians and persons has stepped down after giving her "Minister of Music Swan Song Concert" at the First Baptist Church, 101 S. Wilmington St.,

MRS. KELLY is shown here making remarks after being cited as founder of Chapter 75, Modern Music Masters, at which time she was presented a plaque.

The retirement of Mrs. Emily May Morgan Kelly caught many by surprise, but the "Swan Song Concert" was termed "beautiful," "stupendous," "Soulful," she returned to her position as music specialist at Washington High. Mrs. Kelly retired in June of 1967 after teaching in the Raleigh Public School System for 42 years - at Washington and John W. Ligon High Schools.

The noted musician served under the following principals: Professor Jeshua W. Levister, Mack W. Akins, the late Dr. Charles H. McLendon, Dr. W. H. Watson, Dr. William J. Holloway and Herbert E. Brown, current principal at Ligon.

Among the many awards and citations received by her are the following: A plaque in 1963, presented during the Fine Arts Festival at Ligon; a plaque, 1967, for talented and Outstanding Service to Ligon High, given by the student body; chosen "Woman of the Year" by the Omicron Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, 1968; received plaque; plaque presented in 1969 for being founder of Chapter 75 of the Modern Music Masters; a Loving Cup, 1969, presented by the North Carolina State Music Teacher Association, for being founder and friend.

For her original compositions, Mrs. Kelly has received four copyrights.

In the fall of 1948, Mrs. Kelly encouraged this writer to make a collection of his poems and have them printed. This was done, and in May of 1949, A Collection of Poems by Charles R. Jones was published in book form. The book was dedicated to Mrs. Kelly by the author and one of the most touching selections in it is an original poem which she wrote, entitled, "Ode To Music." In this poem, Mrs. Kelly expresses her deep love for music in all of its ramifications.

Among former students taught by her are many who now head music departments in high schools and colleges.

Mrs. Kelly returned on Tuesday, August 19, from a western concert tour which took her and the musical group with which she was traveling to Nebraska, South Dakota, Iowa, Arizona and other states.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Ella E. Morgan and the late Mr. Henry Green Morgan, Mrs. Kelly and her mother reside at 114 N. State Street here.

Friday at 7 p.m. President Robinson will address the faculty and staff at a banquet in the Student Union Building.

and "a work of art" by the leading critics of music in the state, some of whom were in attendance.

Mrs. Kelly had served as organist at First Baptist Church since 1922 and became minister of music in 1950.

Taking part in the program were the Combined Adult Chorus, The Chancel Choir, the Vocal Ensemble and Solists. Singing "The Impossible Dream" was Robert (Bob) White, bass.

Mrs. Kelly received many tributes and awards following the acclaimed concert.

A native of Raleigh, Mrs. Kelly is loved by persons from all walks of life because of the unselfish manner which has characterized her entire life, no matter what the endeavor.

She lists as her hobbies, travelling, poetry, dramatic-reading, coin and rock collecting, reading, writing and composing. In her travels, she has been to every state in the Union, except three, Alaska, Hawaii and Florida.

Mrs. Kelly has visited nine European countries: England, Belgium, Austria, Switzerland, Czechoslovakia, Holland, Italy, Germany and France. She also lists Canada among her many travels.

Being interested in the field of art, Mrs. Kelly has seen the following original painting masterpieces: "The Last Judgment," a fresco, by Michael Angelo, viewed in the Sistine Chapel, St. Peter's Cathedral, Rome, Italy; the Mona Lisa, by Leonardo Da Vinci, in the Louvre, Paris, France; The Sistine Madonna, by Raphael, in Dresden, Germany; and the Last Supper, by Da Vinci, a fresco, in Santa Maria Delle Grazie, in Milan, Italy.

Mrs. Kelly began her musical career as a teacher at the Washington High School in the fall of 1926 here as glee club director, and teacher of English and social studies.

She was given a leave of absence by the Superintendent, Jesse Ormand Sanderson, Sr., during the year 1945-1946, to study for her master of arts degree at Columbia University, New York City. Following this,

Another Black Solon

CHICAGO (UPI)--With the recent death of Rep. Daniel Roman (D--6th District), a concerted drive has begun to get the Democratic party to slate a Black man to fill the vacancy. The district includes the predominantly Black 24th and 29th wards, plus the black belt of the 22nd. If a Black man is selected, he would join veteran Congressman William L. Dawson in the House of Representatives, and bring Illinois' Black representation to two.

Our computers are color-blind

At R. J. Reynolds, the right man gets the promotion, no matter what his color. It's part of the way we've been honoring our commitment to equal opportunity. A way that is new and different. Our people have more than just a job; they have a career opportunity with a bright rewarding future. And we back up our offer with the best training we can provide.

Here is how it is: It is 700 summer jobs right now. It is 1 of every 4 jobs for Blacks. It is everybody starting even.

But starting even is not enough. We let the computers identify who is eligible for training and who gets the promotions. Prejudice just isn't part of our computer programming. Regardless of color, promotion and additional training for promotion goes to the worker with the most seniority.
